CLEARER SKIES FOLLOW COX'S STATEMENT ON TAFT

Republicans Relieved By Cox's Statement of His Position in Ohio.

HERRICK'S BIG TASK

Will Break Speechmaking Record in State Campaigns This Year.

DEMOCRATS GETTING LIVELY

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM L. W. STRAYER, Staff Correspondent.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 24.—By the publication of the interview secured by The Gazette with George B. Cox of Cincinnati, the political atmosphere in Ohio has been cleared and the Republicans are assured the Cincinnati organization will stand by the ticket and roll up a big majority for Herrick in Hamilton county. All doubt as to a possible course of retaliation on the part of Cox in return for the severe criticism administered by Secretary Taft in his Akron speech, has been removed and the news was received at state headquarters here today with undisguised satisfaction.

In stating he and his supporters would not "quit," but would keep on fighting for the ticket, Cox vindicated the opinion of him held by prominent Republicans throughout the state. They did not expect him to take a revenge on the ticket in retaliation for Mr. Taft's criticisms and yet it was generally appreciated that he could do so if he desired. But The Gazette interview removed all doubt on this score and at the same time it leaves no question as to the effect that the Taft speech will have on the situation.

Speech Benefits Herrick.

For the first time it is possible to state with a large degree of confidence that Herrick will be benefited by the Taft speech. Throughout the state are many Republicans who have been doubtful as to what course to follow in this campaign, in view of the cries of bossism raised by the Democrats. Secretary Taft pointed the way and relieved their minds and consciences by his speech.

There remained only the possibility that the good done up through the state might be counteracted by a policy of inactivity on the part of the Cincinnati organization that would lose more votes for Herrick than had been gained outside of Hamilton county. This possibility was removed by the one significant sentence secured by The Gazette from Mr. Cox: "We are not quitters down here."

The result has been a great activity at Republican headquarters today. The campaign which has been heard fought from the start will close in a whirlwind of oratory and hard work. Senator Foraker will not be able to speak any more this fall, as it is understood here he is a very sick man, and that the reports that he is suffering from a severe cold do not give any idea of the seriousness of his condition. It is reported that his trouble is far more serious than his friends have been led to believe and there is much concern here among those who have fought with him on many a political battlefield.

Will Have Plenty of Speakers.

But there will be no dearth of spellbinders. A big meeting is scheduled for here on Thursday evening, and Senator Dick will speak and with him will be Gen. J. Warren Keifer, former speaker of the house of representatives and last fall re-elected to congress after a long period of retirement to private life. An effort is being made to secure Secretary of the Treasury Shaw for the Columbus meeting, but it is not yet known whether he can come on that date. Senator Dick will also make an address at Washington Court House.

As chairman of the state executive committee Senator Dick really has all that he can do to attend to the details of the work of the committee, but he has consented to go on the stump and his example is being followed by everybody at headquarters, all of them rolling up their sleeves and going in for the final round of the fight.

Secretary Shaw is booked for three speeches in the state. On Friday evening he will be at Portsmouth and on Saturday evening he will speak at Youngstown. On Saturday evening, November 4, he will close the campaign at Cleveland.

Gov. Herrick came into the city last night, had a consultation with Chairman Dick, slept in a real bed for a few hours, then packed his bag and left this morning at 6:50. He is breaking all records for campaigning in this state and every day is making better speeches and more votes. Up to this morning he had made 84 speeches, 31 of which were delivered on his recent two-day trolley trip.

Will Make Lively Finish.

From now on until the close of the campaign he has 12 scheduled meetings and besides he will start from Cleveland on October 29 for a four-day trolley trip through the western reserve. On one of these days he will stop at 10 towns and make at least 10 speeches, while his work for the remaining three days of this trip will probably be little if anything less. Altogether he will make more than 100 speeches during this canvass. Julius Whiting, in charge of the speakers bureau, says that up to this fall 88 speeches in one campaign was the record.

The Pattison campaigning party will be equally active from now until a week from Saturday. Just now the Democratic state committee is preparing the itinerary for Gov. Folk of Missouri, who has promised to take a hand in the fight. He had agreed to spend three days in Ohio, but owing to the fire that occurred in the executive mansion at Jefferson City, he has cut down his time in this state to two days. The committee is trying to spread

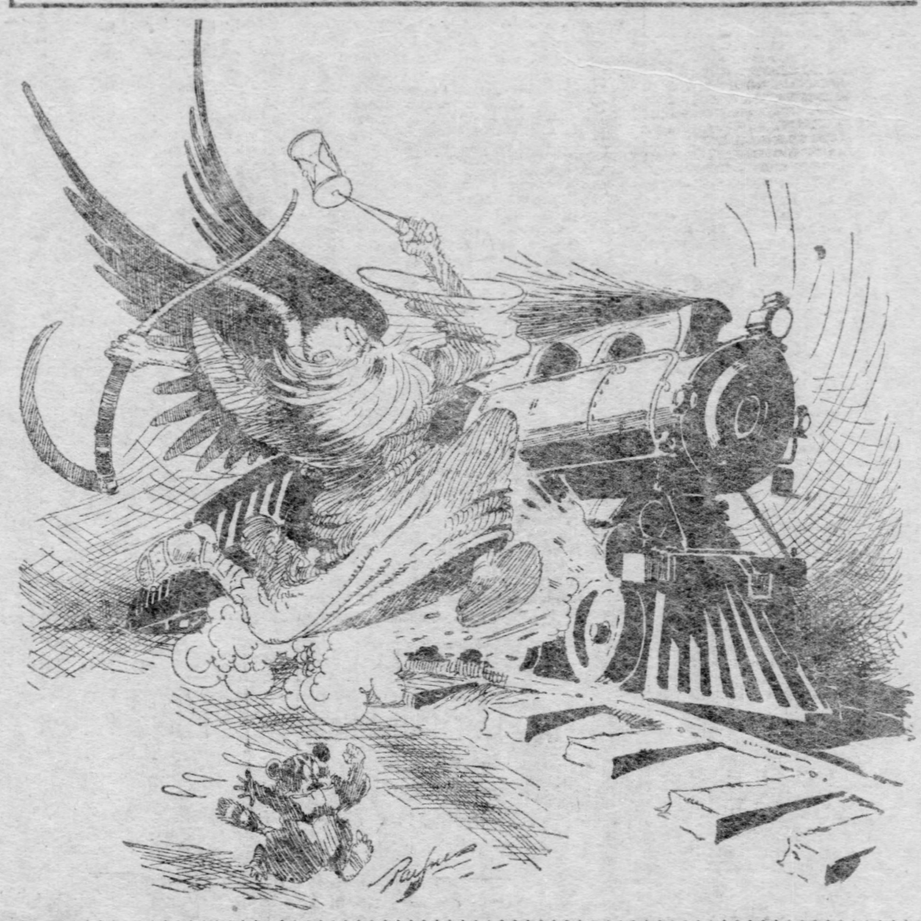
THE RACE OF THE DAY



FIFTY ARE KILLED; FIVE HUNDRED WOUNDED

Great Damage to Property Also Caused by Rioters at Santiago, Chile.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

SANTIAGO, CHILE, Oct. 24.—About 50 persons were killed and 500 were wounded during rioting here. During the day more troops reached Santiago and with their arrival relative tranquility prevails and the city is gradually assuming its normal condition.

A bitter feeling prevails against the authorities. The outbreak is believed to be the work of rowdies who were encouraged by the absence of the troops at the maneuvers. The police force was unable to cope with the rioters. The officials of the street railroads estimate the damage done to their property at about $250,000.

The disturbances, caused by the opposition of the people to the import tax on Argentine cattle, continued all day yesterday and did not cease until late last night, when a small detachment of troops arrived here and a few shots were fired. The people of Santiago have just witnessed the most shameful occurrences in the city's existence. Almost everything which could be destroyed has been wrecked, including the city lamps, public seats, monuments and windows everywhere. The situation as this dispatch is filed is comparatively calm, but the banks and all business houses remained closed all day. Several hundred arrests have been made. The workmen declare they are not responsible for the rioting, which they say was organized by rowdies.

Anti-tax meetings which have been held elsewhere have been quiet. The local authorities, for lack of energy in preventing the disorders, are valueless. The maneuvers have been suspended and more troops are expected back to their quarters here in a short time.

MORE TROUBLE FOR DUKE.

Co-Respondent Named in His Divorce Suit Demands Right to Appear.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—In the court of chancery here today Chancellor Magie granted the petition of Frank P. F. Huntoon, the New York clubman, for leave to be named as a party in the divorce proceedings instituted by James B. Duke, the millionaire tobacco king, against his bride of less than a year, and in which litigation Huntoon was named as the co-respondent.

This is taken as a determination of Huntoon to deny all complicity in the Duke affair and make such denial in court.

PICKPOCKETS AT WORK IN PRESIDENT'S AUDIENCES

MOBILE, ALA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Pickpockets reaped a harvest here last night after the reception to President Roosevelt, and up to tonight more than 25 persons have been robbed of cash, diamonds and watches. The police report that over $2,000 was secured by the thieves. Other cities in the President's tour have been notified to keep a lookout.

TOUL, FRANCE, Oct. 24.—Minister of War Berteaux participated today in the most successful trial of the Lebaudy military dirigible balloon. Accompanied by a number of officers he made a half-hour trip in the balloon, and reconnoitered the whole range of fortified works and the city.

Army Prisoners Pardoned.

TRIES TO BURN HIS WIFE ALIVE IN FEATHER BED

South Side Man Is Committed to Jail on Charge of Arson. Not First Attempt.

The old Puritan custom of burning witches must meet with the favor of James Baker of Eleanor and Cobden streets, South Side, who is charged with having adopted this plan for getting rid of his wife. Baker's wife alleges he came home drunk Monday night and set fire to the feather bed in which she was sleeping. Failing to burn her alive, she says he demolished all the furniture in the house and threatened to murder her and their two children. On a former occasion she says he threw oil over her for the purpose of setting fire to her clothes, and also threatened to burn her mother's house.

Baker was arrested and committed to jail yesterday in default of $2,000 bail, on the charges of arson and surety of the peace. He was also arrested on Monday night for disorderly conduct and on this charge was yesterday sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or serve six months in the workhouse.

HEAD OF CLYDE STEAMER LINE KILLED BY TRAIN

Body of Prominent Philadelphian Is Crushed Beneath Wheels in the Quaker City.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—Crushed under the wheels of a suburban train, B. Frank Clyde, head of the Clyde Steamship Company, was instantly killed this morning at the Fifty-second street station on the Pennsylvania railroad. Mr. Clyde was 58 years old. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Margaret Clyde.

The history of the Clyde family is the history of the coastwise shipping trade of the Atlantic coast. From the beginning of the era of steam navigation the Clydes have been identified with American steam merchant marine. The founder of the Clyde line, Thomas Clyde, was one of the first to recognize the value of the screw propeller as a power in steam navigation and he aided John Ericsson in exploiting his discovery, by applying it to the first steamer thus equipped in American waters for commercial purposes.

COOKS BATTLE ON DINER.

One Negro Shoots Another Who Tries to Carve Him as Train Runs Through Greenville.

GREENVILLE, PA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Daniel Potter and H. N. Smith, colored cooks on an Erie railroad dinig car, had a desperate hand-to-hand encounter in the car just before train No. 8 reached here this afternoon, and Potter received a bullet wound which will probably cause his death. Smith leaped from the train here, but was captured.

Smith claims a dispute arose and Potter struck him with his fists and when Smith ran away secured a cleaver and struck him with that. Smith then fled to the pantry and shut the door, but Potter forced it open and attempted to use a razor. Then Smith says he drew his revolver and fired.

CHINA'S RULER LOCKED UP BY THE DOWAGER EMPRESS

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Shanghai sends a report circulated at Pekin according to which the dowager empress has imprisoned the emperor for alleged connection with the recent bomb outrage at a railroad station there.

GREENSBURG, PA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Gustav Woelck of 1206 Cerst alley, Allegheny, died at a boarding house here this morning while eating his breakfast. Woelck was employed by Frank Bohn & Co. of Allegheny, who are redecorating the Most Holy Sacrament Roman Catholic church.

CASTLE RENEWS ATTACK UPON MR. M'AFEE

Tells New Castle Audience He Defies the Politicians and Threats of Suits.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM WALTER J. CHRISTY, Staff Correspondent.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Oct. 24.—In a speech here tonight Homer L. Castle returned to his campaign of misrepresentation and defamation of the character of public officials and private individuals, and, in a manner of a braggadocio, invited prosecution for the wholesale charges he has been making on the stump in the present campaign for the purpose of acquiring notoriety. Castle reiterated the charge he made in his Milton speech against Secretary of State Robert McAfee and supplemented the charge with a vicious attack of spleen on The Pittsburgh Gazette. The Gazette had aroused the ire of Castle by an editorial of today censuring him for his campaign of character assassination and for uttering calumny against Secretary McAfee.

Castle followed up his attack on McAfee by repeating all the charges he has made since the opening of the campaign involving not only the Enterprise bank of Allegheny, but also reflecting seriously on other banking institutions of Pittsburgh in a manner calculated to weaken public confidence in all banks which happen to hold state funds on deposit.

Castle's remarks were inflammatory in the extreme, he repeating stories which long ago were proven utterly false and which he revamped for campaign effect. A notable feature of his address, however, was his entire omission of any reference to the defunct Prudential Trust Company, of which he was a director.

In Castle's eagerness to make charges he attacked the present state treasurer concerning the Lancaster Trust Company. He said this institution failed sometime ago and, while it held $65,000 of state deposits, no attempt had been made by Treasurer Mathues to recover from the bondsmen. Mathues showed in a statement made yesterday that the bondsmen are now paying interest to the state and the entire sum will be paid. Castle did not tell his audience this.

Castle almost forgot to say anything about Prohibition. In closing his speech, however, he made an attack on the licensed saloon.

BOMB FOLLOWS LETTERS.

Mysterious Missives Demanded Cash and Foretold Death of the Recipient.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The seven-story tenement house at Grand and Mott streets was shaken tonight by an explosion of dynamite which some unknown person had placed on the steps of the butcher shop on the ground floor. The explosion threw the hundreds of tenants in the building and in the houses adjoining into a panic.

Dr. Vincenso Sellaro, who has an office and apartment in the building, informed the police that the dynamite probably was meant for him. He said he had received threatening letters, the first demanding $5,000, and the others ranging down to $100. He ignored all the letters. One Italian was arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the explosion.

Texas Oil Reaches High Record.

BEAUMONT, TEX., Oct. 24.—An advance in the price of oil was posted by the Texas Company today as follows: Sour Lake, 42 cents; Saratoga, 35 cents; Batson, 34 cents; Humble, 36 cents. The price for Humble oil represents the highest price since the field opened.

Commander Young's Defense Opens.

MARE ISLAND, CAL., Oct. 24.—Judge G. D. Gear today argued for the defense before the court-martial sitting upon the case of Commander Young, charged with neglect of duty as commander of the gunboat Bennington.

What Investigation Shows About Bank

Not a dollar was loaned to the Santa Fe Central railroad.

Notes for comparatively small amounts, indorsed by Arthur Kennedy and Francis J. Torrance, will be liquidated today, and would have been paid any time on demand.

Cashier Clark had many financial irons in the fire, some of them valueless, and had apparently lost his grip upon his own affairs.

The directors are confident the bank will emerge perfectly solvent from its present troubles and that its doors will soon be reopened for business.

Depositors show they have perfect confidence in the bank by refusing to consider anything less than 100 cents on the dollar for their deposits.

National officials have perfect confidence that Examiner Cunningham can disentangle the affairs of the bank to the satisfaction of all interested parties and will not interfere, notwithstanding wild reports to that effect.

MR. RIDGELY WILL NOT COME TO THIS CITY

Declares Mr. Cunningham Is Able to Cope With the Enterprise Failure.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Acting Comptroller Kane denied today that Comptroller Ridgely had gone to Pittsburgh in connection with the Enterprise National bank failure, or had any intention, so far as he knew, of doing so. He stated that the comptroller is in New York and that he received a telegram from him late yesterday afternoon instructing that all mail be forwarded to him there. Mr. Ridgely expected to be back from New York this morning, but was detained there by private business and will return Thursday.

Mr. Ridgely has stated that he places the utmost confidence in Bank Examiner Cunningham, believing that he will be able to cope with the situation without any assistance from the comptroller himself.

In commenting upon the general impressions that the comptroller would issue another statement concerning the failure, Acting Comptroller Kane said today:

"The investigation of the Enterprise National bank is proceeding along the usual lines which are pursued in such cases. We have never given out any other statement than the one which was made public at the time of the failure, and I see no reason why we should issue another in this case, even after Mr. Cunningham's report is received. Mr. Cunningham's report will be of a confidential nature, and the publication of it would prove injurious to the creditors of the bank.

"Our purpose in handling these reports in this manner is to adjust the affairs of an unfortunate bank in such a manner that the smallest loss possible shall be incurred by the creditors of the institution. We are not in any way influenced by the political leaders of Pittsburgh or Pennsylvania in this examination. No politician, however powerful, could induce the comptroller to deviate in the least from his usual methods of closing up the affairs of a bank.

"There has been more wild and improbable stories circulated in reference to this failure than any in the history of the bureau. For instance, some of the Pittsburgh papers published the report that Mr. Cunningham had employed J. Walter Lyon as attorney for the government. Tonight I received a telegram from Mr. Cunningham denying this."

WITTE TO BE PREMIER ON HIS OWN TERMS

The Count Laid Down Certain Stipulations Which Were Accepted by the Russian Emperor.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—The announcement that Count Witte would shortly assume active direction of the government as premier, and head of a responsible cabinet, now seems to be fully confirmed. The emperor has tendered the position of premier of the cabinet about to be formed, to the count, who, however, guarded his acceptance with certain conditions which were placed before his majesty in the form of a written memorandum.

Count Witte is said to have informed the emperor, in his usual fearless manner, that he could accept the position only on the condition that he would be a real premier with a working cabinet and not a mere figurehead or an irresponsible body.

According to a persistent report the emperor actually appointed Count Witte as premier, after accepting his stipulations.

ONE MAN COULD SHOOT.

Eleven Fired at Mountain Lion, But Only a Single Bullet Struck the Beast.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, COL., Oct. 24.—P. H. Benedict, W. P. Thompson and T. M. Carnegie of New York, who have been in the hills for the past five weeks, returned today, bringing in two lion skins, a bear and two fine deer heads, the latter killed during the deer season. C. Baxter, who accompanied the eastern hunters as guide, today told of slaying of the lions. "The 11 members of our party took a shot at the beast and we have been unable to decide to whom the glory of the killing belonged as only one bullet hole is evident in the hide," said the guide.

PITTSBURGH WOMAN HEADS NEW MISSIONARY BUREAU

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Oct. 24.—The board of managers of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church today adopted a resolution creating a bureau of temperance and art, and a standing committee was named to take charge of the bureau. Mrs. J. C. McDowell of Pittsburgh is chairman. The society will ask Congress for an appropriation sufficient to open all the public schools of Alaska.

RAILROAD HAS NOT A DOLLAR BELONGING TO BANK

Torrance and Kennedy on Notes for a Comparatively Small Amount.

WILL BE PAID TODAY

Attorney General Has Not Taken Any Action, Nor Is Comptroller Coming Here.

CASHIER'S MANY INTERESTS

Former Lieut.-Gov. Walter Lyon shed important light on one detail of the Enterprise National bank last night, namely, the indebtedness to the bank of the Pennsylvania Development Company. Mr. Lyon said:

"I am attorney for the Pennsylvania Development Company, the Santa Fe Central Railroad Company, Francis J. Torrance and Arthur Kennedy. In that capacity I asked for a statement of account of these parties with the Enterprise National bank, requesting it should be prepared as soon as possible in order that my clients might liquidate their obligations. As their attorney I had this right.

"Today I received the statement. On account of the intense public interest aroused by loose and sensational publications I deem it proper to make public the information as attorney for the companies and individuals named.

Not a Dollar to the Railroad.

"No obligations of the Santa Fe Central railroad have been found, not one dollar. Notes of the Pennsylvania Development Company aggregate $68,626. These are indorsed by F. J. Torrance and Arthur Kennedy, and they will be paid at once. This is absolutely all of the paper of my clients held by the bank.

"Surely this debt, which could have been collected at any time on short notice, would not wreck a bank."

This last sentence was spoken in a sarcastic tone, conveying a wealth of meaning as to what Attorney Lyon thinks of some of the reports that have been current.

Two rumors without the remotest foundation in fact were published yesterday. One was that Attorney General Moody, at the request of United States District Attorney J. W. Dunkle, would take a hand in investigating the affairs of the Enterprise bank and had already ordered Comptroler of the Currency Ridgely to come to this city. The second was that rooms for Mr. Ridgely had already been engaged at the Hotel Lincoln.

Mr. Dunkle was in Warren yesterday, leaving for Pittsburgh last night. In response to telegrams asking him if his department had taken up the Enterprise bank's affairs, Mr. Dunkle replied.

No Orders from Washington.

"I have made no request to Attorney General Moody in regard to the Enterprise bank, and have received no orders from him. I have made no move and have no communication from Ridgely. Do not know if he is coming to Pittsburgh. Do not know of any prosecutions.

Assistant United States District Attorney Gibson said last evening:

"We have nothing to do with such matters unless Bank Examiner John R. Cunningham should discover something that would lead him to believe some employe of the bank had been guilty of a crime, such as making false entries in order to defraud. If such a condition should develop through the examiner's investigation, he would not take it up with us direct, but a report from him would reach Attorney General Moody's office with a request for legal assistance."

As to Ridgely engaging rooms at the Lincoln, that is another story—and a funny one.

State Cannot Lose a Cent.

The bank directors met last night in the office of Attorney Thomas P. Trimble in the Frick building. Those present were J. P. McKinney, August Langenheim, W. A. Selling, David Morrison, William T. Bradberry, A. F. Schwerd, Charles F. Stifel nad Fred Gwinner, Jr., who represented his father, the president of the bank.

The directors are anxious concerning the filing by State Treasurer Mathues of a judgment against them on the bonds that insure the state funds. The bonds represent over $2,000,000. The amount of state money in the Enterprise bank is $1,082,000. Every cent of this is insured by these bonds, and the bank directors are directly accountable to the state treasurer for this amount.

Every day a number of people visit the prothonotary's office and request permission to examine the four bonds given by the directors to the state treasurer. The bonds were given during the terms of Treasurers Barnett, Beacon and Harris. They are in force so long as the bank retains the deposits for which they were given.

Hope for Early Reopening.

The directors will collect every dollar outstanding on notes that are due or overdue. At their meeting last night they planned to take immediate steps to accomplish this object. Should they manage to have returned all money loaned on notes and place the bank in a position where Receiver Cunningham has enough money to pay the bank debts and cover the amount of private deposits, the bank could be opened at once. The hope of the directors is to have the bank's doors opened just as soon as possible and to this end they are working.

If the value of the estate left by Cashier Clark was known, better progress could be made. On examination of his papers it is shown that Clark's business interests were vastly more diverse than was ever suspected. His estate is prac-

...ly scattered all over the United ...es. Parts of it are in New Mexico ... Colorado and other parts in the east. ... local connections commercially were ... a wide character, and his affairs are ... in almost hopelessly confused con...tion.

Carried Accounts in His Head.

Those who knew him most intimately declare he could carry more figures and accounts in his head than any 10 bankers in Pittsburgh. This is presumed to mean that no paper record was ever made of a great many of his operations.

Attorney Trimble, who was personal counsel for Cashier Clark, is preparing to have appraisers appointed to make an inventory of the estate. Their work will of necessity be tedious and will take them to many parts of the country in order that all the loose ends of the man's commercial affairs can be brought together and woven into a coherent fabric. Mr. Trimble has no idea how long this will take, but thinks an appraisement of the approximate value of the estate can be established within a reasonable time.

Mr. Trimble has received a check for $10,000 from the Equitable Life Assurance society in which Cashier Clark held a policy. There are several other life insurance policies to be paid, but Mr. Trimble declines to make public their amounts. All the insurance money goes intact to the family of the dead cashier, but the bulk of the estate representing real and personal property will likely be claimed by the Enterprise bank.

Receiver for Another Clark Concern.

The second receivership following the death of Cashier Clark was started yesterday when W. F. Trimble & Sons, the Allegheny contractors, began an action for the appointment of a receiver for the Allegheny Mattress and Spring Company. This action was amicable, the company joining in it.

Mr. Clark was president of the company and the funds of the concern are tied up in the Enterprise bank. The company was of considerable importance, its plant being in Preble avenue near Franklin street, Allegheny.

The first receivership of an industrial concern following Mr. Clark's death was that of the National Cable and Wire Company of Shousetown.

Mrs. Delia T. Clark, widow of Cashier Clark, filed her husband's will with Register George Stengel yesterday morning. The instrument is short and to the point, leaving everything to his widow after the payment of his just debts and funeral expenses. The will was written on March 30, 1897. It is as follows:

Brief but Comprehensive Will.

I, T. Lee Clark, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made:

First—I desire it that my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

Second—I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Delia T. Clark, all of my estate, real, personal and mixed, with full power to make, execute and deliver deeds to any person for any part of my real estate without any liability on the part of the purchasers to see to the application of the purchase money.

Third—I nominate my wife, Delia T. Clark, as sole executrix of this my last will.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this 30th day of March, 1897.

T. LEE CLARK.

It was the good memory of National Bank Examiner John B. Cunningham that caused the closing of the Enterprise bank last Wednesday. Several days before Cunningham called upon Clark. An examination of the Bank of Pittsburgh was being made by Mr. Cunningham and his assistants. In looking through the paper of other banks Mr. Cunningham came upon re-discounts of the Enterprise National bank totaling $300,000.

Discrepancy Created Suspicion.

Only a few days before this Cashier Clark had sent to the comptroller of the currency at Washington, a statement of the condition of the Enterprise bank. Cunningham remembered having seen the figures of this statement and recalled that in the report Clark showed only $150,000 in the item of re-discounts. Such a discrepancy created suspicion in the mind of Cunningham and he immediately informed Comptroller Ridgely. The latter wired back:

"Go to the Enterprise bank at once and make an examination."

The memorable visit was made on the afternoon of October 17 and for several hours Examiner Cunningham and Cashier Clark were together. Before Clark left to go to his home in Bellevue he knew there was not the faintest chance to prevent exposure. The following morning he sent a bullet through his brain and died shortly after. Had it not been for this little chain of circumstances the Enterprise bank would still be open and Cashier Clark would very likely still be living.

Limitation to Coroner's Powers.

Coroner Joseph G. Armstrong made a statement last night in relation to the investigation into the death of Cashier Clark. The coroner has been ill for a month and confined to his room in his home on the South Side, but has maintained supervision over the office, directing the work in all important cases.

Coroner Armstrong said the Clark case already falls within the scope of the supreme court opinion recently handed down, of cases in which an inquest is not necessary. An act of 1897, however, allows fees to be charged. In a suicide case where the facts are clear an investigation or inquest is not held, but a "submit" is made and placed on record.

In the Clark case an inquest will not be held. An investigation was made and the sworn statements of Mrs. Clark, a woman who was present right after the shooting, and the attending physician were taken. There was no mystery, no suspicion of foul play, but only a case of suicide. A "submit" was made and this goes in the records. Speaking of the case, Coroner Armstrong said:

"We had no right to search Clark's clothes or premises, and no right to take anything away. I have heard talk of a paper he left.

Lacked the Power to Demand Paper.

"If he did I could not take it or demand sight of it. The law gives me no such right. The man shot himself in his own house and I could not haul his body and effects to the morgue. If I were to order an inquest at my office I could not compel Mrs. Clark to attend it, for under the circumstances the law does not give me power to do so.

"It has been said that this paper Clark is supposed to have left would be useful politically. My office is not run for political purposes and cannot be used for political purposes by any one. To the best of my ability, I conduct the affairs of the office along the lines of the laws governing a coroner's work, because that is what the people pay my salary for."

The Rev. Dr. D. A. Greene, pastor of the Manchester Presbyterian church, the funds of which were tied up by the closing of the Enterprise bank, said last evening that so far as he had any knowledge there had been no move made to organize an association of the depositors to assure their fair treatment.

Confident of Getting Every Cent.

"I have my own account there and a number of my congregation are deeply interested, one member having $18,000 on deposit in the closed bank. So if there were a movement of the kind, I should probably know of it," he said.

"I was told by a member of my congregation today that 75 cents on the dollar had been offered for her account. She has not accepted the offer, because practically every one here is confident the bank will repay every cent deposited in it."

Dr. Greene will cast his first vote as a Pennsylvanian this fall. He has held charges in Eastern Ohio and Northern West Virginia, and has been a reader of the Pittsburgh papers and thoroughly informed on Pennsylvania matters for a number of years, but the coming Pennsylvania election will be the first in which he will have the right to cast a vote. He is a life-long Republican, and his family is Republican, having been for many years readers of The Gazette.

Opposes Change in State Administration

Despite the efforts to make his remarks on the Enterprise bank failure in last Sunday's sermon take on a political hue, Dr. Greene is far from convinced that it is good judgment to favor a political change in the administration of the state treasury. He said last evening that it would require a great deal to convince him that such is advisable.

Next Sunday Dr. Greene expects to preach on the general subject of stealing. One of his points will be that honesty in the individual is the keynote, and that cheating a street car company out of a nickel is identical in principle with defrauding a depositor in a bank out of $25,000.

On the plea that he took to drinking, after being a total abstainer for 11 months, because the Enterprise bank closed its doors, Thomas Sheering of Allegheny was allowed to go unpunished by Magistrate Kirby yesterday. Sheering told the magistrate his savings are in the Enterprise bank, and worry over the thoughts of losing his money caused him to drink again.

GOVERNOR WOULD PUT LESS MONEY IN BANKS

Mr. Pennypacker Suggests Law to Limit Deposits of State Treasury.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24.—Gov. Pennypacker today made some observations on state depositories with special reference to the Enterprise National bank affair.

Briefly, the governor's idea is that the state might solve the difficulty and remove from the banks which hold state money to excess the stigma of being a "political bank," and therefore an institution which reputable business men view with suspicion, by passing a law limiting the amount of money which the state treasurer can put into a single bank.

"The state money is safe," said the governor. "It is amply protected by bonds. I have seen the state treasurer and he reported to me today when he was here that the commonwealth will not lose a cent in this particular instance.

"The only way to correct the evil is this: First, there ought to be less money in the treasury. It should be spent for needed improvements as soon as it comes in, but not recklessly. Secondly, the state should limit by law the amount of money to be placed in each bank. There ought not to be more in any institution than one-half of the capital stock, and surplus combined, and then only in very conservative institutions after a careful investigation by a bond clerk."

SCHOOL DISTRICTS HAVE MONEY COMING TO THEM

Eleven Districts in Allegheny County Have Not Been Paid Their Appropriation for This Year.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24.—Only 11 school districts in Allegheny county have not been paid their share of the $5,500,000 school appropriation for the current year, which became due and payable the first Monday of last June. Six of these, Carrick, Edgeworth, Elliott, Independent, Leetsdale and Port Vue, have not yet filed their annual reports with the department of public instruction as required by law, and until these reports are filed the districts will not be paid.

The remaining unpaid districts in Allegheny county are Pittsburgh, Allegheny City, Braddock borough, McKeesport and Wilkinsburg. All of the districts in Armstrong county have been paid with the exception of Applewood. Big Beaver is the only district in Beaver county which remains unpaid.

One district in Butler county, six in Cambria, three in Crawford, one each in Indiana, Greene, Lawrence, McKean and Westmoreland counties and two each in Fayette, Washington and Venango counties remain unpaid. Thirty small districts were paid today, leaving only 85 out of the 2,569 districts in the state to be paid. All of the remaining districts will be paid the next 30 days.

NON-PARTISANS HOLD ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

BEAVER FALLS, PA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—A non-partisan meeting for discussion of the judiciary fight in this county was held this evening in the Lyceum theater, which was packed. Addresses were made by Attorney Arthur E. Barnett and Attorney John M. Buchanan of Beaver, and Attorney W. H. S. Thompson of Pittsburgh, former law partner of J. Rankin Martin, the Republican candidate for president county judge against Richard S. Holt, the fusion candidate. There was no denunciation of either candidate, but the importance of electing a clean man to the office was urged, and the speakers defended Martin against attacks that have been made against him recently.

WHEELING, W. VA., Oct. 24.—Elizabeth E. Wilson, a prepossessing young woman of Bridgeport, O., who was to have married a Wheeling young man within a few weeks, has been arrested on a charge of stealing her bridal trousseau from her employers. Her betrothed secured a bondsman for her and prevented her from going to jail.

CAMBRIDGE, MD., Oct. 24.—Secretary of the Navy Charles J. Bonaparte addressed two meetings of eastern shore Republicans today, one at Easton and one here. On both occasions he attacked the proposed disfranchisement amendment, touching also upon points of more particularly local interest.

CASTLE'S TALES DENIED IN FULL

Senator McNichol "Blankets" Him from the Present Until Election Day.

CRIMINAL CHARGES PROMISED

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Oct. 24.

On unimpeachable authority it is stated that Homer L. Castle and William H. Berry have been instructed to work their bank charges to the limit. They will probably obey orders unless their unlicensed use of names and facts is checked by legal proceedings on the part of some of the gentlemen who have been attacked. Such action may be taken by Philadelphia people within a few days. Attorneys have been consulted and it is known that their advice is to place Messrs. Castle and Berry in a position where they may be forced to prove the truth of charges made by them in campaign speeches.

Senator James P. McNichol, whom Berry last night added to his list of Enterprise bank politicians, laughed when shown the story. He said he had never heard of the bank named and consequently could not have transacted any business with it. With Senator Penrose and Chairman Andrews he denied that his name was on any paper found in the bank.

"Better make my statement fully comprehensive," said Mr. McNichol. "I not only declare false what Mr. Berry said last night, but also anything he or Mr. Castle may say on this subject between now and election. In times like these when political liars are working day and night, when a denial today means a reiteration and amplification of the charge tomorrow, the only way to handle the matter is to discount in advance what may be said. So far as I am concerned you can 'blanket' Berry and Castle for the next two weeks, with my statement that they will not tell the truth in their campaign speeches."

Republican State Chairman W. R. Andrews says his reports from county leaders show that there is no reason why he should revise his prediction that J. Lee Plummer will come to Philadelphia on election day with a majority of 100,000 or more. Headquarters was crowded all day and Col. Andrews was in the best of spirits over the prospects.

"County leaders tell me," said Mr. Andrews, "that the Republican vote will not be influenced by the false and criminal charges made by Berry and Castle. I believe them. So absurd have been these charges, without a scintilla of evidence to support them, that the people of the state could not be deceived. Neither Senator Penrose, myself, the Republican state committee, nor any Republican leader has had any part in the operations which caused the Enterprise National bank to close its doors. This has been stated with as much clearness and force as language permits. I have no doubt that the voters of the state fully understand the facts as they are and that when the votes are counted November 7 Messrs. Berry and Castle will be made aware of the fact that honesty is the best policy, 'even in politics.'

Dr. Charles B. Penrose, brother of Senator Boies Penrose, today resigned as a member of the board of health. His action was prompted by that of Director Edward Martin, who objected to "mixing health and politics."

Approximately $40,000 was today wagered by stock brokers on the outcome of the election. There was "all kinds" of Republican money, but the reformers quit after making good their pool of $30,000.

MAYOR CALLS COUNCIL.

Assumes Duty on Account of the Illness of Francis J. Torrance—Wants $13,600 Transferred.

Owing to the illness of President Francis J. Torrance, Mayor Wyman yesterday issued a call for a special meeting of Allegheny select council at 3:30 p. m. tomorrow.

The meeting is to take action on the ordinance authorizing the transfer of $13,600 from the contingent fund to the appropriation for the bureau of fire. The transfer is wanted for the payment of salaries of firemen who have been appointed to man new hook and ladder trucks at Nos. 10 and 12 engine houses, and for the payment of a new hook and ladder truck at 13 engine house. There is only $300 now in the contingent fund, but the mayor and Director Scandrett want the transfer ordered so the deficit can be included in next year's annual appropriation for the bureau of fire.

The common branch will meet on Friday evening for the same purpose.

RHODE ISLAND IS READY.

Largest Battleship, Called for Smallest State, Is Almost Completed for Trial Trip.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The battleship Rhode Island, which is being constructed by the Fore River works at Quincy, Mass., according to information received at the navy department, has nearly reached the point of completion, and was scheduled to undergo the builders' trial tomorrow.

If the present program is carried out, she will be given the preliminary acceptance trial on the 31st, either over the Provincetown or the Rockland course. The Rhode Island has a normal displacement of 16,48 tons, which is considerably in excess of that of any American battleship now in commission, and is one of five big battleships building for the United States navy of the same tonnage.

Price Advances on Steel Plates.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Eastern manufacturers of steel plates have put up the price $2 on small lots. The general impression is that a general advance of $2 a ton in the east will go into effect within the next week or two. The demand is exceptionally brisk, and a lot of business that has heretofore been turned over to western plate concerns is now finding its way to the eastern plants.

Leased Building for Postoffice.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(Special.)—The postoffice department today accepted the proposal for the lease of Odd Fellows block for quarters for the postoffice at Warren, O. Rollin A. Cobb and Henry Q. Sikes are lessees and the lease extends for five years from February, 1905, or date of occupancy.

Names Triumvirate of Vice.

READING, PA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—William H. Berry, candidate for state treasurer, addressed a mass meeting in the auditorium tonight. Mr. Berry dwelt on the situation in Philadelphia. "Penrose, Durham and McNichol are a triumvirate of vice," he said.

HOW DRUMMER W. B. RIDGELY EASILY JUMPED INTO FAME

Comptroller of Uncle Sam's Currency Will Not Be Here, but a New York Salesman of Same Name Is Coming.

William Barret Ridgely, comptroller of the currency of the United States treasury, will not arrive in Pittsburgh today to take personal charge of the affairs of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny. Mr. Ridgely when last heard from was eating good meals at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, and showed no indications of a desire to change his boarding house. While Mr. Ridgely is worrying about Uncle Sam's money, a modest traveling man for Howse, Mead & Sons of 21 West Thirty-first street, New York, dealers in underwear and French-made lingerie, will arrive at the Hotel Lincoln and get his mail and telegrams.

It was merely by an intervention of providence that the modest traveling man for the firm that sells the underwear and the lingerie has a surname that corresponds with that of the man who looks after Uncle Sam's currency. Otherwise he is quiet and unassuming. However, it was thought by certain very enterprising newspapers that in the affair of the Enterprise bank it would be a great stroke of politics to bring the comptroller of the currency here, and when the representatives of the certain newspapers saw the name "Ridgely" they sprang to the conclusion there was a lot of trouble coming—for somebody.

Now it happens that William Barret Ridgely, comptroller of Uncle Sam's currency, is not coming to Pittsburgh. At the Hotel Lincoln is a lot of mail addressed to W. D. Ridgely. Every hotel clerk in the town knows the name. Mr. Ridgely has been coming here for years. He is a popular fellow, and besides the mail which comes from his house at 31 West Thirty-first street, New York, he receives some more—and the girls are certain to be pretty because their handwriting denotes intelligence and culture and their stationery—well, it would be a shame to tell the real color of the peculiar sky-blue envelopes and the character of the feminine handwriting. The seals are exquisite. They are made with red sealing wax, with blue sealing wax and with—there are 14 different shades of sealing wax.

"When do you expect Mr. Ridgely, comptroller of the United States currency, to arrive here?" was asked of the clerk at the Lincoln last night.

"Don't know that he's coming," replied the man behind the desk.

"Has he no mail here?"

"Don't know. There have been no reservations made."

"You have official mail here?"

"Oh, yes! A letter with a 'due stamp' on it. That's for Ridgely, the traveling man. Everybody knows him. He'll be along some of these days—but the comptroller of the currency never stopped here, and we have no word of his coming."

And just because a modest traveling man had his mail sent to the Lincoln in advance the story was spread that the long-suffering comptroller of the currency would come here. Scandalous!

NEGRO MURDERS GIRL IN FRONT OF HER HOME

Angelo Jackson Shoots Gertrude Nicholas on Finding Her Talking to a White Man.

Enraged at finding Gertrude Nicholas, aged 19, a negress of Maple avenue, Ross township, talking to a white man, Angelo Jackson shot and killed the girl in front of her father's house, near Jacks run, at 6:30 o'clock last evening. The bullet entered the girl's left breast below the heart. She staggered toward the house and fell to the ground. Her father, Wesley Nicholas, carried her into the house and summoned a physician. The girl stated Jackson had shot her and shortly after 7 o'clock died. Jackson was arrested at his shanty about 10 o'clock by County Detectives O'Brien and Armstrong, who lodged him in jail on a coroner's commitment.

Jackson and the Nicholas girl had been keeping company for some time and friends of Jackson said he shot her after she had called him names and threatened him. The county detectives stated they learned the girl had been jealous. Jackson and the Nicholas girl, the detectives stated, were yesterday in Allegheny and were drinking. On starting home they took a quart of whisky along with them. They separated about 5 o'clock and later Jackson found the girl talking with the white man and took her to task. During the quarrel he shot her.

When the officers arrived at Jackson's shanty they had to break in the door to get him. He had a 44-caliber revolver on a table by his side. Jackson admitted killing the girl. He is said to have come to this section from South Carolina.

FLINN LICKED SHAFFER WHEN BOTH WERE BOYS

Story Told at Citizen-Democratic Meeting in Duquesne—Usual Abuse of Republican Party.

The Citizens-Democratic party had a meeting last night in the Turner hall at Duquesne. There was a pretty good crowd on hand, which listened to the usual abuse of the Republican party, which the Citizens-Democratic orators know so well how to pour out.

Edward Jones presided over the meeting. Speeches were made by Theodore Shaffer, Reid T. Kennedy, Henry Serena, R. W. Heath, W. L. McConaghy, Jere Doherty and T. B. Alcorn. The last named is the Democratic county chairman.

Mr. Kennedy mourned over the free press, which, he said, had been destroyed forever by the Salus-Grady libel law, and he attacked William B. Kirker, the Republican candidate for prothontary, for voting for the act, while he was in the legislature.

Theodore Shaffer attracted much attention a little more than a week ago by sitting on the platform at the Republican meeting in old City hall, Pittsburgh. Last night he spoke at the fusion meeting. Mr. Shaffer said that Senator William Flinn, when a youngster, was quite a scrapper, and that he, Flinn, once whipped him. Shaffer, when they were boys. Then Mr. Shaffer abused the senator roundly and asked his hearers to vote for the fusion ticket.

The circular announces that the next annual election of directors will be held at the offices of the society in New York at noon on Wednesday, December 6, when the trustees will vote for 13 directors, of whom seven will be taken from the policy holders.

New Development in Glass Situation.

HARTFORD CITY, IND., Oct. 24.—Developments in the glass situation took a sudden and unexpected turn today, when John R. Johnston of this city, president of the National Association of Window Glass Manufacturers, quoted the price of window glass at 90 and 25 off. This means the signers of the Amalgamated scale will have to revise their scale before they can go to work.

GUARD COLORS ALL NIGHT WHILE GIRLS FURNISH REFRESHMENTS

With the girl students of the Elizabeth public schools feeding them coffee and sandwiches, the junior class stood guard over their class colors all Monday night to prevent their being hauled down from the flag pole by the seniors. "We are here to stay all night, if necessary, boys, so don't desert your colors," said the girls in encouragement, and the juniors took them at their word and remained at their posts until daybreak yesterday morning.

The girls prepared refreshments at their homes and carried them where the juniors mounted guard. The class colors were still floating from the pole when the sun went down last night. The juniors planted their colors on Monday, but the seniors removed them. A "rush" followed, with bruises and blood-letting, and the juniors succeeded in restoring their flag. Work in the school has been practically suspended for two days on account of the warfare between the two classes.

YOUNG WOMAN ENDS LIFE BY DRINKING POISON

Lottie Sadeguesky Found Dying By Her Mother—Four Other Sudden Deaths.

Lottie Sadeguesky, aged 21, killed herself by taking carbolic acid last evening at her home, 1329 Forbes street. After supper she had lain down on a couch in the parlor. When her mother entered the room at 10 o'clock the girl was unconscious and the empty bottle was beside her on the floor. The Mercy hospital ambulance and two physicians were summoned, but the doctors could not revive her and she was soon dead. Her parents know no reason why she should have taken her life.

Charles Gilg died yesterday at the Allegheny General hospital from hurts received while walking in his sleep last Saturday night, at his home, 1405 Locust street, Allegheny. He walked out of a second-story window and broke both legs. He was 38 years old and has been ill for the past 10 years.

Charles Dremer, a car-cleaner employed by the Pennsylvania railroad, was killed by an engine at the Fifteenth street yards, early yesterday morning. He lived at 3608 Bank street, and was on his way home when run down.

Hamlet Jackson, aged 45, of Western and Bessemer streets, Braddock, was killed while at work yesterday morning at the Edgar Thomson steel works. He was a pipe fitter and was struck by a falling tool.

Jesse Heinlein, aged 25, of 2705 Fifth avenue, died at his home yesterday from heart disease.

Election Bets Favor Herrick.

The most significant incident bearing upon the probable outcome of the election is the placing of $5,000 in bets by a prominent Republican in this city. He offered $5,000 to $10,000 that Herrick would have 50,00 plurality this fall, believing that the reported confidence of the Democrats in the election of Pattison would enable him to secure these odds.

But he found few takers at these figures, so his brokers in Cleveland and Cincinnati were instructed to get the best odds possible down to even. He secured one bet of $1,000 to $2,140 and the remainder of the money was placed at even or a very little above it. This man has more money to put out and is offering to bet even that Herrick will have more than 50,000. For a number of years he has won every bet he has made on Ohio majorities and his judgment is considered almost infallible.

Two years ago he had no trouble whatever in placing several thousand dollars at even money on the proposition that Herrick would carry the state by at least 80,000. He was prepared to raise the figures on the plurality, but enthusiastic Democrats took his bets at 80,000. Herrick came through with a plurality of over 112,000.

Herrick Addresses Large Audience.

CANAL DOVER, O., Oct. 24.—Governor Herrick spoke to an audience of nearly 1,000 people at the Hardesty theater here this evening. His speech consisted entirely of a defense of his administration. He did not once mention Coxism or bossism nor did he touch upon the remarks made by Secretary Taft at Akron Saturday evening.

BANDAGE ON HAND A CLUE.

M. L. Foster, Suspected of Highway Robbery, Is Under Arrest.

M. L. Foster of 308 Second avenue was arrested yesterday on suspicion of having been one of the men who held up John Loughan of Second and Beltzhoover avenues, Thirty-eighth ward, in an alley off Second avenue and Grant street, early Sunday morning. Loughan was held up by two men as he was about to take a drink of whisky. One clutched him by the throat and the other went through his pockets.

Loughan dropped the bottle of whisky and managed to get his knife and slashed at the men. However, they got away with his watch and $8. When Foster was arrested his hand was in a bandage. When examined it was found he had cut across the back of his hand. Foster said he cut it opening a bottle. Loughan will be asked to try and identify the man today.

General Strike on All Railroads at St. Petersburg to Be Declared Today.

PROPERTY LOSS AT MOSCOW

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—At a meeting of 3,600 railway men, held in the university tonight, it was decided to declare a strike on all the railways operating with St. Petersburg, beginning tomorrow. It also was decided at the meeting to send deputations to Prince Hilkoff, minister of railways, and Count Witte, president of the committee of ministers, and present to them addresses demanding political reforms, included among them the convocation of a constituent assembly elected by direct universal suffrage. The meeting remained in session until the return of the deputations, the time being occupied by further discussions of the situation and the delivery of speeches of the most revolutionary character, all of which were loudly applauded. Those present included a large number of students.

The deputations returned toward midnight without having succeeded in seeing Prince Hilkoff, owing to his absence at Peterhof, where he was making a report of the railway troubles to Emperor Nicholas. They found Count Witte, who received them, but he insisted that the interview must be of a private character, he, as president of the committee of ministers, having no right to accept an address. He said, however, that he had no objection to the publication of the conversation.

Some Impossible Demands.

He pointed out that the address contained many demands which would not be realized in any country, and also many which were worthy of attention. He said that a constituent assembly was quite impossible, and contended that the suffrage and other political demands had nothing to do with the question of the railroads.

The count promised that liberty of meeting and of the press would be promptly granted, and said that the continued application of martial law to the railroads was due to a misunderstanding, and would be remedied. He declared that he was friendly to all reasonable demands for liberty, and promised to confer with Prince Hilkoff as to the best means of dealing with the railroad question. At the same time, he advised the deputation to end the strike and then to peaceably formulate the demands of the men.

Having listened to the report, the meeting decided to postpone action until the deputation had an interview with Prince Hilkoff.

Destroying Property at Moscow.

MOSCOW, Oct. 24.—The strikers have damaged the water conduit between Moscow and Mytishchi and some sections of Moscow are without water. A meeting of 10,000 strikers today decided to prevent all telegraphic communication, which already is becoming very difficult. The strikers later began besieging the post and telegraph.

The strike is spreading in all directions. Yaroslavl, Nizhni, Novgorod, Simbrisk, Sizran, Saratoff, Voronezh, Kharkoff, Sinferopol, Ekaterinoslav, Kieff and Smolensk are all affected. On the Moscow, Windau & Rybinsk line the evening express could only reach Potimoskovrais station and the passengers were compelled to walk to Moscow. At the Moscow and Kazan station 2,000 passengers are waiting. They are being paid by the railway administration, first and second-class, 50 cents daily, and third class, 25 cents. On the St. Petersburg line, with the exception of a train tonight which brought the minister, not a train was run today.

WARSAW, Oct. 24.—A strike today was declared on the Vistula railroads.

WILL EXAMINE COMPANIES.

Three Johnstown Fire Insurance Companies Appear to Be in a Bad Way.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24.—Judge Weiss today granted rules returnable on November 8 on three Johnstown mutual fire insurance companies requiring them to show cause why their business should not be wound up and a receiver appointed for each of these concerns. This action was taken on petition of Attorney General Carson, who presented letters from Insurance Commissioner Martin stating he deemed the companies not in a fit condition for business.

The companies are the Johnstown Mutual, C. P. Harris, president; the Republic Mutual, J. W. Wirt, president, and the United States Mutual, W. P. Coulter, president. All of these companies have their principal offices in Johnstown.

Poorly Attended Mass Meeting.

A meeting of the Allegheny Evangelization union was held in the Arch Street Methodist Episcopal church last night, but the attendance was very small, considering that a mass meeting was called. George L. C. Richardson, superintendent of the union, presided, and the Rev. A. B. Riker of Mt. Union college made an address. Albert A. Horne spoke at some length on the objects of the proposed institutional house.

PLAN TO DOUBLE CAPITAL STOCK

Westinghouse Machine Co. Will Increase from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000.

STEAM TURBINE MAIN CAUSE

Notice will be given by advertisement today of the calling of a meeting of the stockholders of the Westinghouse Machine Company to vote on a proposal to increase the capital stock of the company from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000.

The meeting is to be held December 23 at the general offices of the company and it will be a mere formality inasmuch as the stock of the company is closely held, and plans which the increased capital will provide for are already approved all around.

The purpose of the increase is to enable the company to grow with its recent wonderful growth of business. The steam turbine is primarily responsible for this and the gas engine trade has also become of greater size than the company can handle with its present facilities. It has been found necessary to provide for large installations for the operation of main railways.

Turbine Wins Favor Rapidly.

It has been but a few years since the reciprocating engine was the universal type of steam power application, and the steam turbine was practically unknown and untried. Now the turbine has so completely supplanted the piston type in certain fields that the capacity of the big shops at East Pittsburgh, manufacturing the Westinghouse-Parsons turbine in sizes from 500 to 15,000 horsepower, is already absorbed and larger facilities are being provided. The shipment of turbines from the East Pittsburgh works during the present year will agregate 500,000 horsepower.

In the manufacture of gas engines there has been a similar development. These engines are now being installed in all sizes up to 2,500 horsepower. The company also manufactures a number of other products, including Corliss engines, blowing machines, stokers and gas producers. Its shipments are widely distributed throughout the United States and foreign countries. Central and South America, the West Indies, Europe, Africa and Australia, all have products of the Westinghouse Machine Company.

Capital, $100,000,000; 30,000 Employes.

The company has just received an order for a large turbine installation at Helena, Mont. The Helena Power Transmission Company will take two 3,000-horse power machines to supplement its present water power equipment. The river is sometimes too low to allow the succesful operation of the water-power machinery, it is said, and the steam turbine will insure the continuous operation of the plant.

The increase of $5,000,000 in the capital stock of the Machine company brings the total capital of the Westinghouse companies to about $100,000,000. The Airbrake company has $11,000,000 capital; the Electric company, $25,000,000; the Union Switch and Signal, $3,000,000; the British Westinghouse Electric, $5,000,000, and the others, making a total of 19 in the United States and seven in other countries, bring the total investment to the figure given above. The Westinghouse interests have approximately 30,000 employes.

CUNLIFFE IS INDICTED BY THE GRAND JURY

Adams Express Robber to Be Tried on Two Charges of Larceny.

E. G. Cunliffe, the express robber, will have no hearing on the two charges of larceny which have been lodged against him. Yesterday the prisoner had a short interview with Pinkerton detectives, and when they left him he announced that he could turn and wait for the trial which will be held in the December term of quarter sessions court. The man has no hope of obtaining bail, and has resigned himself to the long wait for his call to the court.

Cunliffe was indicted for larceny yesterday by the grand jury for the September term of court. The indictment of Cunliffe was among the last acts of the grand jury, which adjourned sine die yesterday afternoon. Two indictments were lodged against Cunliffe based on the information made by Route Agent R. J. Campbell, charging him with stealing the package of $100,000, and on the information of Manager C. H. Hiner of the local Adams Express office, charging Cunliffe with the theft of money from the company's safe amounting to $750 and upwards.

There is still some mystery as to the plea which Cunliffe will make. He has not retained an attorney and seems to be giving little attention to his fate when he is called to face a jury.

Mrs. Cunliffe, at the home of her father, Joseph Boardman, in Hartford, Conn., yesterday declined to be interviewed by Pinkertons and the Hartford police in an effort to locate about $10,000 of the stolen money, which the man is alleged to have confessed giving his wife. Mrs. Cunliffe said she was too ill.

Men Are Fined for Abusing Women.

Edward McKenzie, a negro, of 255 Jones avenue, and John Zelwisky of 3038 Brereton avenue, charged with abusing women, were each fined $25 yesterday. McKenzie was arrested for beating his boarding mistress, Bettie Watson, and Zelwisky for whipping his wife with a cowhide whip. James Baker of Cobden street, South Side, was fined $100 on a charge of abusing his wife, breaking furniture and setting fire to a bed.

NUTRITION

If you do not gain strength and energy from your food you should drink American Old Malt Ale regularly—at mealtimes.

American Old Malt is a pure, "undoctored" and unsweetened malt product. All of its virtues come straight from the malted field-barley and selected Bohemian hops.

It does not digest food, but it healthfully tones the stomach, aiding digestion, and contains easily digested food properties of its own.

Good physicians will commend its moderate use. We guarantee American Old Malt Ale of absolute purity and more than three years' aging.

The Famous Herati Oriental Rugs.

WE have just received a collection of very choice and very scarce Herati Rugs direct from Persia. These rare rugs come in several patterns, the old Iran patterns with green border, the Kestave pattern, and the soft, old pink ground Serebend pattern.

People are always looking for Persian rugs in the sizes of 3 ft. by 6 ft. for hearth covering. Such sizes are very rare and are seldom to be had.

It is a pleasure for us to say that the size range of these rugs is 6 ft. by 3 ft. and 7 ft. by 3 ft. 8 inches. They are perfect for halls, library and living room. We also have them in odd sizes for large rooms and halls.

Our stock of Scrapis, Giorovans and Muskabads was carefully selected, both as to color and sizes. We can show such large sizes as 12 ft. x 10 ft. and wider for the length, if desired.

The person who buys an Oriental rug here is insured against any deception. We never sell what are known as treated rugs. Our rugs come direct to us from the Orient, they are selected personally by our representative.

And this particular stock shows a bigger and better collection than ever before.

Baby Bunting Blankets.

Now let mothers rise up and call the inventor of this blanket blessed. By the way, a Pittsburg mother invented the Baby Bunting Blanket.

It is something so entirely new, and so far from the ordinary conception of a blanket that mothers must see it to understand it.

It is a Blanket which is folded and fashioned wrapper shape, yet it is in one solid piece. It is fastened with patent fasteners and by means of these fasteners it is impossible for baby to kick the blanket off. At the same time there is perfect freedom of body and limb—only heads and hands are uncovered. Baby can be placed in any position, or any place, wrapped in one of these blankets and it will be impossible for the infant to take cold.

It is by all odds the most satisfactory garment ever devised for the comfort of infants. We are sole agents for the Baby Bunting Blanket in Greater Pittsburg.

BABY SWEATERS—Sweaters, if you please, just like those worn by big folks. The very thing for baby. And, being the very thing, we have them in variety—white and colors. Some open down front, others fasten at shoulder. Some are hand made, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and up to $2.50.

Toques to match, 25c and 50c.

Warm Hose for Women and Children.

Women's silk hose, fleece lined, $1.50 pair.

For women who wear light weights the year 'round, we have lisle and cotton hose in black and self colors, black, embroidered in contrasting colors and plaid effects. 35c, 35c, 50c, $1.00, $1.50 and up to $4.00 a pair.

Wednesday, October 25, 1905.

Homer L. Castle, in his speech last night, again vomited forth his charges against Secretary of the Commonwealth Robert McAfee, Senator Penrose and others, but carefully refrained from mentioning his own official connection with the failed Prudential Trust Company, of unsavory memory. In reply to The Gazette's proper characterization of his fulminations he said "It's a lie" and then admitted in the next breath that his purpose was to weaken public confidence. He probably has nothing to lose; others have.

On one point The Gazette agrees with Castle. He should have been prosecuted weeks ago, and he ought to be in jail. This Castle said and The Gazette agrees with his sentiment to that extent. The Gazette repeats its call to Secretary McAfee to prosecute and to do it at once. He owes it as a duty to the public, if not to himself. The Castle oratory has passed the limit of decent or legitimate political discussion and he should be made to answer for it. He should be given the opportunity to swear to his statements, if he dares, and to prove there is no truth in the charges he has made.

The electric railway just opened between Kobe and Osaka, in Japan, is the first line constructed in that country to connect two large cities. The cars were made in Japan and the steel rails in Pittsburgh. According to Consul Sharp of Kobe, this marks a great advance in electric traction in Japan. More lines of the kind are contemplated, for which Pittsburgh will gladly furnish the material.

Russia's strike situation is steadily growing worse, all but two of the interior railways being tied up and famine threatened in Moscow. There is a less accompaniment of turbulence than might be expected and it is to be feared this condition may soon change. Should serious disturbance occur in any quarter the government will be at a disadvantage by reason of its inability to readily move troops by rail. The end cannot be safely predicted.

St. Petersburg is full of live, hustling Americans these days, seeking opportunities for the investment of capital in the many enterprises which that country's development demands. Pittsburghers, as usual, are in the van. Russia needs more locomotives, torpedo boats and electric equipment for her street railways. There are also some valuable railroad concessions to be secured by fortunate bidders. There are many fortunes awaiting American enterprise in Russia.

The Gazette's exclusive interview with George B. Cox, boss of Cincinnati, has done much to clear the political atmosphere in Ohio. Judge Taft's repudiation of the Cincinnati leader on Gov. Herrick's behalf set the public mind right on that issue, but created a fear that Cox might retaliate, as he easily could. Cox lays that fear to rest. He has additional incentive to prove his regularity, however much he may resent the lashing. Ohio will be safely and largely Republican.

A bill will be introduced at the coming session of congress providing for increases in the pay of United States consuls. By this means it is hoped to improve the personnel of the consular service. There is also a movement afoot to bring appointments under civil service regulations. The inadequacy of consular salaries has long been apparent. Capable men must be paid according to their ability. The nation is big enough and rich enough to be a little more liberal with her representatives abroad.

Under instructions from Washington, the United States minister to Venezuela will endeavor to effect a settlement of the Franco-Venezuelan diplomatic incident, which has led to seriously strained relations. Venezuela's refusal to treat with France through the latter's representative at Caracas seems entirely unwarranted, whatever grounds for original grievance there may have been. This view has been taken of the matter at Washington, and it is to be hoped President Castro will be sensible enough to reconsider his hasty action and make the proper amends.

President Roosevelt's speech delivered at Tuskeegee institute yesterday will attract as wide attention as any on his southern tour. The south raised a storm when the President entertained Booker T. Washington of Tuskeegee in the White House and the south will closely scan the President's address to the pupils at Tuskeegee. Well it may. It will find there words of wisdom, words of hope, words of good counsel to the white race and to the black race. Tuskeegee is doing a great work to solve the race problem and to solve the industrial problem that confronts the south in its daily life. President Roosevelt has but emphasized that work and more clearly pointed the way for both races. His greeting throughout the south will grow warmer when the south has read what he had to say there and the north will read it with interest, too.

An Important Detail.

One detail of the Enterprise National bank disaster is made public by the courtesy of former Lieut.-Gov. Lyon. It should do much to clear the atmosphere and it certainly puts to rout the rumormongers who have been declaring the wreck of the bank was by Mr. Lyon's clients. The total sum of indebtedness of the New Mexico enterprise is $58,626 and it will be paid at once.

Attorney Lyon has done the community a service in making this information public. Receiver Cunningham's official obligations prevent him from making public the amount of the obligations of any debtor, of any shortage or of other details shown by the books of the bank. He has denied a couple of reports that were without foundation, they being matters not of record in his receivership—a distinction that is clear to any ordinary intelligence. He is required by law, however, to make a statement of account to persons indebted to the bank, and those persons may make the information public. Attorney Lyon has elected to do so in the case of the most talked about account, and, as might have been expected, the truth is vastly more modest than the sensational guesses. We hope all of the truth will soon be made known in like manner.

Vicious Sensationalism.

Unless there is an abatement of the intemperate, and, in some cases, obviously unfounded allegations in connection with the Enterprise National bank failure, it is the opinion of business men confidence in the local banking situation will be disturbed and serious trouble will ensue. The allegations and insinuations are made for the purpose of influencing the election next month. Ordinarily the public makes due allowance for the exaggerations of a bitter political campaign, it should do so now, but in the present instance these exaggerations have created uneasiness in the minds of persons who do not usually give attention to partisan charges.

Even steps alleged to have been taken to improve the condition of the Enterprise National since it closed its doors are distorted and made to appear criminal. It is asserted, for instance, that "paper given by men high in official life has been paid since the bank closed," and this alleged action is commented upon as worthy of the strongest condemnation. Every such note (if any) paid off since the institution closed furnishes proof that these so-called political loans, at least, were not the cause of the bank's misfortunes, and if every other debtor of the bank meets his obligations with equal promptness, the bank's troubles will end speedily and happily.

As The Gazette said yesterday, there has been some rotten banking in the case of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny; but that sort of banking is not common and the effort of partisans to cast discredit upon state depositories as a whole may be fraught with very serious consequences to this community. There is no excuse, however desperate the mongrel political tribes may be, for indiscriminate attacks on the integrity of financial institutions. It is a pity all of the truth about the Enterprise National bank cannot be known at once, but the fact that it cannot does not justify the reckless falsification or the more insidious intimations that worse things are being concealed.

Turbines and Gas Engines.

A meeting of the Westinghouse Machine Company is advertised to vote an increase of the capital stock from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000. This increase is rendered necessary to handle the increase in business due to the introduction of two new types of prime movers—the steam turbine and the gas engine. New installations almost invariably include one or more units of these types of machinery, the reciprocating steam engine becoming less popular every week.

This Pittsburgh concern has the honor of introducing the perfected steam turbine and the gas engine of large power in America. The turbine was brought to high efficiency in Great Britain previously, but Westinghouse added improvements and has created larger units than Great Britain thought of—single engines of 15,000 horse power. So in the gas engine, Westinghouse has exceeded all previous practical powers. These economical types will gain in favor, particularly for electrical installations and for this reason new capital is needed.

Incidentally the fact is made public that with this increase of $5,000,000 in the capital of the machine company, the Westinghouse corporation will aggregate an even $100,000,000. They are stocks on a solid foundation, rated high on the exchanges and the corporations employ fully 30,000 persons.

Characteristic Deception.

Just at this moment the issue of the city manual giving the rate of taxation as 12½ mills, and concealing the other half mill as far as possible, is significant. The purpose was obviously to deceive; the effect is to attract extraordinary attention. Every taxpayer knows he has to pay 13 mills on his assessed valuation and dividing the amount in two items does not lighten the burden.

Moreover this trick naturally reminds the voter of the character of the administration. Deception is expected from a political organization that has been faithless to every pledge it has ever made. Juggling with figures is the ordinary accompaniment of pledge breaking and extravagance. Dodging consequences becomes second nature to a political outfit that has sneaked into office on promises of reform and has then taken advantage of its power to appropriate free franchises for its leaders and to manipulate the public funds for the advantage of party favorites.

The city manual, with its attempt to rate the tax assessment at 12½ mills, is a little incident, but one so characteristic it cannot be overlooked. The manual might have been entirely honest and candid, but it is not. Precisely like the Bigelow-Verner-Hays combination's control of the public business. There is a large percentage of deception and falsity running through the whole record. And this is the combination that is seeking an indorsement by the voters of Allegheny county at the polls a week from next Tuesday.

Newspapers in College.

Prof. J. A. James of Northwestern university, in insisting that members of his American history class must know the news of the day, has acted wisely. Discovering, the other morning, that but two young men in the class had read that day's newspapers, Prof. James said: "This will never do. Hereafter I shall expect you to have an accurate knowledge of current events, as chronicled each day in the newspapers, and I shall consider it fully as important as the daily lessons assigned from the text books."

It would be well if Prof. James' idea were copied in institutions of learning below the university rank, as it is largely in Pittsburgh. Pupils in the high school and the higher grades of the public schools might derive great advantage from following, under the supervision of their teachers, the news of the day. The more important items of news today are history tomorrow, and it is certainly not the part of wisdom to be conversant with events that occurred one, two and more decades ago while ignorant of the events that are making history today. But if the study of current events is to be taken up in earnest in the schools, care should be exercised in selecting the newspapers from which information is to be derived. There are a few newspapers (to the credit of the profession there are only a few) which not only distort the facts of the commonest occurrences, but are entirely without the sense of proportion in assigning news values to items. Owing to this latter fault, they often place huge headlines on comparatively unimportant items and ignore or minimize items of real and vital importance. The newspaper for use in the schools is the one that prints all the real news and presents it so it is easily read and its relative importance appreciated. One more consideration should enter into the choice of newspapers for this purpose: they should be clean papers, the kind that are fit for the home, the kind of which The Gazette is a conspicuous example.

Count Witte has been appointed to a high place in the Russian government, but it is a question whether he is a subject for congratulation or commiseration. Those Russians have a way of sending high officials higher.

A Des Moines woman in asking a divorce says her husband is "both negatively and affirmatively a constant household irritant." The defendant's answer will have to be a dandy to beat that.

"Women who can talk can make $1,000 a year" is the heading on an advertisement in a Chicago paper. A bachelor evidently composed that "ad" with its three superfluous words.

Paris police have about succeeded in suppressing the motor-maniacs who endanger the lives of pedestrians. But in Paris they don't have to bring in 10 votes each.

Those phonographs for posterity will not be complete without "Under the Old Apple Tree" and one of Brother Bryan's speeches. Why should we be easy on posterity?

The proposed Russian loan emphasizes the fact that while the czar has a good many uncles hanging around, they are not the kind that lend money.

A New York man has sold his auto because it cost him more for fines than gasoline or repairs. The airship is the logical vehicle for highflyers.

When the hatching process is completed it is believed the Bigelow outfit will find itself shy a few political chickens already counted.

According to the latest photographs, the presidential smile is still of the irremovable variety.

The Pace That Kills.

It is not surprising that ex-Ambassador Joseph H. Choate, upon returning to New York after having been for eight years a resident of England, should have been impressed by the great activity of American life as compared with that to which he had become accustomed. He spoke of it in a speech which he delivered the other day at a dinner given in his honor and he expressed the opinion that it was a matter less for congratulation than for regret.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS ON WAYS OF WORLD

Talking Is the Index of the Thoughts and Feelings of the People.

By ERASMUS WILSON.

Your conversation is a reliable index to your thoughts and feelings.

What do you talk about when not constrained or led by others?

Have you ever taken the trouble to review the conversation of a day, or of an hour spent with those to whom you could express your feelings freely?

It might be profitable for you to do this occasionally, for by so doing you can get acquainted with yourself.

You may think you know yourself, but in that you are likely to be mistaken, for there are very few who know themselves as well as they ought, much less know themselves perfectly.

* * *

When you read a book don't you judge the characters by their talk?

It is the talk of the characters in humor and fiction that makes books good, bad or indifferent and not what the authors say between talks.

If the talk doesn't fit the character you at once lose confidence in the ability of the author to correctly portray the characters and scenes introduced.

The author who knows his characters well and is discriminating enough to make their talk harmonize with them, is bound to succeed, provided, of course, that the characters and the subjects on which they talk are worth while.

It is this that makes "David Harum," and a few other books of the same class interesting. It was this that made "Helen's Babies" the greatest seller of its time. The talk of the children is child talk, not baby talk, and indicates children of about so many years, bright and thoroughly human, instead of little men and women who quote poetry and gossip like society folks.

Naturalness and truthfulness to nature creates human interest, and that's what makes a book, a picture, or a lecture go.

* * *

Much, very much, depends on the reading, for poor reading will spoil a good book.

The style of some writers is such that their works have to be read with great care in order to keep the thread of their stories, or to correctly interpret the meaning of what they write.

Carlyle and Emerson are notable examples of this style, for if you don't mind your ps and qs, so to speak, you will soon become lost, which means to lose interest in book and author.

These writers had found something to think about, and after a deal of thinking they wrote what they had thought. To follow them is to think as they did, which you do if the subject interests you, and which you can do if you will keep close to the guide lines composed of words and punctuation marks.

It cost them much effort to indicate their thoughts clearly enough for you to grasp and comprehend them, which is to think with them rather than to merely read the printed lines.

The more popular writer is one who skims the surface or does no more than hastily sketch scenes with which you are more or less familiar, and which you can grasp without effort.

* * *

Some authors might take a hint from Miss Oliver's reading Mr. Duncan's "Dr. Luke of Labrador." Having studied the motive of the story until she thoroughly comprehends it she can read it with proper spirit and understanding.

It is safe to say that those who have read this unusually good story will be even more pleased with her reading than they were with their own, for they will be apt to discover that they hadn't got nearly all the good there was in it.

And it is equally safe to say that those who haven't read the book will want to do so after hearing her dramatization of it.

It was a rather small audience, too small, that enjoyed her reading given in the Fourth Avenue United Presbyterian church, Allegheny, on Monday evening last. But those who were fortunate enough to be there have cause for sincere congratulation, for it was worth while to hear this most human story interpreted so as to convey forcefully the feelings of the author when writing it.

Miss Oliver has succeeded wonderfully well in dramatizing, or condensing, the story without detracting from its interest or impairing its literary value.

Why not others read other books? There are plenty of good readers, and many good books, and no doubt there are enough people who would like to hear them read to make the innovation popular.

* * *

People read that which they like to read, that is, like themselves. In other words, they like that which pleases or agrees with their tastes; and being exponents of their own tastes they prefer that which is their like.

When Mark Twain was asked what he regarded as the secret of his wonderful success on the lecture platform, he said it was that he never told the people anything they didn't know.

So, your favorite author is one who tells you the things you know, and for which you have a taste, and talks about them so as to present them in pleasing forms and under varying lights.

Your poet is the one who gives expression to feelings which you could not define, who limns the furtive figures which flit across your mind, who sketches the scenes which you have failed to fully grasp and make fast.

Your artist is the one who succeeds best in portraying familiar scenes, and those which appeal most strongly to your own tastes and feelings. His lines may be few, his colors crudely blended, and his work not altogether highly artistic, yet he has enabled you to see clearly and definitely the pictures you have seen with closed eyes—seen in mind and sensed in heart.

SYRIAN TROUBLE IS OF A SERIOUS NATURE

Merchants in New York Colony Are Afraid to Replenish Their Stocks—Riots Continue.

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—"Worse a hundred times that the feuds in Chinatown." This was Magistrate Wahle's characterization today of the situation in the Syrian colony in lower Washington street for the past three months, growing out of religious and other factional disturbances centering about Bishop Raphael Hawameenri.

So convinced was Magistrate Wahle of the seriousness of the situation that, in the Tombs court, he postponed the examination of the prisoners taken in the rioting last night until he could consult with the district attorney as to the practicability of taking drastic measures.

Magistrate Wahle said he believed the situation justified recourse to the grand jury.

"There has been a veritable reign of terror in the Syrian colony for the last three months," said the magistrate. "Business men there, for whom I acted as counsel before I became a magistrate, tell me that the commercial interests of the quarter have suffered losses aggregating hundreds of thousands of dollars as a consequence. Outsiders, upon whom the business men there largely depend as customers for their imported wares, no longer dare to enter the quarters for fear of becoming embroiled in one of the fights that are always in danger of breaking out. Few people outside of the colony realize the extent to which the business interests of the quarter have been demoralized by these troubles. Merchants do not dare to replenish their stocks for fear their stores will be burned or looted."

Ship Stops for Burial at Sea.

Passengers on the Red Star liner Finland, which docked here today, were witnesses of a most pathetic sight on Thursday last when the big steamship's engines were stopped and the crew mustered on deck to witness the burial at sea of Erzsebes Lakitis, a Hungarian girl, 8 years old, who died suddenly of pneumonia.

The grief of the girl's two sisters, who wept uncontrollably during the reading of the services by the Rev. John Neises, affected many of the other passengers to tears. The sisters were coming over to meet their father and mother. A substantial purse was made up for the two girls by the first and second-class passengers.

Governor Picks Youngest Judge.

Otto A. Rosalsky, appointed judge of the court of general sessions by Gov. Higgins to fill out the term of Judge Newburger, is the youngest man who ever sat on the bench in this important court. Although he has had but a few days on the bench, Judge Rosalsky has won many friends and been highly praised for his conduct of cases. Judge Rosalsky is 32 years old, and has been practicing in the criminal courts of this county for 11 years.

"Our Duchess" Sails for Home.

Consuelo Vanderbilt Churchill, duchess of Marlborough, ended her visit to her native land today, and sailed for England on the Kron Prinz Wilhelm. When the duchess came over a month ago to visit her mother, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, she expected to return to Europe on October 14, but there were so many urgent requests for her to prolong her stay that she tarried until today. She might have stayed indefinitely if she had accepted only a small part of the invitations that are showered upon her.

Too Strenuous for El Hadji.

El Hadji Abdullah Aly Sadik Pasha Hakef of Harrar, highness of Abyssinia, finds New York too strenuous for him. That is to say, he likes New York, but its people are too much for his dignity. He had intended to devote his second day in the city to still greater explorations. Instead, he remained in his rooms at the Breslin attending to business and devotions and recovering from the experiences of yesterday. El Hadji is a great man in his own country. When he walks abroad there people bow and make way before him. On the trip yesterday, Wall street office boys actually hooted at the dignitary.

New Municipal Ferry Ready.

The municipal ferry to Staten Island is to be opened at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, when the first boat will leave the Battery, and there will be speech-making and ceremonies. Handsomely engraved invitations have been sent out. It is said the opening of the ferry has been hurried for its effect on the election. The opening is already four months behind the promised time. The launching of the service will take place on the Manhattan. There is a boat named for each of the five boroughs, and they are to be bigger and faster than any other ferryboats running in the city.

Something New in Pool Rooms.

When David Davis was arraigned in the Jefferson Market police court today Capt. McNally of the Church Street station told a story of one of the most unique raids on record. Suspecting that a pool room was being conducted in the cigar store at No. 22 Dey street, the police visited the place with axes yesterday. In the rear they found a huge metal room containing 200 men. "It was like cracking a safe," said Capt. McNally. "We battered down steel doors, but when we got inside we found no direct evidence of a pool room."

Hydrophobia Comes 14 Years Late.

Miss Amanda Jones, 27 years old, was taken to Bellevue hospital today, where physicians will determine whether or not she has hydrophobia, following the bite of a dog 14 years ago, or whether she is suffering from epileptic hysteria. Miss Jones suffered no ill effects at the time. In June last she suddenly developed symptoms like those of hydrophobia. On Sunday night the hydrophobia symptoms again developed. The girl foamed at the mouth and barked like a dog.

INCREASING TRADE OF JAPANESE EMPIRE

War Did Not Affect Enterprise of the People—United States Leads All Countries.

Of special interest at this time is the report of Consul General Miller of Yokohama, on the trade conditions of Japan for the first six months of the present year. It indicates a remarkable capacity for devising and carrying forward modern trade methods. According to Mr. Miller's report to the state department a steady and wonderful increase in foreign commerce is recorded. Best of all, the United States leads all countries both in imports and exports. All the values noted in the consul general's report are given in gold. Among the many interesting things he writes of Consul Miller says:

"Japan's imports for the six months ending June 30, 1905, were $142,668,505 gold, the greatest in Japan's history. How much war material is represented in this I have been unable to ascertain. It does not include the direct purchases of the government, but undoubtedly a large amount of the imports are due to necessary war measures. The very unusual amount of imports for the six months given was due largely to the desire of importers to escape the increased tax levied after June 30, combined with requirements for war purposes. The greater amount of government purchases has been through local firms, foreign and native, and I am advised that most of these are included in the import figures, although all are not.

Largest on Record.

"The total exports for the six months ending June 30, 1905, were larger than ever before, amounting to $71,058,440. In the matter of exports the shipments to Korea and Manchuria by army and navy transports are not included in the figures of this report; hence there is no showing of the supplies sent to the army and navy, although the report includes imports for that purpose, and this, to some extent, seems as an explanation of great excess of imports over exports, amounting to $71,560,084. There is, however, a steady and wonderful increase in the foreign trade of Japan with a constant enlargement of both exports and imports. The increase for the past 10 years is practically 300 per cent. As both exports and imports for the past six months show such a large increase it seems quite clear that the war has stimulated them and has resulted in a substantial development of Japanese industries.

"Exports for the six months ending June 30, 1900, were 95,053,057 yen and the imports 165,435,615 yen, equivalent to $128,727,370 gold. For the six months ending June 30, 1904, the exports were 127,405,703 yen and the imports 182,684,872 yen, making the total value of the commerce for the year 320,100,575 yen, equivalent to $159,410,086 gold. For the six months ending June 30, 1905, the total exports and imports were $213,757,066 gold.

United States Leads All Countries.

"The United States leads all countries both in imports and exports. For the six months under consideration the value of imports from and exports to the United States was as follows:

Imports	$ 6,924,704
Exports	3,676,607
Total	$10,600,311

China comes next to the United States in volume of trade. The values (gold) were:

Exports	$3,843,404
Imports	2,827,378
Total	$6,670,782

"Inasmuch as a very large percentage of the goods shipped to Hongkong is destined for China, the foregoing figures do not show the entire trade between China and Japan.

"The figures in the annexed tables represent gold, and show exports to and imports from Hongkong:

Exports	$ 678,101
Imports	48,523
Total	$ 726,624

"The commerce with Great Britain is shown in the annexed table:

Exports	$ 452,437
Imports	4,792,952
Total	$5,245,389

"British India sends Japan $3,021,528 in merchandise, and receives from that country $358,866.

"Commerce with Germany is shown in the following figures:

Exports	$ 146,627
Imports	1,887,858
Total	$2,034,585

"Japan exported to Korea $1,050,452 and imported $340,130.

"France and Belgium each fall below $1,000,000 in the total exports to and imports from. To France Japan exported $616,826 and imported from that country $264,011.

"The exports to Belgium were valued at $17,800 and the imports from that country at $711,124.

Trade With the United States.

"The exports to the United States are greater than ever before for the same period, and the imports thence are more than double. The increased exports are mats and mattings, silk tissues, habutae, and raw silk. In all of these articles the exports exceeded those of any corresponding period, while in straw braid and tea the exports were less than previous years.

"In imports from the United States there was a notable increase in the following articles, the values stated being gold: Raw cotton, $11,774,464, or more than double that of any similar period since 1900. Machinery and engines, $387,032. Iron bar and rod, shows a most satisfactory increase, $159,948; iron and steel, $646,017. This is the greatest amount of iron and steel ever shipped from the United States to Japan for a like period, and shows a splendid growth in that line.

"Leather imports from the United States reached the enormous value of $2,223,218. Flour also reached its greatest volume, $2,806,629, and kerosene $2,923,927; oil cake, $60,473, and paper, $24,743. The importation of oil cake from the United States seems to be a new venture. The enormous imports of flour and leather are doubtless due to the war demands and the increase in imports of iron, steel, engines, machinery, etc., have also been caused by the war requirement. It is clear, however, that in all these lines and many more, there is a strong growing demand for the products which the United States is in a position to supply."

THE APPROVED METHOD.

She runs to the gate as he comes, there to meet him;
The joy that she feels in her smile is expressed.
With wifely embraces she lovingly greets him;
She knows he is weary and needs a good rest.
But, first, it is certain he ought to have dinner,
He'll feel a deal better, she's sure, after that.
The lady is what we would all call a "winner,"
She knows what to do when she wants a new hat.

She wears his pet gown and she's mighty good looking;
She has, which is lucky, his favorite dish.
The coffee is worthy the rest of the cooking.
He seems to have all a mere mortal could wish.
She talks to him gayly, her silvery laughter
Rings out at his joking so ready and pat.
He has his suspicions of what she is after,
But, then, it is cheap at the price of a hat.

She brings his old jacket when dinner is ended,
His slippers and pipe, not forgetting the match.
And when on the lounge he is fairly extended
She gets out her basket to darn and to patch.
Oh, cynics may sneer at the marriage relation,
But what half so sweet as that nice, cozy chat?
And what does it matter if soon conversation
Insensibly turns to a new winter hat?

STORIES FOUND IN THE LOBBIES

Interesting Happenings Concerning the People Who Are Traveling.

A newsboy approached Detectives Albert H. Swinehart and Frederick Goebert at the Union station last evening and asked the sleuths to buy a paper. The little fellow put up the usual tale of need the money for a place to sleep, and one or two hints that he gave told the shrewd detectives that something might be amiss. They had been notified by Philadelphia detectives to watch for a boy who disliked school and had run away from home about six weeks ago. The detectives on questioning the lad learned he had been in Pittsburgh for several days, making his headquarters at the Newsboys' home. Then came the boy's confession before he realized to whom he was talking. The detectives took him in charge and called the Philadelphia detectives by long distance telephone. The boy answered the description given and his father was notified of his being apprehended here. The lad is Robert West, 13 years old. He is the son of Dr. Joseph West, a well-known dentist of Philadelphia. After leaving his home six weeks ago he went to Pottsville, thence to Shamokin, Williamsport and Dubois, from which place he came to Pittsburgh.

Going to Take a Count.

The thousands of people who have had a curiosity to know how many people travel on the Pennsylvania and pass through Union station in a day, will possibly soon have the curiosity satisfied. Beginning with the earliest train this morning, and continuing throughout the day and evening, the Pennsylvania lines west passenger conductors will keep "tab" of the number of passengers handled, and these figures will be reported to the office of General Agent Jaggard. This counting of passengers will include all of the through and local passenger trains. A similar record was taken a few days ago by the Pennsylvania railroad conductors of all of the divisions in operation out of the Union station to the north, east and south.

The combined figures of the number of passengers handled in a single day will doubtless be as big a surprise to the railroad people as to the general public. To say that the figures will mount well up toward 20,000 persons will hardly be putting the estimate too high, for there are about 365 trains, and if the average number of passengers per train be placed at 50, which is none too high, it would make 18,250 passengers handled each week day.

A Word About Travelers.

W. C. Andrews of Philipsburg, the well known hotel man of Atlantic City during the summer season, is spending a few days here.

Mrs. M. S. Quay, widow of the late Senator Quay, and her son Richard R. Quay, went east last night on the New York special.

George W. Campbell of Normalville, Fayette county, former member of the legislature, is visiting in the city.

Minister and Bride Are "Belled."

It was simply a good-natured, old-fashioned belling party transferred to the city confines, but the party blowing horns, ringing cowbells and making other kindred noises attracted a great deal of attention in their trip from the Union station to the Seventh Avenue hotel. Leading the party were the bride and bridegroom, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. John N. Naly of Tipton, Iowa. Upon their arrival at the Union station they were surprised by being met by a belling party instead of by one or two friends to escort them to the hotel. One of the refrains sung was "They Are on Their Honeymoon." The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Naly will spend several days here.

Sciiorf Club Celebrates Anniversary.

The members of the Sciiorf club of Allegheny and their young women friends enjoyed a gala evening at the Hotel Henry last night. The event was in honor of the eleventh anniversary of the organization of the club, which is composed of 50 well known young men of Allegheny and Pittsburgh. After the reception in the picture room of the Hotel Henry, the guests marched to the private dining room, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. After the dinner came dancing until a late hour. The officers of the club are: President, J. N. Schaefer; vice president, T. F. Rogerson; secretary, F. S. Zeigler; treasurer, J. E. Morrison.

The Maniacal Stage.

There is no evidence that barbers are more liable to mental disease than are men in any other line of business.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

Yes, perhaps, but symptoms break out when you endeavor to get one plain, every-day shave in a barber's chair. Ordinary lunacy shows when you are assured that what you really need is a shave, hair cut and shampoo. The maniacal stage comes in with insistence upon adding facial massage, a boot shine and a bottle of hair restorer to take home.—New York Herald.

President's Likeable Qualities.

"I like your King Edward," Rudyard Kipling makes one of his characters declare; "he's so blamed British." We like our President, some of us may say, who by no means approve all his public performances, because he's so blamed American. Perhaps, in either case, the true statement would be because he is so very human.—New York Times.

Cunliffe's Crude Methods.

The express thief who stole $100,000 in cash has been captured, as might have been expected, and will be punished, which is only right. A man who simply takes money out of somebody's cash box is too crude in his methods to be allowed at large in these days of artistic finance.—Baltimore American.

UNION NATIONAL DESIGN CHOSEN

MacClure and Spahr Are Architects of 20-Story Skyscraper to Cost $1,000,000.

SEVEN ARE IN COMPETITION

One of the most important architectural competitions ever held in Pittsburgh has been decided by Architects MacClure & Spahr being accepted as the designers of the 20-story skyscraper which the Union National bank will erect at Fourth avenue and Wood street. Although rumors of the decision were afloat in building circles Saturday, when the plans of the other competing architects were returned, it was not until yesterday that the award was generally known. Owing to the size of the project and the importance of the institution which will erect the building, the competition has been widely published over the country, and the successful architects yesterday were receiving the congratulations of dozens of firms in the city and by letter.

The building committee of the Union National, which had full charge of the competition, was composed of John R. McCune, Adam Wilson, T. M. Armstrong and Nathaniel Holmes. As the detailed plans of the building will not be ready for some time, no information along this line could be obtained yesterday beyond the fact that Architects MacClure & Spahr will design the structure. This will be 20 stories high, according to the competitive designs, and will cover a site facing 86 feet in Wood street and 84 feet in Fourth avenue. This is a larger site than that occupied by the Arrott or Peoples bank buildings, which are on the opposite corners, and neither of which is so high. The Union National skyscraper will cost at least $1,000,000.

The directors of the bank are very anxious to get the building under way at the earliest possible moment. All the leases on the present rooms have been secured by the bank, so that the tenants will move as soon as April 1, if not before. The architects have received instructions to rush the plans, that bids on the work may be taken the first of the year. This would look as if the directors expected to get the old buildings razed during the winter and the skyscraper fairly under way by April 1. It will require about a year to erect the building.

The building will be equal in appearance and interior finish to any office building in the city except the Frick building. The Union National will occupy the first floor with fine banking rooms and probably the second and third floors as offices. According to a director of the bank it is still a question with the Union National where it will go during the erection of the building.

"It is very possible that we may go back to the old quarters of the Union National at Fourth avenue and Market street," he said, "but this has not been determined yet."

The firm of MacClure & Spahr, which carried off the architectural plum, is one of the youngest firms of architects in the city, but has already gained an enviable reputation for work done in this and other cities. They designed the Diamond bank skyscraper, the Keystone office building in Fourth avenue and the present home of the Philadelphia Company in Sixth avenue. They have also built a number of the finest residences in the East End and have been selected to design the $100,000 club house of the University club.

Seven firms are known to have been in the competition. The local firms competing were Alden & Harlow, Struthers & Hannah, Fred J. Osterling, James T. Steen and William Kaufmann. Henry Ives Cobb of Chicago also entered the lists. It is also reported that two New York firms of architects were in the competition, but this could not be confirmed yesterday.

CANAL WILL BE FINISHED BY 1915

Consulting Engineer Outlines His Observations on the Isthmus.

DIFFICULTY IS EXAGGERATED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.

Isham Randolph, member of the Panama canal board of consulting engineers, in a letter to President Carter of the sanitary district of Chicago, says completion of the isthmian canal may reasonably be looked for before 1915. Mr. Randolph declares the work can be done and Americans can do it. Climatic difficulties, he holds, are exaggerated. As to yellow fever, there was only one case on the zone, Mr. Randolph says, while he was there.

He has recently returned from a visit to Panama with other members of the board and his opinions are interesting and in view of the publication of the letter by the commission may be considered semi-official. In his letter Mr. Randolph says:

"What we do know is that it can be done; Americans can do it; and that in as short time as so stupendous an undertaking can be put through. We do know that almost limitless resources wait the demands of the builder; that the builders represent the highest grade of American engineering talent, led on by a man whose record of accomplishment is 'but the earnest of the things that he shall do.' Hence, we may reasonably look for the passage of the great ocean freighters from the Caribbean to the Pacific before our calendars are headed 1915. How much before, this deponent sayeth not. This is no easy triumph for the builders who must contend with and overcome difficulties not encountered in our temperate zone.

Health Conditions Exaggerated.

"First, there are climatic difficulties which my investigations force me to believe have been magnified, exaggerated. The question of proper housing has been a problem, but its solution is progressing, and it has had to wait upon lumber which must come from the states. The French left behind them some 2,500 buildings, little and big, which are being made habitable. But many more must be built to house the thousands whose labors are required to accomplish the work.

"When the equipment is on hand and the organization perfected, at least 24,000 men will be required in the various departments of industry. The source of supply for labor so far has been Jamaica. The efficiency of this labor is low, as low as 25 per cent taking an average laborer in our latitude as the unit. This is due in part to the fact that the supply is not now equal to the demand, and an independence is thereby induced which tends to worthlessness. There is no pressure which can be applied to these people, which will make them do their best under existing conditions. If a foreman undertakes to make them do a fair day's work, they quit and move on to the next camp, where they know that a job awaits them.

"I was told by white men on the work that the Martinique negroes were superior to those from Jamaica in their working qualities. The introduction of the eight-hour system on the isthmus seems a lamentable mistake and one which adds about 25 per cent to the labor cost of the work.

French Machinery a Handicap.

"The whole line is cluttered up with abandoned French machinery, the cost value of which is said to reach $30,000,000. This machinery is valueless, out of date, and the efforts to use it have proved disastrous, because had it been recognized in the beginning that better appliances must supersede the devices which were modern 20 odd years ago, orders would then have been placed for the best machines of our day, and they would have been arriving now in such quantities as the needs of the work call for.

"I cast no reflections upon the work of the French. They left behind them evidences of engineering skill and successful battles with difficulties which convince me that if the honest workers had been sustained and the vast sums which were diverted into robber channels had been legitimately applied, it might today be the mission of the United States only to enlarge the Panama canal, which would have become inadequate for the traffic seeking it.

"As to the feeding of the men: On my last day in Panama, after hours of tramping in the rain through the mud of the Culebra cut and laborious climbing up the jungle-clad hills, I arrived with two others of our party at a government hash house. We went in unannounced and ordered dinner. There was no delay in serving and there was a reasonable variety of well-cooked, well-seasoned food, better than I have found in 75 per cent of the many contractors' camps in which I have eaten in the last 37 years. The charge for this board is 25 cents a meal, or $22.50 a month.

"The hospitals are a service of just pride to our people. If sickness could ever be regarded as a boon, it may be so thought of in Ancon and Colon. One of the privileges of our trip was meeting Col. Georges, whose work as medical director places him in the front rank of that noble profession, which honors him for the honor he has won for it.

"You will no doubt have seen statements which purport to have come from members of our board of consulting engineers foreshadowing our reports. All such statements you can set down as manufactured. Our report (or our reports should we fail to agree), will embody our convictions as to the best type of canal, its probable cost and the reasonable time in which we believe that the waterway can be constructed. Until we are ready to make our official statement and sign our names to it, we are not giving out individual statements relating to any of the fundamentals of the project."

Believe Jonas Will Return.

Although August Jonas, the alleged embezzler of $30,000 belonging to the French Plate Mirror Company at Kittanning, has so far succeeded in eluding capture, the police believe he will return to realize on his valuable patent rights. Jonas' family is reported to have removed from Kittanning.

HEARST WINS ON STRAW VOTE IN RETAIL SECTION

Strength of Municipal Ownership Candidate Shown by Poll of Central New York.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Canvassers for the Herald today made an effort to ascertain the drift of the municipal campaign by taking a straw vote in the central section of the city. The inquiry was directed to the retail meat industry.

One canvasser interrogated the employes in all the retail meat shops in the district bounded by Twenty-third street, Thirty-eighth street, Fifth avenue and the North river. The other worked in the territory bounded by Twenty-third street, Twenty-eighth street, Fifth avenue and the East river.

Of the 178 voters interviewed, 65 were for Hearst, 53 for McClellan, 15 for Ivins, 67 for Jerome, 11 for Flammer and 53 for Osborne. Forty-three were non-committal.

NEW YORK POLICE ARE FAVORING MR. HEARST

Police Commissioner McAdoo Says He Will Punish All Who Are in Movement.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Police Commissioner McAdoo was asked this afternoon whether or not he knew of a meeting at which the police department was represented by accredited delegates, and at which they voted to indorse William R. Hearst for mayor. Mr. McAdoo's reply was:

"I know that a meeting was held at which representatives of the police, fire department, street cleaning department and other employes of the city were present, and at which a resolution indorsing Mr. Hearst was adopted."

It is understood that Mr. McAdoo is making a most rigid investigation, and that if the names of the police delegates to the meeting are learned, punishment will be meted out to them. The police, it is estimated, can swing at least 50,000 votes.

TUBE CITY COUNCILMAN KILLED ON P. & L. E. R. R.

Harry L. Shaffer Struck at Webster by Engine of Train He Was Awaiting.

Common Councilman Harry L. Shaffer of the Eleventh ward, McKeesport, was struck by the engine of a Pittsburgh & Lake Erie train at Webster yesterday afternoon and instantly killed. His body was brought to McKeesport on the train that killed him.

Mr. Shaffer was at Webster on business for David Hardy, a wholesale liquor dealer at McKeesport, being Hardy's manager. He was sitting along the track at Webster waiting for his train. When the engineer whistled for the station he rose and walked toward the depot, but noted as if he failed to notice the approach of the train. He stepped directly in front of the engine.

Mr. Shaffer was one of the best known young men in McKeesport, having moved to that city from Johnstown about 15 years ago. In February, 1904, he was elected to common council from the Eleventh ward and had been a constant attendant at the meetings. He was at the meeting Monday night, but left before it was over, saying that he did not feel well. He was a member of the McKeesport Aerie of Eagles, and is the first one to die in that organization since its inception three years ago.

VETERAN NEWSBOY IS BURIED BY HIS LITTLE COMPANIONS

John Murphy, aged 65, the oldest "newsboy" in Pittsburgh, was buried yesterday in Calvary cemetery, after Father O'Connell offered a requiem mass over the remains at the Church of the Epiphany. Many newsboys and young men who formerly sold papers in the streets attended the services and a number accompanied the remains to the grave. Murphy had been the friend of the "newsies" for years and often gave them money to buy papers. He was also a large contributor when it was necessary to raise a fund to bury one of the newsboys. Murphy was a veteran of the Civil war, in which he lost one leg. He died of a fall Saturday, and the "newsies" raised a fund to bury him.

A Sale of Good MANDOLINS

Like the rest of humanity, we occasionally make mistakes. In placing his Mandolin orders for fall and Christmas trade our buyer, instead of splitting his order into two shipments, as he intended to do, ordered the full quantity for both shipments. FFEY CALLS ON HIS COMMITTEE Democratic State Chairman Hall So Sick That Temporary Substitute Must be Had.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS HELD

Col. James M. Guffey, Democratic national committeeman from Pennsylvania, has called a meeting of the state committee to be held in Harrisburg tomorrow. J. K. P. Hall, the state chairman, is seriously ill and unable to carry on the duties of the campaign and Col. Guffey said a temporary chairman or a vice chairman would have to be chosen. That was the main purpose of the meeting, Col. Guffey said, although the state committeemen will have a general conference about the political campaign. Col. Guffey, still chasing rainbows, really believes that there is a chance for W. H. Berry to be elected state treasurer.

Col. Guffey, of course, will direct the state committee whom to select for temporary chairman, but he said yesterday the man had not yet been decided on. There is talk locally that Guffey may choose the Democratic city chairman of Philadelphia, Charles P. Donnelly, to run the state campaign.

It was also announced by Col. Guffey that a meeting of all the county chairmen in Western Pennsylvania would be held on Saturday morning in Pittsburgh. It is understood that the lies told about prominent Republican politicians and the management of the state treasury from the Prohibition-Democratic stump have disgusted so many persons who, Col. Guffey thought, would support Berry, although they are not Democrats, that the state leader is alarmed and has called in the Democratic chairmen with a view to devising some means of stemming the tide against Berry.

The Lincoln party moved into its headquarters in Grant street yesterday morning and last night the Allied Independents, as the Lincolnites, Orphans and independent Democrats call themselves, held a meeting. It was decided to have a mass meeting in the Forbes street Turner hall on Saturday night. Ex-State Senator Lewis Emery will be the chief speaker.

The Citizens' party's press bureau sent out the statement yesterday that Governor Folk of Missouri, a Democrat, would address the meeting to be held on Saturday night at the Carnegie music hall, Allegheny.

Policemen and firemen of Pittsburgh are complaining that the leaders of the Citizens' party have broken another pledge, namely, their promise, made before Hays was elected mayor, not to assess municipal employes for campaign expenses. It is asserted that orders have gone forth from city hall that all policemen and firemen must pay $10 each into the campaign fund, and that the collections are being made by the Citizens' party's ward chairmen.

The Republicans held several meetings last night. One in the Hazelwood school house was addressed by Congressman James P. Burke, Capt. John A. Reed, William M. Benham and Hugh C. O'Donnell. At the Allen school house in the Thirty-first ward, William Dodds, Perry A. Shenor, John A. Fairman, L. K. Campbell and Robert E. Stone, spoke, and at the Bane school house, Twenty-seventh ward, John W. Moreland and J. F. McKee were the speakers. The Republicans of Sewickley held a meeting in Gray's hall. William B. Kirker, Charles A. Muehlbronner and George Z. Hosack were the speakers.

The Citizens held a mass meeting in Turner hall, Duquesne, last evening.

The Fourteenth ward Republicans will hold a meeting tonight at their headquarters, 3706 Forbes street. C. B. Price, Franklin P. Booth, T. J. Ford and A. J. Edwards will speak. There will be music by a band and singing by a quartet.

ATTACK LINCOLN PARTY'S PAPERS

Citizens' Attorneys Busy Trying to Find Flaws to Kill Nominations.

HEARING TO RESUME TODAY

Politicians large and small gathered in court of common pleas No. 2, shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon to hear the arguments on the objections to the nomination papers of the new Lincoln party, the decision in which will determine whether or not that organization is to have a place on the ballot. The hearing was not finished and will occupy the attention of Judges Frazer and Shafer this morning, when the attorneys will argue the question whether or not the names and addresses where no city or town is given, are sufficient within the meaning of the act under which the papers are filed, to make them legally correct and valid.

Most of the candidates of all parties in the county were present and much interested in the proceedings. Senator Woods, county chairman of the Citizens party, frequently consulted with City Solicitor Rodgers, William J. Brennen and J. Rodgers McCreery, who are conducting the case for the objector, William H. Johnston, seemed to show great anxiety regarding the outcome. There were frequent consultations between Secretary J. M. Clark of the Citizens' organization, and County Commissioner J. A. Clark.

Almost two hours were consumed at the hearing. Attorneys William Metcalf, Jr., John Bane and Joseph McClure, appeared in behalf of the Lincoln party. They tried to have the objections quashed as being insufficient, holding that they were not filed with the commissioners, and that the notification to Commissioner Price as a candidate, was not sufficient to comply with the law compelling the objections and notice thereof to be filed with the commissioners as such.

Mr. Brennen objected to the dismissal and held that proper notice was given to the candidates and to the commissioners.

Court Thinks it a Matter of Proof.

The court thought this a matter of proof. Hamilton Gillis, a clerk in the commissioner's office, testified that he had received a copy of the objections from Commissioner J. A. Clark and placed it in the vault on October 18, 1905. He said the copy was taken from the vault by Commissioner C. B. Price on Saturday morning, but he did not know where it is now, as he had not seen it since. On cross-examination he said he was not positive as to the date and did not know that it was a notice to the commissioners.

Mr. Metcalf told the court that the copy about which Mr. Gillis testified was identically the same as the notice served upon Mr. Price and contained the notice to him as one of the candidates. It was not addressed to the commissioners, he said.

The court thought the notice sufficient and Mr. Bane then offered exceptions on behalf of the nominees to the objections, claiming the objections were not sufficient as they did not object specifically to the individual signers of the papers.

The objectors alleged that a number of the signers of the papers had not given the town or city wherein they lived, and that because of this these signatures were defective. Mr. Brennen then submitted and read a certificate from Prothonotary William B. Kirker showing that the total vote was 91,014 at the last election, and that 2 per cent of this would make 1,527 names required on the nomination papers.

Harry T. Rowley, the commissioners' chief clerk, identified the various groups of papers containing the signatures. The objectors alleged that there were not five or more vouchers and the signatures as the law required, and Mr. Rowley was shown papers in which but one voucher appeared in many instances. Counsel for the nominees, after many of the papers had been shown Mr. Rowley, appeared to admit the defectiveness of the papers of the candidate for director of the poor. The other allegations relative to the vouchers was later met by Mr. Metcalf taking the stand and saying that the vouchers were scattered throughout the signatures, for the purpose of keeping the signatures with that of the man who secured them for ready reference. The papers as filed were filed, Mr. Metcalf said, by him as one paper.

Question of Validity Raised.

Then Mr. Brennen raised the question of the validity of the names of the signers of the papers. He contended that the names showing only a street and number were incomplete and therefore not valid. This was met by the statement from the nominees that, with the taking from the list of all that were objected to on this ground, there were still enough names thereon to validate the papers. This was disputed by Mr. Brennen and the court of the objectors was not accepted by the nominees, who declared errors had been made in the computation.

Mr. Rowley, still on the stand during the discussion by the attorneys, was cross-examined by the counsel for the nominees, and said that the papers were filed as one paper, but on re-direct examination he said they were detached, being arranged in groups, as they now are.

This closed the testimony for the objectors, and George H. Ladley and Frank G. Jones were called, but did not respond. The nominees had contended that, if the court ruled that the addresses objected to were incomplete, they had the right to amend, and these witnesses were called to show that the signers were all within the county.

John Phillips, Jr., testified that he helped secure the names in the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-ninth wards, Pittsburgh; Imperial and other country districts. J. J. Baird was a voucher, and Mr. Brennen objected to his testimony that he had signed as voucher for the entire paper, the attorney saying that the papers would show for themselves what he had vouched for. The court sustained Mr. Brennen.

The nominees' counsel had a lot of authorities to show that the names as given in the papers were within the meaning of the act, and the court asked the counsel for briefs of their points and their references, and said they would hear them on the question of whether or not the addresses objected to are sufficient within the meaning of the law. The figures of Mr. Bane, which were given to the court to support the nominees' contention that they had enough names even with those objected to taken from the list, showed 1,980 names.

Ex-Sheriff at Martinsburg Attempts to Use Force to Collect Money That Is Due Him.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

MARTINSBURG, W. VA., Oct. 24.—Judge Nathan Goff of the United States circuit court has issued a temporary injunction against C. L. Stuckey, ex-sheriff of Berkeley country, returnable on November 1, to show cause why he should not be restrained from collecting taxes from the Old National bank. Two years ago the Citizens National bank and the Old National bank, both of this city, brought suit in the circuit court of the state, asking that the sheriff refund taxes to the bank, which had been paid under protest, as the banks held United States bonds to the amount of the capital stock.

Judge Dailey of the Seventeenth circuit, decided in favor of the banks. The state then appealed the case to the supreme court, where it now is, not having yet been decided. The Citizens National bank continued to pay taxes under protest, but the Old National refused to pay. Sheriff Stuckey, being charged with the amounts in his settlements, decided to collect. On Saturday, after banking hours he demanded the money of the cashier and was refused.

The president of the Old National, the cashier, the ex-sheriff and a deputy had a quarrel, it is said; the ex-sheriff, it is alleged, attempting to take the money by force. It is stated he was about to make another attempt this morning when notice of the injunction proceedings was served upon him. The injunction will be bitterly fought.

GREENSBURG, PA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Harry F. Bovard, the Republican candidate for county treasurer, and County Chairman Harry F. Seanor followed his man into a blind alley and arrested him.

At the hearing this morning they were identified as two porch climbers, who are suspected of having done much petty thieving about Greensburg in the last month.

STATE HEALTH DEPARTMENT RENEWS TYPHOID FIGHT

Physicians Are Ordered to Two Towns Where an Epidemic Has Appeared Recently.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, Oct. 24.—Dr. Fred C. Johnson, chief medical officer of the state health department, was today ordered by Commissioner Dixon to Berwick and Nescopec to investigate the outbreak of typhoid fever in that locality. There are more than 100 cases in the two towns, but Commissioner Dixon is confident that with the co-operation of the local boards of health it will be an easy matter to prevent the spread of the disease.

F. Herbert Snow, chief of the engineering bureau of the health department, and Dr. G. H. Cox of Hummelstown, have been ordered to assist Dr. Johnson. The latest advices from Nanticoke, where Dr. Johnson has been in charge of the typhoid epidemic, are that the number of cases is gradually decreasing and there is no further danger of a spread of the disease.

It is thought the epidemic at Berwick and Nescopec, both of which towns are below Nanticoke, is the result of the epidemic at the former place. There are also several typheld cases at Archbald.

GAVE PRESIDENT STRENUOUS DAY

Mr. Roosevelt Is Kept Busy Acknowledging Hearty Greetings in Alabama.

CHEERED AT EVERY TURN

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Oct. 24.—President Roosevelt concluded a strenuous day in Alabama by a two-hours' visit to Birmingham, where his reception, in keeping with those given him at Montgomery and Tuskegee, were hearty and soul-stirring. His day began at 7 o'clock, when his special train left Montgomery for Tuskegee. Visits to the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute and to the Methodist Female college were crowded into a little less than two hours and the noon hour had just arrived when the executive stepped from his car in Montgomery. Here he spoke to a great throng under the shadow of Confederacy's first capital, and was on his way again sharply at 2 o'clock.

A few minutes before 5 the President was the guest of Birmingham, and until his train left at 6:45 p. m., on the night run to Little Rock, the President was cheered at every turn. The day was unmarked by any special incident save at Birmingham. Here an intoxicated man, in his excitement, dropped a pistol from his pocket on the pavement. The President saw the incident and called the attention of officers to the man, who was immediately arrested.

Brilliant Street Scene.

The President's train arrived in Birmingham promptly on time. Mayor George B. Ward, surrounded by a reception committee, delivered the formal address of welcome at the station, and immediately afterward the party entered carriages and began the march to Capital park, eight squares distant.

The entire line of march was packed with humanity. Rows of incandescent lights the full length of the street made the scene all the more brilliant as evening came on. The ovation to the President was continuous and he stood in his carriage the whole way acknowledging the outbursts of enthusiasm.

A pretty incident at the close of the march was when the President asked the name of the lady riding at the side of his carriage. Miss Samuie Harris was sponser of troop D, one of the local cavalry organizations. The President was introduced to her by Mayor Ward and as he reached over to shake her hand he crowded the mayor. Excusing himself, he said:

"I would run over a man any time to shake hands with a lady."

At Capitol park, under the glamor of thousands of electric lights, the party entered the speakers' stand. Gen. Rufus N. Rhodes, editor of the Birmingham News, welcomed the President on behalf of the citizens of Birmingham. He said:

Hailed With Honor.

"Most genuine and cordial is the welcome extended by the magic city of the south to the magician of diplomacy—the pacificator of the nations. All classes and creeds, with hearty acclaim and spontaneous enthusiasm, greet the chief magistrate, 'who cares not to be great save as he serves or saves the state.' They hail with honor the man who in his private life has re-established standards of thinking and doing that which will ennoble Americans and uplift and bless mankind."

Great applause greeted him as the President delivered an address.

From Capitol park the party proceeded to the Alabama State Fair grounds. The crowd at the fair was also enormous, and greeted the President enthusiastically as he rose to speak. From the fair grounds the President returned to the city, and the special train left for Memphis at 7:30 o'clock.

NEW MANUALS OF CITY COUNCILS DISTRIBUTED

Handsome Red and Gilt Volumes Issued to Councilmen and Others.

Contains Wrong Tax Rate.

Copies of the new manual of city councils, bound in red leather and the leaves gilt-edged, were distributed yesterday by the city clerk. The manual contains the directory of city officials, the rules of councils, the new charter, charter ordinance, Wallace act, street directory and general matters of interest concerning the municipal government, making a volume of 256 pages.

It is a useful volume, although one serious error was detected in it yesterday. On page 165 is printed that the tax rate of the city for 1905 is 12½ mills, but in reality the total tax rate of the city for the current year is just 13 mills, or one-half mill higher than last year. In the tax levy ordinance for 1905 the tax rate was divided into 12½ mills for general expenses and ½ mill for the new High school.

This division was not made because the taxes are kept in separate funds, but for the administration to evade responsibility for raising the tax rate from 12½ to 13 mills. In giving the tax rate for 1905, for some reason the ½-mill tax for the new High school is not included, and the reader is left under the impression that the total tax rate for 1905 is the same as last year.

In the same column the special tax rate for the former boroughs of Beltzhoover and Elliott, now the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth wards, are given, but not the High school tax. The taxes levied by the sub-district schools are also given. The new manual is printed by a publishing house in Erie, Pa.

INSTALLATION OF PASTOR.

S. A. McCollam Assumes Charge of Leetsdale U. P. Church.

The installation of the Rev. S. A. McCollam as pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, Leetsdale, took place last night, the Rev. E. M. Milligan of Sewickley presiding. The committee of officers from the Allegheny presbytery included Mr. Milligan, the Rev. Thomas Harper of Emsworth and the Rev. J. M. McKelvey, pastor of the Third United Presbyterian church, Allegheny.

Dr. McKelvey preached the sermon charging the new pastor, Rev. Dr. Harper charged the congregation. The Rev. John Gregg of Mt. Washington, formerly pastor at Leetsdale, led the closing prayer and Mr. Milligan pronounced the benediction. The installation was largely attended by members of the congregation.

"The Shepherd King."

Wright Lorimer is doing a splendid business at the Nixon theater this week, in his magnificent production of "The Shepherd King." Mr. Lorimer's work as David is very satisfactory, and Pittsburgh before has never seen such a beautiful spectacle as this superb production of a remarkable Biblical drama. Mr. Lorimer will begin his second week at the Nixon on next Monday evening.

Dear Sir:—

"We want no kings, but kings of toil,
No crowns, but crowns of deeds;
Not royal birth, but sterling worth
Must mark the man who leads."

Will you not be one of the first "who leads" in a charitable act?

I, with the assistance of several others, will have charge of a stand erected for little Jimmie Flaherty, the unfortunate newsboy, at Pickering's Pumpkin Show, Old City hall, October 30th to November 1st, inclusive.

Any little gifts will be thankfully received and will be of great help in starting him up in business.

Thanking you in advance, I beg to remain, Yours truly,

DR. JANE BLANCHARD,
456 Sixth Avenue, Pittsburgh.

P. S.—Please call at Jimmie's stand and see the little unfortunate, Old City hall, October 30th, 31st, November 1st, 1 to 10 p. m.

Wednesday evening, November 1st, Dr. Blanchard will auction off all that is left over from Jimmie's stock.

PUBLICITY COMES HIGH FOR COMPANY

Testimony at Insurance Hearing Shows Another Phase in Workings of Big Concern.

NO SENSATIONS YESTERDAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—At the session today of the legislative committee investigating the insurance companies the affairs of the Mutual Life Insurance Company were under consideration, and it was brought out that this company was paying for the dissemination throughout the country of reports of this investigation that were favorable to the company. Charles J. Smith, a newspaper man, was the witness.

He is employed by the Mutual Life Insurance Company to do a large number of things, but a month ago was placed in charge of sending out these reports. Mr. Smith had a number of vouchers for the payment of this work, and these aggregated $11,000 with more bills to come in. He thought the amount would reach $14,000.

Mr. Smith wrote these reports and submitted them to Allan Forman, who owns a news bureau, and $1 a line was paid by the Mutual Life for the service. Clippings from various papers about the country were shown to the witness and identified as the dispatches he wrote and sent to Mr. Forman. These were sent to about 100 papers, but Mr. Smith did not know whether the papers were paid for inserting them. In one dispatch Mr. Smith wrote that Mr. McCurdy's attitude on the stand made a distinctly favorable impression, and for this he had to pay $2 a line. This he said was worth it.

The Magazine Advertising.

Following Mr. Smith, Walter Sullivan, who has charge of the magazine advertising department was called. He said the Mutual advertised in 12 magazines last year at a cost of $42,000. Advertising in insurance papers cost about $30,000 more, but he could not tell where the remainder of the account of $329,797, the amount charged up to advertising last year, was spent.

Earlier in the day Emory McClintock, the actuary of the Mutual Life was on the stand. The entire early session of the day before recess was given over to his explanation of technical insurance. Mr. McClintock practically advocated no laws for the insurance companies, except supervision to give the reports publicity. He thought the public could take care of themselves and that publicity was the best law. Asked how far this view was shared in official circles, he thought he was somewhat of a missionary along that line.

John B. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, was examined and when the adjournment was taken this afternoon, his testimony was unfinished.

Company Was Liberal.

While lacking the startling features of the testimony of some of the other life insurance presidents who have testified Mr. Hegeman's remarks and explanations were none the less interesting, especially his statement that $878,000 was given to the industrial policy holders of his company last year, without any obligation, whatever. Mr. Hegeman further said that in eight years his company had voluntarily given to the policy holders $8,000,000. This was in extended insurance, mortuary dividends and liberalized policies during epidemics, floods and fires.

It was brought out that, while the company carried collateral loans throughout the year, none appeared in the annual report on December 31. This was explained by the witness, who said all collateral loans were transferred on the last day of the year to Vermilye & Company, the bankers, under an agreement, and were bought back again in January. This was done, according to the witness, to avoid the horde of applications for call loans from the Wall street district.

Would Not Keep a Ticker.

Mr. Hegeman did not encourage the call loan business from this section, because it entailed keeping a ticker in his office, and he would not have one there. He further did not care to have his company known as a loaning company.

The large loans at such a low interest as 1½ per cent, especially the one to President John A. McCall of the New York Life Insurance Company, were taken up, and Mr. Hegeman spoke strongly of his friendship for Mr. McCall, who he said was closer than any other man to him in insurance business, outside of his immediate associates.

Mr. McCall had rendered him valuable service that was of benefit to the company, and personally he thought the company could afford, and would have been justified in paying Mr. McCall the few hundreds of dollars the loan amounted to. The same was true, he said, of Silas B. Dutcher, a director of the company, who also carried large loans with the company at low interest.

PUBLIC SALE OF ORCHESTRA TICKETS BEGINS TOMORROW

The subscribers' sale being ended, the management announce that fully 1,000 seats for the evening concerts remain at the different prices, $20, $15 and $10, and that many good locations can be had in each division. For the afternoon sale a choice can be had for more than 1,500 seats at $15, $10 and $8. This public sale will positively close on Saturday. No single tickets for the first concerts of November 3 and 4 will be sold until next Monday evening.

DISCRIMINATION CHARGED BY MANY Towns About Altoona Claim Pittsburgh Does Not Get Square Deal on Rates.

SAY RAILROADS ARE PARTIAL

Special Telegram From
JEROME J. NORDMAN, Staff Correspondent

ALTOONA, PA., Oct. 24.—"Is Pittsburgh getting a square deal?"

This was the question asked by merchants of Cambria county today, as they set forth the claim that trade relations with Pittsburgh would be far greater, were it not for discrimination in freight rates.

In every town visited by the Merchants and Manufacturers' trade booming party in Cambria county today, this argument was set forth and in the town of Patton printed cards were liberally distributed, showing that Philadelphia and New York were receiving a freight rate to Patton that deviated but little from that charged against Pittsburgh. The cards bore the inscription which heads this account.

After a visit among the merchants of Johnstown during the early hours, a start was made for Ebensburg, at 10 o'clock this morning, with three of the largest engines in the service of the Pennsylvania railroad leading the way over the mountains.

Owing to a drizzling rain and slippery track, time was lost all day until Altoona was reached at 9 o'clock tonight, two hours behind schedule time.

In the pretty town of Ebensburg, which crowns the very summit of the Alleghenies, J. W. Leach, district attorney for Cambria county, extended the welcome and made a strong plea for fairer freight rates for Pittsburgh, and claimed that present rates almost forbade trade relations.

In Barnesboro Maj. A. H. Allport and Burgess John R. Musser gave the welcome and also thrashed out the freight rate problem.

At Patton, where the cards were distributed, W. H. Dealinger made the address and devoted it almost exclusively in denouncing existing rates as compared with those allotted to cities of the east.

Owing to the heavy grade over the Clearfield division and the heaviness of the train, only four cars were taken to Hastings. Here Prof. Daniel R. Williams made the welcoming address in a heavy rain.

Returning, the train was met at Cresson by a committee of merchants of Altoona, who were as follows:

Adam Bucher, president of the board of trade; M. H. Cannan, H. L. Wilson, J. D. Soyter, A. T. Heintzman, George Rudisille, H. J. White, Frank Stahle, John Counsman, John F. Kaufmann and F. E. McCullough.

Upon arrival here a reception was held in the parlors of the Logan house, where a welcome in oratorical style was delivered by Attorney Samuel B. Hare.

President Lloyd and Secretary Wardrop responded, and fraternal addresses were made by former Congressman J. H. Hicks and James S. Craig.

One of the features of the reception was the presentation of a gold watch fob, emblematic of the insignia of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association, to President Lloyd, by the newspaper men with the party.

Tyrone, Osceola, Philipsburg, Houtzdale, Huntingdon, Everett, Bedford and Cumberland will be visited tomorrow.

FIND INFANTS' BODIES.

Children Make Two Gruesome Discoveries, Now in Morgue's Care.

The bodies of two dead infants were discovered yesterday by children. In the rear of 716 Mellon street, East End, several children discovered the skeleton of the lower limbs of a two-months-old child. The children buried the bones, but the police learned what had been found, exhumed the bones and sent them to the morgue.

Christ Vageiel, 12-years-old, of Petrel street, Allegheny, found the body of a one-month-old infant enclosed in a paper flour sack and hidden among some old lumber and railroad ties in front of the Western Penitentiary on the Ohio river bank. This body also was sent to the morgue.

Mrs. Fiske Coming.

Saturday night will mark the closing performance of that splendid spectacle, "Babes in the Wood," at the Belasco theater. There will be a popular matinee today, when the curtain will rise promptly at 2 o'clock. Miss Cherida Simpson, who is now playing the part of "Robin Hood," is making an excellent impression and several new dances and songs introduced this week are being enthusiastically received. Tomorrow morning seats will go on sale at the Belasco for the forthcoming engagement of Mrs. Fiske and the Manhattan company in "Leah Kleschna." They have scored a splendid and unqualified success in this play.

Holds Four for Court.

John F. Schultz, Joseph Duffy and Richard Friel, charged by W. A. Early, paymaster for the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company, with conspiracy to defraud by carrying "dummy" names on the company's time sheets, and Thomas Henderson, a negro, charged with larceny, were each held in $1,500 bail for court by Alderman Caldwell yesterday. Friel gave bond and the others were committed to jail.

CUTICURA REMEDIES POSSESS TRUE MERIT

"My face was afflicted with eczema in the year 1897. I used the Cuticura Remedies, and was entirely cured. I am a practicing physician and very often prescribe Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap in cases of eczema, and they have cured where other formulas have failed. I am not in the habit of endorsing patent medicines, but when I find remedies possessing true merit, such as the Cuticura Remedies do, I am broad-minded enough to proclaim their virtues to the world. I have been practicing medicine for sixteen years, and must say I find your Remedies A No. 1. You are at liberty to publish this letter, or any part of it. I remain, very truly yours, G. M. United States Minister Will Endeavor to Settle the Franco-Venezuelan Dispute.

PRESIDENT CASTRO'S MISTAKE

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CARACAS, VENEZUELA, Oct. 24.—The government at Washington has commissioned the American minister, Mr. Russell, to endeavor to arrange the Franco-Venezuelan diplomatic incident. Mr. Russell went to Les Teques today to have an interview with President Castro.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Pending the result of Mr. Russell's interview with President Castro the state department will not discuss its nature. It should be understood, however, that he will confine his efforts to a possible assistance in the solution of the Taigny incident involving President Castro's alleged discourteous treatment of the French minister at Caracas. The Washington government feels that President Castro made a mistake in this matter.

THE HON. W. W. RUSSELL,
United States Minister to Venezuela.

As soon as it became known this was the paramount grievance of France against Venezuela and the primary cause for the dispatch of the French squadron the hope was resolved here that France might yet find a way for the settlement of her trouble with Venezuela without resorting to force. Recent conferences have been held at the state department between the secretary and Mr. Jussrand, the French charge. The charge is lending his efforts to a diplomatic adjustment.

French Diplomats Pleased.

At the French embassy when informed of the effort of the American minister at Caracas to arrange an agreement between France and Venezuela, the following authoritative statement was made:

"We are extremely happy to hear of the very kind intervention of the United States and we are sure that under the circumstances France would have been glad to render the same service to the United States. And the news of the intervention seems to as all the better because it will, without any doubt, enable President Casiro to realize the error made by his minister of foreign affairs, and probably will have the result that France shall not have to take recourse in such methods as she should dislike very much to use but for which, in case of need, all preparations have been made."

The diplomatic incident which Minister Russell will endeavor to settle arose from the protest lodged September 19 at Caracas by the French charge d'affaires, M. Taigny, against the closing of the Caracas station of the French cable company, and the expulsion from Venezuela of the manager of the company, M. Bron. The Venezuelan government sent the following reply to M. Taigny:

Castro's Offensive Action.

"The government holds documents proving that the French Cable Company has accepted the result of the judicial proceedings brought against it. The government is only waiting to establish new relations between it and the company.

"M. Taigny, the French charge d'affaires, knows this, and therefore the protest can only be considered as an act of personal hostility. For this reason the government will abstain from treating with the French government through M. Taigny."

This note gave offense to the French government and France requested Venezuela to withdraw that part of the note which gave notice that Venezuela would not communicate further through M. Taigny until he apologized for his statement that the French Cable Company had not been treated justly. This President Castro has hitherto refused to do, although it was announced from Paris October 19 that the Venezuelan president had made repeated advances to M. Taigny for the purpose of resuming friendly intercourse, apparently intending to ignore his previous action in refusing to deal with the French government through M. Taigny. The latter acting on instructions from Paris declined to meet the advances or to resume intercourse with the Venezuelan government until Venezuela complied with the French request that President Castro withdraw his offensive action.

FIND HOUSE OVERCROWDED.

New York Grand Jury Investigating Charges of Colonization Against Prominent People.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Charges of colonization, sensational in their character and in the persons more or less directly involved, were investigated by the grand jury today. The allegation was made in an affidavit that 20 men were registered from the home of an election district captain in the Eighteenth assembly district. The house is in Forsyth street. It consists of three floors, one of which is used for business purposes, and has, altogether, 12 rooms.

The district captain lives in the basement with his mother. The basement is divided into two rooms. The affidavit says that four men registered as living in this basement. The other 16, according to the affidavit, divided their alleged residence between the two upper floors, one of which is wholly occupied by a business establishment, while the top floor alone has living apartments.

PITTSBURGH CAPITALISTS AFTER RUSSIAN CONTRACTS

Americans Invade the Czar's Realm in Anticipation of a Big Industrial Boom, Caused by the Ending of Hostilities—Demand for Concessions.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—Anticipating a big industrial revival in Russia as a result of the close of the war there is a regular influx of foreigners seeking commercial opportunities and concessions, including a liberal sprinkling of Americans who believe the time is especially propitious for them. The Westinghouse people are bidding for big electric contracts and a representative of Murry A. Verner and H. Sellers McKee of Pittsburgh are bidding for the former. Charles R. Flint also has several projects in hand. The disturbed political conditions and the great railroad strike, however, are temporarily engrossing the attention of the government. Besides this the minister of finance is devoting all his attention to the new loan negotiations and up to the present time the concession hunters have made no progress.

A representative of an American syndicate has submitted elaborate plans for the projected railroad connecting Trans-Caucasia, Central Asia and Tashkend with the trans-Siberian and Tomsk line which is not only important strategically, in facilitating mobilization on the Indian frontier, but because it traverses the well-watered lake region. The road involves the expenditure of $15,000,000. The syndicate asks the government to guarantee the interest on the bonds and to grant mining and other concessions in the country traversed.

Robert Gross, representing American locomotive manufacturers, is looking for contracts for new equipment, of which the railroads of the empire are in urgent demand. Lewis Nixon, who is closing up deals for ten torpedo boats to be set up in the Black sea and which are now in the Baltic, is also awaiting developments.

The government's naval contracts and big contracts for the electrification of the street car systems of St. Petersburg and Warsaw are also about to be let.

INDEPENDENTS WILL GET INTO WAYNESBURG

South Penn Telephone Alliance With Bell Means New Greene County Concern.

The second chapter in the renewed contest for telephone supremacy in Greene county is about to open. The independent interests propose to enter that county, starting at Waynesburg, in competition with the South Penn Telephone Company, which has within the past week allied itself with the Bell interests as a sublicensee. It is said that company will pay $2 a year rental for each Bell instrument.

The Bell interest has never had a strong hold in Greene county until this deal was made with the former independent. It had an exchange at Waynesburg, but with only a limited number of telephones. The deal makes it stronger there than ever before, although the management does not go to the company which is the directly licensee of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The Federal Telephone Company had a contract with the South Penn, but Manager Deland of the Federal stated yesterday that the South Penn's president had told him that the company was in such trouble that it had to make a deal with the Bell people, and Mr. Deland gave his permission to the South Penn to break its contract with the Federal and remove the connections. Mr. Delend said that this would be a bad loss to the Federal, inasmuch as it put it out of connections with 13 independents, but that he had given his permission as an act of good-fellowship. Mr. Deland also denied indignantly yesterday the positive statement that the Federal Telephone Company is in reality a Bell concern.

CANNON KEEPS A GUARD.

Utah Senator Employs Athletic Young Men to Protect Him from His Enemies.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—That former United States Senator Frank J. Cannon of Utah is guarded by detectives is the belief here of those who noticed that two stalwart young men kept close shadow upon him yesterday and today while here.

He spoke last night in this city on "Mormons," denouncing the political and social features of that sect's practices. Mr. Cannon was a disappointment to the members of the Mothers' club, under whose auspices he appeared. His voice at times hardly rose above a whisper, and he was very evidently suffering from some nervous trouble.

Suicide Was Well Known.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—William Mosier, who committed suicide at Charleroi yesterday, was formerly a well-known citizen of Georges township, Fayette county, and was the father of Mrs. Emma Finley of this place, who went to Charleroi today to claim the body. The deceased leaves also three sons in Fayette county, J. F., John, and Prof. O. F. Mosier.

STATE WILL PROSECUTE SWIFT & COMPANY'S AGENT

President Swift Personally Pleads to Governor Pennypacker for the Withdrawal of the Suit.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Oct 24.—State Dairy and Food commissioner Warren today refused to withdraw the prosecution of the commonwealth against William J. Hall, agent for Swift & Company, the big western meat packers after Gov. Pennypacker had declined to interfere. President Swift personally appeared before the governor and pleaded for the withdrawal of the suit.

Hall was prosecuted last July by Warren on a charge of having sold in Philadelphia sausage adulterated with boracic acid, and the case has been pending in the courts. The commissioner alleges the "doctored" sausage was sold to contractors furnishing meats to the United States government.

The governor gave a hearing today at which were present Commissioner Warren and Secretary of Agriculture Critchfield. Dwight M. Lowry, a Philadelphia lawyer, accompanied President Swift.

They said their firm had no intention of violating the laws of Pennsylvania and if there were and boracic acid in the sausage in question it must have come from old tins in which it was packed, which formerly contained sausage thus preserved.

President Swift promised that hereafter his firm would make a special effort to comply with the law. Commissioner Warren explained he had brought the suit at the instance of Secretary Bonaparte of the navy and insisted the prosecution be pressed. The governor then declined to interfere and the case will be tried in Philadelphia one week from next Thursday.

The Harrisburg agency of Swift & Company was recently arrested, along with ten Harrisburg and Steelton dealers for selling "doctored" sausage bought from this firm. The offenders settled by payment of a fine of $50 and the cost in each case and the suits were dropped. Swift & Company paid the costs of all the offenders.

Peter A. Eckland of Minnesota in Jail at London, but Authorities Do Not Want Him.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ST. PAUL, MINN., Oct. 24.—Peter August Eckland, in jail in London, Eng., on his own confession that he embezzled $11,000, while secretary of the Clay County Land Company, may go free because of the refusal of his victims to prosecute him.

Secretary of State Elihu Root today telegraphed Gov. Johnson on information from the London embassy stating that Eckland was in the custody of the London police, and asking if his extradition to Minnesota was desired. The telegram further stated Eckland was an embezzler to the extent of $11,000 from the Clay County Land Company, on his own confession.

Following the receipt of the telegram communication was at once had with the Clay county authorities, and the answer was that no complaint had been made nor his arrest asked for. That he was an embezzler of $11,000 from the land company was admitted as true, but no particular individual or parties could be found who would admit suffering the loss.

BANK BURGLARS DEFY CITIZENS OF RIDGEVILLE

Hold Town at Bay While They Blow Safe and Get Away With Thousands in Cash.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

RIDGEVILLE, IND., Oct. 24.—Robbers today blew the safe in the Ridgeville State bank, and escaped with about $6,000. The explosion aroused Cashier Branson. He hurried to the bank and was shot in the ankle. Before going to the bank the robbers met the town watchman, overpowered and bound and gagged him. There is no clue.

Five of the robbers remained on guard while two others wrecked the safe with nitroglycerin, which broke all the windows of the building. Cashier Branson fired five shots at the guards from the mouth of an alley opposite the bank and was then driven away by bullets from the robbers' revolvers. There is no trace of blood where the guards stood, and it is not believed that any of them were hit.

HULL, IA., Oct. 24.—Burglars dynamited the safe in the J. C. Vickers jewelry store last night, and got $1,500 worth of jewelry. An attempt to rob the Iowa State bank failed, because the vault could not be penetrated.

EXPECTS HARD TIMES IN JAPAN IN A FEW YEARS

Secretary Taft Says Island Empire Will Suffer Depression. China Already Opening Up.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The feeling of the Japanese toward western beliefs and customs has not been changed as a result of the recent war with Russia, but it still tends toward western beliefs and civilization. This opinion was expressed by Secretary of War Taft, who has recently returned from an official tour of the orient, in an interview which will appear in the next issue of "The Churchman."

The secretary says that, as a result of the war just concluded the immediate economic outlook is one of high prices, lots of work and apparent prosperity. He believes that the present era of prosperity may be followed after some years by the same sort of depression the United States had after war. In view of the industrious inclinations of the Japanese, however, he looks for them to meet their obligations with comparative ease.

Aside from the fact that America will benefit from continued peace in the orient he cannot see that this country will be affected in any way by the new Anglo-Japanese treaty. Nor does he fear that the Japanese look toward the Philippines with any desire to acquisition. He is sure, he says, that all the Japanese desire is that America shall maintain or secure a strong and peaceable government there.

Speaking of the Chinese exclusion question the secretary says that in his opinion it is largely owing to this exclusion question that the Chinese are looking more to Japan than to European nations or America for the higher education in military instruction and in other things.

HARRIMAN REWARDS CREW.

Gives Proceeds of Two Thousand Dollar Wager to Men of Siberia for Breaking the Record.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—Two thousand dollars was awarded the crew of the Pacific Mail line Siberia, for bringing the vessel into port from Yokohama in record-breaking time.

E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate who was a passenger on the ship, was the donor. He won the money from Robert Goelet, the New York millionaire, on a wager regarding the time that the steamer would make from Yokohama to this port. Harriman bet the Siberia would break the recent record established by the Korea. He won by 37 minutes.

Charles Pherson was the star bowler of the evening, he having the high score of 241 and the fine average of 165 flat. Pherson has now the highest score of any player in his section. Williams also did some good work. For the Munhalls, Carney was the most consistent bowler. Scores:

The Allegheny Duckpin team challenge any duckpin team in the county for a series of five games for $25 a side, total pins to count. Address Wm. A. Smith, 418 Avery street, Allegheny.

Excelsior No. 1 has cancelled the game with Excelsior No. 2 for tonight.

The Munhall team desires a game with the McKeesport team on Thursday night. Call up the captain by telephone, Homestead alleys.

All bowling alleys managers and proprietors should not fail to have ring and scales on their premises as this is an important ruling of the A. B. C. Failure in this respect is likely to cause the home team to loose their games by forfeiture under this particular ruling.

W. U. P. TEAM SCORED AT A MASS MEETING

Dr. Ingram Upbraided Players for Violating Training Rules. Roast to the Rooters.

The W. U. P. football team, as a whole, was scored soundly yesterday afternoon at a mass meeting at the Medical school, which was presided over by Dr. Ingram, chairman of the athletic committee. Dr. Ingram upbraided the team for violating training rules, and then he took a turn at the rooters whom he branded as a boisterously noisy crowd, because they acted so much unlike other college student bodies at football games.

The student body was disappointed at the showing of the team at Cornell, particularly in the second half, when Cornell made such large gains. Dr. Ingram thought a team that spent a couple of weeks training at Conneaut Lake before the season opened and then had the benefits of daily scrimmage practice should be in good trim.

Dr. Ingram said certain players on the varsity eleven persist in smoking during the season. Ingram told the rooters to get new songs and to cheer the team at the close of the game, as is the practice at other big colleges.

Appear at Horse Show in Common, Everyday Clothes and Society Talks.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Reginald Vanderbilt and Mrs. Vanderbilt have created more of a surprise than even the most sanguine horse show faddist could have anticipated. By appearing on the opening evening in a gray sack coat, instead of the proverbial "full dress," Mr. Vanderbilt has opened the eyes of society to the real purpose of the show—and society has agreed that "Reggie" is right. Henceforth there will be less stiffness, less of formality and more general attention to what is going on in the tanbark ring.

The show has settled down to a battle royal for supremacy between the east and the west. The results of the first brushes also bring into prominence the contest between the Jordan and Vanderbilt stables. Mr. Vanderbilt is more than delighted with his triumphs so far, which means that to him, to his drivers, to the horse show officials, and to the attaches of the coliseum down to the meanest hostler, than is appreciated by the box holders and the lights of the promenade. His winning the Rector trophy with Fancy from Lawrence Jones' Guy Fortune, a $10,000 trotting horse, McKinley, with Tiger Lily, together with his great showing with Dr. Selwonk against the finest of the Jordan stables, Hildred, have given him hopes of coming out the end of the week with a goodly number of the blue ribbons.

The Vanderbilts are looking for their greatest victory Saturday night, when the big championship for harness horses is run off.

On the opening day, Monday, W. D. Henry, proprietor of the Irvington Farm, Sewickley, was third with Bally Prince in the most important class of the day, the one for the best harness horse, any size or sex. First price, $1,000, was won by E. D. Jordan's Hildred; the second prize, $200, to Reginald Vanderbilt's Dr. Selwonk. As third prize Mr. Henry was awarded $100.

Miss Katherine Elkins, daughter of United States Senator S. B. Elkins, won a splendid victory with her Cygnet in the class for qualified hunters, up to carrying 165 pounds to hounds. Miss Elkins won over E. H. Weatherbee's San Toy and Charles Pfizer's Torchlight.

EAST HIGH COMING.

Ohio School Champions to Play Shadyside Academy Saturday.

Coach Fogg of the East High school team of Cleveland will bring to Pittsburgh next Saturday to play Shadyside, one of the strongest school teams in the middle west. The fact that their goal line has not been crossed this season speaks well of their defense, their offensive game is fast and varied, and they are conceded to have the fastest string of backs in western scholastic circles. Roberson, the colored full back, is a sprinter and hurdler of the star variety, while his running mates, Steverding and Ryan, are not far behind. East High is practically a veteran team, as this makes the third year for six of their players, two others have had one year on the team, and three are new players. Cunnea, the 115-pound quarterback, Malm and Gregory are the new men. With the possible exception of the game with Kiski on election day this game will be the hardest on Shadyside's schedule. Owing to the fact that both Friendship and Exposition fields are being used this game will be played on the Shadyside field. East High defeated Central Saturday 17 to 0, clinching the Ohio championship. The lineup and weight will be as follows:

East High.			Shadyside.
Mason (capt.),	152	R. E.	Blake, 150
Malm,	168	R. T.	Uptegraff, 168
Workman,	180	R. G.	Hays, 183
Gregory,	161	C.	McCutcheon, 152
Seigrist,	162	L. G.	Herron, 147
Emerson,	168	L. T.	Martin, 171
White,	137	L. E.	Lally, 127
Cunhea,	115	Q. B.	Babst, 123
Steverding,	153	L. H.	Goff, 138
Ryan,	148	R. H.	Wharton, 121
Robertson,	145	F. B.	McCoy, 178

Total weight—East High school, 1,675; Shadyside, 1,638. Average—East High school, 152; Shadyside, 152.

LING MOFFETT RUNS WHOLE FIELD FOR A TOUCHDOWN

INDIANA, PA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—The Indiana Normal team again demonstrated its ability to defeat a heavier team by snowing Reynoldsville under today 23 to 6. The features were the tackling of Stevenson, Kennedy, O'Leary and Gobreon, and a beautiful run, the entire length of the field by Moffett for a touchdown.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS MATCH IS ARRANGED

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—The international chess match between players representing this country and the United States were definitely decided upon by the committee of the Berlin Chess club last night. The two days chosen are November 11 and 12.

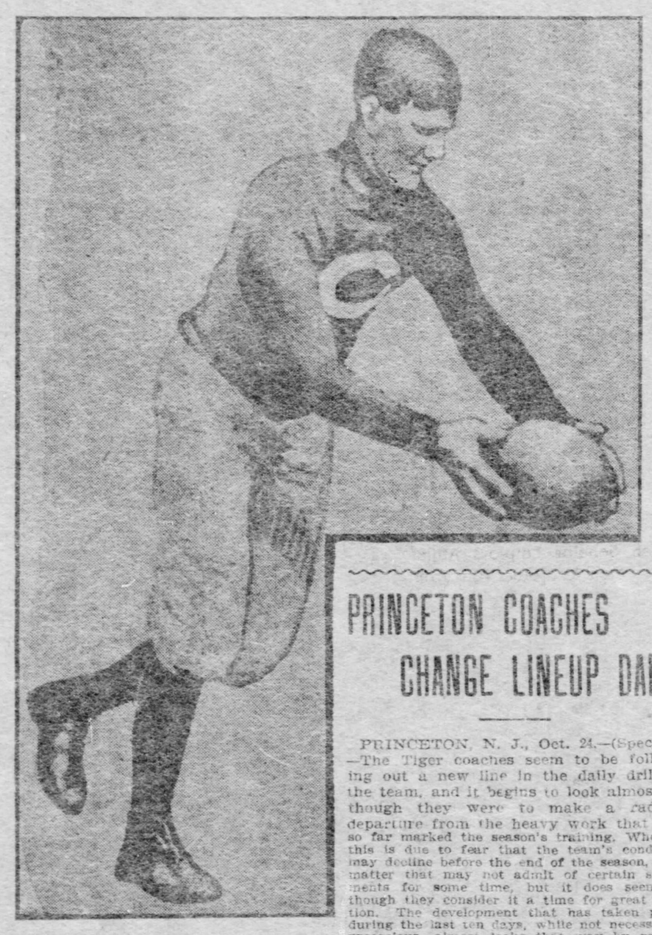
West Point.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Since the game with Harvard the coaches have allowed the men no hard scrimmages, the only work being thoroughly drilling them on the signals and the running through of formations. Tomorrow a hard practice game will be played with the scrubs, and by their showing against the second-raters it will be seen whether they continue the form they showed at Harvard. All the men that were injured in last Saturday's game are out, with the exception of Quarterback Garry, who still lingers in the hospital nursing his sprained ankle.

Pilgrims Beat U. of P.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—The Pilgrims, Sir Charles Kirkpatrick's English association football team, today defeated the Association team of the University of Pennsylvania on Franklin field by the score of 10 to 0. The clever manner in which the Englishmen butted the ball was one of the features of the game. Pennsylvania was at no time dangerous. Today's game marked the Pilgrims' last appearance here.

MARC CATLIN, CAPTAIN OF THE CHICAGO TEAM



HUNT IS PRESIDENT; OVEREND VICE PRESIDENT

Carnegie Technical School Elects Class Officers—Other College and School News.

The election of class officers of 1908 at the Carnegie Tech school yesterday resulted as follows: Hunt, president; Clarence Overend, vice president; Foster, secretary; Parsons, treasurer. It was decided to raise money toward aiding athletics.

The Allegheny Preparatory school will play the Sewickley High school team today at Sewickley. Fife and Worcester of the preps are out of the game for the rest of the season. Coach Merritt has shifted Ed Murphy from end to right half, Hagan from quarter to left half, Tustin from left half to fullback and Applegate from end to quarter. The line-up today will be: Right end, Humphries; right tackle, Shilling; right guard, Minke; center, Hendrick; left guard, Sella; left tackle, Ed Murphy; left end, Gilg; fullback, Applegate; right half, Em. Murphy; left half, Hagan; fullback, Tustin (captain).

Ches. Babst, the Shadyside quarterback, is rapidly rounding into shape again. He will be in the championship game with Kiski election day.

Latrobe friends of Roy Abbattachio, the Georgetown halfback, will turn out in force to see him play against W. & J. at Friendship park Saturday.

N. W. Niles, '03, of Boston, won the Harvard lawn tennis championship by defeating F. J. Sulloway of Franklin Falls, N. H., in straight sets, 6-1, 6-3, 6-0. Niles is the national interscholastic champion. Champions of Harvard for the last six years follow: 1899, Beals C. Wright, the present national titleholder; 1900, W. J. Clothier, a member of the American team that recently visited England; 1901, Edward W. Leonard; 1902, G. W. Lyons; 1903, Bernon S. Prentice; 1904, F. W. Cole.

Lew McAllister will be baseball coach for Michigan again next spring. McAllister made the Wolverines champions last year.

Fred Crollius, coach of the Villa Nova eleven, who captained the Norwick team, leads the batsmen of the Connecticut league with a mark of .347, according to the league averages announced by Secretary Jim O'Rourke.

"Eva" Turner, the ex-Dartmouth tackle, who is coaching Michigan's all freshman team, went to Madison Saturday to get a line on Wisconsin and Chicago for the benefit of Coach Yost. When seen about the playing of the Badgers and the Maroons he said: "It was a great game. I think Wisconsin outplayed Chicago for at least two-thirds of the game, and it looks to me as if Wisconsin will give Michigan a harder argument than Chicago will. The Wisconsin team has a stronger line than Chicago, while Stagg has built up his team about Eckersall. This man is a great player. There is no denying that. He punts and runs in great shape, but Wisconsin's ends were foolishly sucked in on several of his runs. Michigan must look out for Eckersall when the two teams meet on Thanksgiving day."

Owing to the condition of Cook, the big left tackle, who will not be able to play until the Princeton game at least, Coach Warner of Cornell is now trying to develop Dann, who is equally husky, into a substitute for that position. Oderkirk, who showed up well in Saturday's game, will play left tackle regularly until Cook returns, but another "sub" will be needed in case he is injured.

HARRY TAYLOR CHOSEN.

President Powers Succeeded in Eastern League by Buffalo Lawyer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—(Special.)—P. T. Powers, at a meeting of the executive committee of the Eastern Baseball league at the Imperial hotel this afternoon, resigned from the presidency of the Eastern League Baseball association. Harry L. Taylor of Buffalo, manager of the Buffalo team, was elected to the vacancy. The following board of directors was elected: G. T. Chapin of Rochester; Walter Burnham of Newark; John Crellner of Montreal, and Howard Griffin of Jersey City.

Patrick T. Powers, who has resigned the presidency of the Eastern Baseball league, has for the last eight years been the mainstay of the most important minor baseball association in the United States. For seven years in succession Mr. Powers virtually held the Eastern league together at times when the withdrawal of members threatened ruin.

Mr. Powers has been so closely identified with the Eastern league that without him it will look to baseball men and baseball enthusiasts like a ship without a rudder.

In making that statement it may be added that the Eastern league, in choosing Harry L. Taylor as president, has selected a man who is as near the caliber of the man resigning as could be found in baseball. Taylor began as a player in a minor league, subsequently went to Louisville. He went from there to another club, and after tiring of the active work in the field, assumed the practice of law in Buffalo. He is a graduate of Cornell university, a man well liked not only in the minor leagues but in the major leagues, and an executive who will be found well qualified to direct the affairs of the greatest of the minor leagues in baseball.

Hart to Fight Kauffman.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 24.—Marvin Hart, the champion heavyweight pugilist, today accepted the offer of the Colma club, of San Francisco, for a match with Al Kaufman. The club's offer, made through Billy Roche, calls for an unlimited round fight for a purse of $10,000. The offer is contingent on Kauffman winning over Jack O'Brien in San Francisco.

PRINCETON COACHES CHANGE LINEUP DAILY

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—The Tiger coaches seem to be following out a new line in the daily drill of the team, and it begins to look almost as though they were to make a radical departure from the heavy work that has so far marked the season's training. Whether this is due to fear that the team's condition may decline before the end of the season, is a matter that may not admit of certain statements for some time, but it does seem as though they consider it a time for great caution. The development that has taken place during the last ten days, while not necessarily precocious, almost looks that way by reason of its suddenness. Even to those who had been watching the daily playing of the team, the signs on Saturday which told that the eleven had at last found itself, came more or less as a sharp surprise, and now it is realized that the Yale game is still an ominous distance off, and that slow development is imperative.

Aside from the unusually long preliminary work at kicking and developing the interference today the first half of the scrimmage was given up entirely to a kicking game. Speed rather than the heavy grind of mass play seems now to be the demand and the whole game is opening out marvelously. A short second half was given to the ordinary line backing, but even here it was freely interspersed with kicks and end runs came in continually.

Some pretty good runs were made by Dillon and Tenney, who played quarter for the varsity, and scrub respectively. The interference needs doctoring. It failed today on what was certainly anything but accurate tackling. In running back kicks the ball rolled around on a good deal of fumbling, and while this resulted often times in clever recoveries and plays that were exciting for their uncertainty, it was not football. The varsity proved strong on the mass playing and went down the field consistently, though they were checked at times by a good scrub defense.

W. U. P.

With the exception of Art Griggs, Schmidt, Zieg and Rice, the full W. U. P. squad of 31 men was engaged in hard practice yesterday afternoon. After an hour of signal drill the coach ordered the scrubs in against the varsity for a half-hour's scrimmage work. The understudies put up a fast and clever exhibition and kept the regulars busy to prevent a score. Turner has been shifted from tackle to center, with Leidenroth and Yielding at guards. The new combination seemed to work well, and with Thompson, Mehl and Klawuhn in the back field the varsity plunged through the scrub line and around the ends for big gains. Swenson was again working at quarterback, and ran off the plays smoothly and rapidly. The effective defensive work of Marshall and Frye against the varsity was a feature. A promising addition of the squad yesterday came in the person of McKinney, a husky 226-pounder, who will be tried in the line.

Westminster.

NEW WILMINGTON, PA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—The Westminster college football team practiced this afternoon, all the regulars except Everhart and Orr being in the lineup. Orr is laid up with a severely bruised muscle, but will likely be in the game Saturday with Grove City at New Castle. Hard work will be the order of the week's practice, in preparation for this game. In punting practice this afternoon Capt. Locke punted 55 and 60 yards. Several new formations which will be tried against Grove City, will be thoroughly practiced in the secret practice the last of the week when a new code of signals will be used.

Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Another move to strengthen the Harvard varsity line was made this afternoon in secret practice. Dan Knowlton, the veteran tackle of 1901-'02 and '03, was shifted from full back and placed at his old berth on the right side of the line. It was thought for a while that Knowlton might make good at full back, but he was a trifle slow on the end runs and did not afford his runner much interference. At tackle today Knowlton had little difficulty in handling his opponents, and indicated that he had lost none of the old-time aggressiveness which earned him a position on the "All-American" team of 1903. Coach Reid is still worrying over his inability to pick a good man for full back. He has tried many, but his assistant coaches are not satisfied, and it is up to Reid to get somebody landed there. Hanley, the fastest big man ever seen in the back field at Harvard, has been purposely slighted by Reid's assistants, and there are rumors afloat in Cambridge now that Hanley will leave the squad for good, if he is not given a square deal. It is a well-established fact that the back field coaches and Hanley have not got along well together during the past two years, and Harvard is suffering this year on account of this friction.

Yale.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Lack of weight is the diagnosis which the coaches make of the weakness shown in the center of the Yale line. From the start of the season they have not been theoretically satisfied that Flanders was the right man for center rush. He is too tall for his pounds, but his speed and his activity have been in his favor. Today Gilles was tried for a time at center after Flanders retired. Hockenberger was put in Erwin's place at left guard, as forecasted yesterday. The former weighs about 20 pounds more than Erwin. With these shifts in the center and with Cates and Shevlin as the most likely pair of ends, the varsity was given the ball and ordered to score. They did so in short order. After that the ball was given to the scrubs on the varsity 10-yard line and the rules on downs were disregarded. It took the scrubs many rushes, treble the number they would have under the rules, to push the ball over for a touchdown. This test of the offense satisfied the coaches, who then gave heed to Trainer Mack's call for "time for the players."

Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—The Cornell football men were given a stirring lecture by Coach Warner on the slugging question this afternoon and were warned that any repetition of the fistic exhibition of Saturday when Center Hodge was ruled off the field in the game with the Western University of Pennsylvania would be punished by immediate expulsion from the squad.

Early in the season Warner warned his men against the use of their fists, and since President Roosevelt took up the big stick for cleaner football he has been more particular about their conduct.

Hodge was relieved of some of the sting of Saturday's performance as he was not the aggressor in the encounter, still he was severely reprimanded for losing his head.

The practice this afternoon consisted of a severe scrimmage between the varsity subs and a team of the best scrubs that could be found.

The latter put up a stiff game and held the others down to two touchdowns, still the substitutes proved that they were deserving of being picked for the second chance on the regulars.

WESTERN COLLEGE MEN DISAPPROVE OF FOOTBALL COACHES

DE PAUW "PROF." AGAINST COACHES

Says Football Instructors Must Go Before Existing Evils Are Eradicated.

FAVORS STUDENT CONTROL

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

OLIVET, MICH., Oct. 24.—A discussion of college athletics and the other diversions of student life and their relation to scholarship was the feature of the first session of the college conference which today precedes the inauguration tomorrow of President Ellsworth Gage Lancaster of Olivet college.

"The professional coach must go," declared Prof. W. D. Seaman of DePauw university, who opened the discussion. "That is the only cure for the evils from which college athletics are now suffering. The teams should be the guests of the institutions they visit, without such displays of hostilities and unfair rooting as we generally see. I am convinced that football at present makes high scholarship impossible."

President Joseph W. Mauch of Hillsdale college also opposed coaches. "Physical training and the work of the physical director of the student body," he said, "must be placed ahead of that of the coach. The evasion of the rules of the game appears to be the main instruction the coach gives his men."

Discussing a remedy for the present conditions President Mauch said: "I believe that if the faculties would withdraw from the control of athletics and allow the students to govern themselves we would get a higher moral standard in college sport."

President A. T. Perry of Marietta College made a plea for the young athlete who needs financial help in college.

JONES, YALE'S LIKELY BIDDER FOR QUARTER

JOE WALCOTT TO MEET WILLIE LEWIS AT DETROIT

Battling Nelson Will Rest for Six Months—Doings of the Local Boxers.

Joe Walcott will try to come back in the boxing game Saturday at Detroit when he meets Willie Lewis. While in Boston last week Billy Pierce told Jimmy Mason that Walcott was all in, and could not fight any more. If this is the case Lewis will beat the one time "Demon" of the ring.

Battling Nelson has declared that he will not fight any one for at least six months, as he will be busy on the stage. The Dane is doing exactly what he roasted Jimmy Britt for doing when the latter refused to fight him right after their first fight. Young Corbett was about the best of all the fighters for not taking advantage of his winning over Terry McGovern and refusing to fight any hard ones, Corbett fought all the hard boys as fast as they asked for the chance, and this was one reason that he is not still the champion.

Paul Moore, the local fighter, will start to train next week for a busy season that his manager has in view. Moore was one of the best-liked boxers that appeared here last winter and his record of sixteen knock-outs has not been equalled for a long time.

Joe Alton, the local 122-pounder, will again enter the ring in a few weeks. The Marlboro Athletic club of Malboro, Mass., wants him to come there and meet a boxer known as Young Donuhue of Boston.

Young Corbett fights Young Erne tonight at Philadelphia, and the outcome may show if Terry McGovern will take him on. Corbett has been training under the care of Harry Tuthill, who trained the New York baseball team all summer, and he says that Corbett is in good condition.

Kid Tyler said last night he is willing to meet Hanlon, "The Fighting Marine" at any time and at any place. Tyler fights at 122, but would fight him at 126 pounds.

LYCEUM TO SECURE NEW QUARTERBACK

The Lyceum eleven went through some hard practice last night. The Pittsburgh college grounds were too sloppy for outdoor work, and the work was superintended at the Lyceum in Washington street by Coach Bird. A new man will be seen in the Lyceum eleven at its next game. He will play quarterback. Although the name of the new player has not been officially announced, he is believed to be Musselman, who once played quarter for Lehigh. Musselman is now employed in Pittsburgh, and is a friend of Dick Trump, who is playing an end position with Lyceum. Practice will be held at the Pittsburgh College grounds Thursday evening, and it is expected that the new man will put in an appearance then.

MRS. SMITH IS OLD YET STILL ACTIVE

Homestead Woman, Almost a Nonagenarian, Yet Prominent in Christian Church Work.

To see a woman, who lacks but 11 years of being a centenarian, active in church work and vigorously going about the ordinary avocations of life is a rare sight, but Mrs. Margaret Smith of Homestead can often be seen stepping upon street cars and coming to Pittsburgh for shopping purposes or attending to minor household duties. Mrs. Smith lives with her son-in-law and daughter, Mrs. and Mrs. Samuel Hall, in Fifth avenue, Homestead. Mrs. Smith will be 89 years old on February 19.

Mrs. Smith is an active member of the Homestead Christian church, and she is much interested in the Sunday school rally at the church. Last night, despite the disagreeable weather, she attended the church services. Mrs. Smith came to Homestead in 1881, leaving her home near the No. 4 coal works after her youngest son was killed at the coal tipple there. The coal works is but two miles above Turtle Creek. Mrs. Smith is now living within 12 miles of the farm on the Turtle Creek valley on which she and her mother were born. Her maternal grandfather bought a squatter's claim of 400 acres of land for a hundred weight of flour and a saddle and then patented the land from the commonwealth. A nephew of Mrs. Smith still owns 200 acres of the old farm. It was on this farm that Mrs. Smith was born, the farm of her grandfather, Clark, having been situated on the Greensburg pike, 18 miles from Pittsburgh. Mrs. Smith's mother died in 1825, her father in 1848. She herself was married in 1835 and her husband died in 1878. When Mrs. Smith's mother died she left two children, of which Mrs. Smith is the survivor; her father married again and had 10 children, of whom two survive, and Mrs. Smith still visits them occasionally. They are Mrs. Doherty and Jessie Clark, the latter living at Wall. Her father's second wife still lives on the old Clark farm on the Greensburg road.

Mrs. Smith has five children living, Mrs. Samuel Hall, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Hiram Hall, Mrs. Schmelzer and Isaac Smith. She has had but one picture taken, and that was seven years ago.

HIGHWAYMAN CONFESSES.

Charles Fairman Admits That He Held Up and Robbed Frank Gomiski.

Charles Fairman was committed to jail last night, on a charge of highway robbery, by Justice W. L. McConnell of Heidelberg, on information made by Frank Gomiski in behalf of his son, who alleges that on last Saturday Fairman took $62 from him. Gomiski is a teamster and has six teams at work on some grading at Brookline. Gomiski's son last Saturday received $62 from the contractor in payment for his father's teams.

While on his way home Fairman stopped him on the roadway and demanded the money. Fairman started to draw a revolver and young Gomiski turned the money over to him. When arrested Fairman confessed to the robbery and said he had spent the money in having a good time.

ASSAULT THE WRONG MAN.

Mistaking Avengers for Highwaymen He Shoots and Fatally Wounds One of Them.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 24.—Robert F. Malden, an expressman, died today, of injuries inflicted upon him by Michael Reddington, an 18-year-old boy.

Late last night, when Malden's two sons were told their father could not live, they started out to find Reddington. By mistake the sons attacked George Binlein, who was returning from the bedside of his dying wife. Binlein, believing that he was being assaulted by highwaymen, drew a revolver and fatally wounded Wiley Malden, one of his assailants.

Mike Seokodi of McKeesport, has made a demand for $1,000 on the officials of the National Tube Company for the death of his brother Alex, who was drowned last week in the Monongahela river. The man was not employed by the tube company, but his brother holds the company responsible on account of some obstructions in the river which were said to be responsible for the drowning.

REPUBLICANS OF SPAIN ISSUE A MANIFESTO

Being Forbidden to Welcome President Loubet, They Denounce Monarchy.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

MADRID, Oct. 24.—The senators and deputies favorable to the establishment of a Spanish republic having been forbidden to personally address President Loubet, who arrived here yesterday, to return the visit of King Alfonso to Paris, have published an address of welcome which is a manifesto in favor of a republican form of government. It says:

"The Republicans of Spain greet the ruler who is the free choice of the people he represents. The adoption by France of a Republican regime has carried the spirit of republicanism throughout the world. The visit of the Republican president to Spain recalls the bloody struggles which the Spanish Liberals made against the traditions. Republican France represents the freedom gained by revolution and it is toward the same end that Spain tends."

The address closes with "Vive la republique."

M. Loubet this morning attended a brilliant military review and this evening gave a banquet to King Alfonso at the French embassy. A bull fight, which had been arranged in honor of the president, did not take place owing to rain.

ENDS COUNTY SEAT WAR.

Rival South Dakota Towns Have Their Dispute Settled by Supreme Court.

PIERRE, S. D., Oct. 24.—The state supreme court today decided that the county seat of Walworth county should be at Bangor. This ends a somewhat famous county seat war in which the citizens came to an open rupture over the location of a county court house.

Both towns claimed the honor and after a vote was taken, it was found that the Selbyites were defeated. The citizens of that town, however, went to Bangor one night, tore down the old county building and carted the records off to Selby. The circuit court decided in favor of Bangor, and this decision is affirmed today by the state supreme court.

NEGRO IS VERY HUNGRY AND STEALS COSTLY FURS

Story Is Borne Out by Check for Meal He Eats at Detective's Expense.

Joseph Smith, a negro, who was arrested yesterday by Detectives Eagan and Cole for stealing furs and clothing from Joseph Berkman at 1026 Fifth avenue, said he was compelled to steal or starve to death. Smith told the officers he received $8 a week, $2 of which he was compelled to pay for his room, and some days he had but a bowl of soup to eat.

Smith is 44 years old, and when arrested was trying to sell furs in Colwell street. He had 12 pieces of fur in a pillow case. At his room were found two light suits of clothing, two dress suits, some women's skirts and two light coats.

The detectives believe the negro is telling the truth, for when he was arrested he asked them to get him something to eat. He was taken to a negro restaurant, and when Smith finished his meal Detective Eagan was presented with a check for $1.20.

LIFE SAVERS OUT ALL NIGHT.

Fake Message Causes Erie Crew to Spend Seventeen Hours on the Lake.

ERIE, PA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Excitement prevailed here today for several hours when it became known that Captain Jansen and his life-saving crew of eight men had been out on the lake since 11 o'clock last evening. They went out in response to a message, which stated a vessel was sinking near Northeast. It was ascertained no vessel had been in distress near Northeast, and the fear was expressed that the men had been lost.

They returned late this afternoon, having been out 17 hours, with no sleep and nothing to eat. The men were completely exhausted from their hard work as they were unable to use the sails on the boat. An effort is being made by Captain Jansen to ascertain who sent the message, and steps will be taken to prosecute the sender.

SUDDEN DEATH ENDS LIFE THAT KNEW MUCH SORROW

He had lived in Braddock for 25 years. The last year his life was filled with misfortune. On February 26 his wife died, leaving an only child, eight weeks old. A few weeks later the child died. Later in the spring Jackson became ill with typhoid fever and lay in a Pittsburgh hospital the greater part of the summer.

Craig-Succop.

It was an exceedingly pretty wedding which took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Craig in Rebecca street, when their daughter, Miss Ethel Craig, became the wife of Charles H. E. Succop. The bridegroom's sister, Miss Ione Succop, was the maid of honor, and Sam Craig, a Cornell senior, came home from college to serve as best man. The Rev. Dr. Daniel Dorchester, Jr., pastor of Christ Methodist Episcopal church, performed the ceremony at 6 o'clock, the bride wearing an exquisitely dainty lace white robe with a tulle veil. Her flowers were lilies of the valley in shower effect. Miss Succop, in lavender chiffon and lace, carried a sheaf of lavender orchids. The decorations of the house were especially dainty, lavender and white being the colors carried out. The mantel and fireplace in the drawing room served as a background for the bridal party. The mantel shelf was banked with masses of maidenhair fern and flanked at each side by tall standards of white chrysanthemums standing amid waving palms. A window box was filled with the white blossoms and over all the doors and windows was southern smilax. The library mantel was banked with maidenhair fern and at one end was a large cluster of white chrysanthemums, while the bridal table, placed in the dining room, was laid with covers for 18, and had a centerpiece of lavender and white chrysanthemums. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were W. A. Danner of Richmond, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Almer Hamilton of Md., of Baltimore. The wedding gifts were arranged in a room on the second floor and included beautiful pieces of silver, cut glass, bric-a-brac and furniture. Upon returning from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Succop will live in North Craig street until the completion of their own home, which was a wedding gift from Mr. Succop's father, Augustus Succop. They have announced days at home in North Craig street after December 15.

Miss Louise Dollaven Flynn and James Sylvester Borland were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Flynn, in Park View avenue, Allegheny, by the Rev. Dr. W. Blodgett, pastor of the North Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, performed the ceremony at 7 o'clock, the bridal party including Miss Beatrice Curtin, as maid of honor; Miss Harriet Newell, a cousin of the bride, as flower girl; E. Wallace Leonard, as best man, and Master John Borland, a nephew of the bridegroom, as ringbearer. The bride was gowned in white mousseline with French valenciennes lace trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Curtin appeared in white mousseline over pink and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses, while the flower girl, in white mousseline, had a basket filled with pink cosmos. Chrysanthemums carried out the wedding colors of pink and white in the decorations, the flowers being combined with maidenhair fern in the mantel bankings and also in the centerpiece on the bride's table. Asparagus sprengeri and maidenhair fern took the place of the usual smilax over the doors and windows. At the conclusion of their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Borland will be at home in Park View avenue, Allegheny, receiving their friends on days after November 14.

Henninger-Heuslein.

SS. Peter and Paul's Roman Catholic church was the scene of an interesting wedding yesterday afternoon, the bride being Miss Wilhelmine Henninger, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Henninger's daughter, and the bridegroom Andrew L. Heuslein. The Rev. Father Joseph Suhr solemnized the marriage at 5 o'clock, Miss Amelia Henninger acting as maid of honor for her sister, with Miss Margaret Henninger, another sister, as flower girl. The men in the party were William Enright, Frank Schaub, David Brown, William Kreuer and Edward Spuhler. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of white roses showered with lilies of the valley. Her tulle veil was fastened with a spray of lilies of the valley and she had as her only ornament a diamond pendant. A gown of white net over blue silk was worn by the maid of honor, who carried white chrysanthemums, while the flower girl, attired in a frock of similar material, carried a basket of white roses. The church ceremony was followed by a reception in Braun's auditorium, South Highland avenue, after which the couple left for an eastern wedding tour. They will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Henninger in Whittier street, East End, until their own home in Dunlap street, Allegheny, is ready for occupancy.

The couple were unattended save by four little flower girls, Reva and Ruth Ague, sisters of the bride, and Martha and Eleanor Abercrombie, her cousins. They were dressed in white and carried baskets of white flowers. The bride wore a handsome gown of white batiste, trimmed in valenciennes, and carried white roses. After the reception the young couple departed for an eastern trip, at the conclusion of which they will be at home in Sheraden.

LAURA BIGGAR STILL FIGHTING

Appeal Involving Claim of New Jersey Lawyers is Argued in Supreme Court.

ARGUMENT OVER BIG VERDICT

The cases of Frank P. McDermott and Aaron E. Johnston, New Jersey lawyers, in both of which Laura Biggar Bennett is the appellant, reached the supreme court yesterday. Mrs. Bennett prepared the paper books herself and they were in proper shape, bearing her name instead of an attorney.

The appeals were from the finding of common pleas court No. 3 in refusing a petition and motion for a rule to open the judgment upon the appellants' note. In her history of the case the appellant stated that in December, 1902, she and Charles E. Hendrick and Samuel Stanton were indicted for perjury and conspiracy in Monmouth county, N. J. The court assigned Aaron E. Johnston and Frank P. McDermott to defend them. She signed an agreement to pay them $10,000 when she was able, to meet the expenses, their fees, etc. She was acquitted, but her co-defendants were convicted. In June, 1903, the attorneys called on her and represented that it was the last day to take an appeal to the supreme court, and that if the conviction of her co-defendants was not set aside she would suffer in the eyes of the public. They demanded a judgment note of $1,500 for each of them, threatening to abandon the case if these were not given to them, and promising to cancel the old agreement and take no proceedings upon the notes until the estate of H. M. Bennett was settled. She gave the notes under these conditions and was given an agreement in writing setting forth the terms under which the notes were given, but this agreement she says was lost. The Bennett estate is not yet settled and she is not able to pay the notes.

Justices Became Interested.

When the argument was called C. R. Carroll, an attorney of New York, appeared for Mrs. Bennett. The appearance of the paper books interested the justices. Justice Brown asked if it were true that Mrs. Bennett had appeared without an attorney in the lower court, and was told it was. When told that one of the co-defendants is a New Jersey lawyer, he said he thought there must have been a lawyer somewhere in the case, as the paper book was never prepared by a layman. Chief Justice Mitchell alluded to the prominence gained in an eastern case where a woman appeared as her own lawyer, and said that possibly the appellant thought she could do with the supreme court what the eastern lady did with the jury.

The argument for the appellant was that the judgment should have been opened so that she could have proved the facts averred by her. The law, it was said, always regards with suspicion judgments confessed by clients to their attorneys. They should be subjected to the closest scrutiny. It was alleged there was an utter absence of good faith and fair dealing in this instance. Considerable stress was laid on the fact that the attorneys were appointed by the court and had to serve. Their right to a fee was admitted, but the assertion was made that $1,500 was excessive. It was also argued that they had not kept faith, but had entered judgment on the notes when they had promised not to force payment, but to wait until the appellant could pay.

Thomas Patterson appeared for the appellee. Exception was taken to some of the appellant's statements in relation to the case on which the notes were given. In no place, it was pointed out, does the petition say the services rendered by the attorneys were not worth the amount of the notes. They secured the acquittal of the appellant and took the cases of her co-defendants to a higher court and secured a reversal. The appellant does not say that the amount charged was excessive, and if the judgment was opened what issue would there be to try?

Echo of an Explosion.

The explosion at the Singer-Minick steel plant in the West End on December 21, 1901, was the underlying cause in the case of Anna Z. Brown vs. the Crucible Steel Company, appellant. John P. Brown, the husband of the appellee was one of the victims, brought suit for damages, was given a verdict for $25,000, the testimony showing that Brown, who was a boss roller under contract, made from $5,000 to $6,000 a year. A peculiarity of the case was that of the three judges in the court two were stockholders in the Crucible Steel Company, and could not sit in the matter. The case was absolutely in the hands of Judge S. A. McClung. He had tried these facts three times, felt perfectly satisfied with his decision, and it was a waste of time to ask him to renew it. As a consequence a new trial was not asked for, but judgment was entered and an appeal was taken. The questions raised by the appellant relate to the evidence admitted, the matter of measuring damages in profits arising under a contract, and negligence.

Another case in which the Crucible was the appellant was that of George McKee. The latter was given $4,200 by a jury for damages received in the Anderson-Depuy plant at McKees Rocks. The appeal is based on allegations of contributory negligence.

The case of M. K. McMullin & Co. vs. William Reed, appellant, was based on stock transactions. Reid lived in Detroit, Mich., and had had dealings with M. K. McMullin, prior to the formation of the firm of McMullin & Co. The firm entered suit on an account stated, and was awarded $68,155 55 by a jury. Reid in his appeal raises several questions as to what constitutes the "account stated," and also claims that any indebtedness was with McMullin alone.

Trouble Over Railroad Crossing.

A license to cross a railroad track is involved in the case of the Park Steel Company vs. the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company, appellant. In 1880 Park Bros. & Co., the predecessors of the Park Steel Company, were given oral permission by the president of the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company to build a "jump" crossing over the railroad tracks at Thirty-first street. In 1900 the railroad attempted to revoke the license. There was litigation until December 12, 1904, when common pleas court No. 2 issued an injunction restraining the railroad company from interfering with the steel company's tracks. This appeal is the next step in the proceedings.

Other cases argued were: Frank McNeil, appellant, vs. the Clairton Steel Company; Patrick Gordon vs. the Pennsylvania railroad, appellant; M. E. Spangler, appellant, vs. the B. & O. railroad. All are personal damage cases, in the latter death ensuing.

Judgments non pros. were entered in the cases of Coleman, appellant, vs. Brown; Parke et al vs. Shawey et al, appellant; appeal of McIntyre et al.; Bowles vs. Adler, appellant.

The list for today is as follows: Mulvaney, appellant, vs. Pittsburgh Railways Company, in reargding of Tioga street; Dougherty vs. Pittsburgh Railways Company; Armstrong vs. McCutcheon et al, McCutcheon's appeal; Morris vs. same; Buel, Jr., appellant, vs. Bergman; Reed vs. borough of Tarentum, appellant; Sheehan et al use, vs. city of Pittsburgh; Nicolette Lumber Company, appellant, vs. Peoples Coal Company; Hines, appellant vs. city of Pittsburgh; petition of McGunnegal; appeal of Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad; Roth vs. Reiter, appellant; Hanforth et al, in right, vs. Tarentum Traction Passenger Railway Company, appellant; McElroy et al, vs. Harnack et al, appeal of Harnack and Gartner; in re complaint of Pennsylvania railroad; in re estate of Kountz, deceased, appeal of Mills, Fitch, Kountz and Backus; same, appeal of Fidelity Title & Trust Company, trustee.

Two Opinions by Judge Smith.

Two opinions written by Judge Smith of the superior court were received yesterday by Protonotary George Pearson. In the case of the Globe Mutual Building & Loan association of Pittsburgh against Johanna Schutte, the lower court is affirmed and judgment awarded for the association for $1,047 90. On June 6, 1891, Henry Schutte borrowed $1,800 for which he gave security in the usual way after paying $80 in dues, etc. He surrendered his original nine shares and took eight new shares, a bond and mortgage given previously to remain as security for $1,000 yet owing. He paid dues on this until July 20, 1900. When, after his death, in August, 1901, the Safe Deposit & Trust Company was appointed receiver for the association, as indebtedness was claimed against his estate. The receiver got judgment and the administratrix, Johanna Schutte, appealed.

The other opinion related to the case in which Lizzie Sailor was indicted on two counts in Butler county for assisting in a criminal operation. At the trial the first count was abandoned. Judge Smith finds, and the other, he declares, was defective, owing to a wrong date being inserted. He reverses the lower court and orders the defendant discharged. Judge Porter dissented and in an opinion holds the defendant was convicted on both counts.

INSURANCE MEN AGAIN INDICTED

Two More Bills Found Against Marshall and Dunbar for Alleged Embezzlement.

GRAND JURY FINISHES WORK

Twenty-eight true bills were found yesterday by the grand jury for the September term of court, which adjourned its sitting sine die. Two true bills, in addition to the half dozen previously found against them, were reported by the grand jury against Arthur G. Marshall and Frank Dunbar, the alleged insurance swindlers. The bills against Marshall and Dunbar charge them with the embezzlement of funds from the three insurance companies which they controlled.

Other true bills were found as follows: Forgery, E. C. Dickson (2) false pretense, Katherine E. Sherman, E. A. Marsh; felonious assault, Ernest Day (2), Robert Price; larceny, Thomas Bradnar, Nat Reed, Philip Mercer, C. R. Wilson, William Duffy, "Mike" Evan, Hattie Johnston, E. E. Byers, Bertha Ritenour, Susan Rodgers, Charles Stanway, William Wright, Ernest Day, Augustin Holley, Andrew Haysen; aggravated assault, Joseph Powell; assault and battery, Ruben Finkestein.

Richard Bulman, a policeman of Rankin borough, was acquitted on a charge of felonious assault and battery, before Judge Macfarlane. He was accused of striking John Bordis on the head with a mace and injuring him severely.

Judge Frazer, in the suit of Robert H. Cook against John C. Houck, J. J. McDonough and others, ordered the cancellation of an agreement of sale of real estate upon the records. Houck and McDonough were to sell the property and the court says because the agreement with the plaintiff did not specify any time during which the sale was to take place, it does not follow that the property could be tied up indefinitely. The court says the plaintiff revoked the agency of Houck and McDonough for cause and the agreement should be marked cancelled.

An affidavit of defense was filed in the suit of the Martin Brick Company against Lorenzo F. Yoder. The case is an action on a contract for terra cotta for the Hotel Yoder, in Forbes street, for a balance of $1,305. The defendant avers that the terra cotta furnished by the plaintiff was not according to specifications, but gave evidence of very bad and incomplete workmanship, being badly cracked and defaced. Defendant denies that he is indebted in the amount claimed, but says that the plaintiff is indebted to him for $720.

Catherine Coyne sued John Coyne for a divorce, alleging desertion.

A verdict by agreement was taken in the suit of Anna H. Kramer and others against the Charles Lockhart estate. The suit is an action in ejectment entered during 1890, and it has been undecided, waiting for the decision on a question affecting the case, by the supreme court. This question has now been decided and the verdict was taken for the defendants, the heirs of Mr. Lockhart having been substituted as defendants upon his death.

The divorce suit of Charles E. Erickson against Alma G. Erickson is on trial in common pleas court No. 2. Statutory grounds are alleged by the husband.

Clarence Raymond Levers petitioned the court to change his name to Clarence Raymond Dietrich. He says his father is dead and he does not know where his mother is now. He says his aunt, Mrs. Louis J. Dietrich, of Esplen, raised him from his early childhood.

A foreign attachment was issued against Stephen P. Kennedy by the commonwealth of Pennsylvania at the suggestion and to the use of N. M. Fuhrman. Laird S. Lang is named as garnishee and bail in $800 is demanded.

The Bank of Pittsburgh, National association, filed a suit against William M. Riser and A. B. Benney for $600. The case is an action on a note.

Executions issued: Mary A. Wetzel against Edward G. Roessler, et al $1,753.10; Elizabeth Francis against W. W. Francis, $359.70; George Barbier against Louis Goldman, $294; F. M. Reed & Co. against Oliver W. Reed, $450; M. L. Beistle against John R. Leech and Emma E. Leech, $426.54; D. R. McNaught against Mrs. Priscella Suttle and C. S. Suttle, $118.63.

Realty Sales in McKeesport.

Frank Becker of McKeesport sold to M. Oppenheimer of Pittsburgh 30 feet frontage in Market street, adjoining the Oppenheimer block at Market and Fifth avenues, McKeesport, which is occupied by the H. C. & J. K. Skelley Company, for $33,000 cash. Less than six months ago Mr. Becker sold a 38-foot frontage to A. Zimmerman for $32,580. John K. Shelley optioned the property said yesterday five years ago for $18,000. An agent for M. Oppenheimer stated yesterday that a new business block will be erected on the site next spring and connected to the present Oppenheimer block, making it one of the largest in the state.

BIGELOW AVOIDS EXPOSE IN COURT

Airing of Highland Reservoir Scandal is Postponed Until After November Election.

MANY EXCUSES ARE PRESENTED

The airing of the Highland reservoir scandal will not take place in court until after the election next month. A postponement of the case was secured yesterday by Assistant City Solicitor W. W. Smith until November 8, the day after the election. Mr. Smith strenuously objecting to the case being taken up this week or next week, or even the day before the election. He offered many excuses to the court asking for postponement, making a new excuse whenever the court overruled one. He first asked that the case be delayed because the city would not be ready for trial and the interests of the city would not be protected, although the case has been dragging in the courts for three years.

Judge Fraser said the judges would see that the interests of the city were protected and the case should take its place on the docket, as other cases. Then Judge Frazer suggested that the case go over until next week.

Mr. Smith then offered the excuse that Director Bigelow might not be in the city next week, to appear as a witness.

"Oh, he will be surely be around somewhere," mildly remarked Judge Frazer.

The attorneys for the plaintiff, the Jonathan Clark & Sons Company, and the Mercantile Trust Company, who have sued the city, were ready to begin the case at once, stating it would not require over an hour.

The court then suggested the case be heard on November 6, which is the day before the election, and to this the assistant city solicitor demurred. He continued to parley and expressed much satisfaction when the court finally set the hearing for Wednesday, November 8, the day after election.

The case is expected to expose some of the methods of the public works department in the construction of the reservoir, which Director Bigelow fears might lose the Citizens party some votes at the next election, and also expose the political acrobatic feats of Controller Larkin, who is to be another star witness in the case.

Director Bigelow was yesterday asked the reason for the postponement of the case, and his explanation did not agree with any of the ones offered to the court by Assistant Solicitor Smith. Mr. Bigelow said:

"The case has already been tried in the United States court, and we want to wait to see what the United States court does before we try it in the county court."

ARREST COLLEGE PRESIDENT.

The Charge of Embezzlement Is Placed Against a Resident of Huntington.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—W. A. Parr, president of Marshall college, of this city, was arrested here this afternoon and taken to Charleston where a charge of embezzlement has been placed against him by Mrs. Anna Calvert, widow of a wealthy steamboat man.

Mrs. Calvert alleges she and Parr were engaged and that she gave Parr $2,000 to invest for her in the business college. After securing the money Parr invested it in his own name and last Saturday married a young woman of this city. Hearing of the wedding the Charleston woman came to Huntington and swore out a warrant for his arrest.

FIRST IROQUOIS SUIT.

Victim of Theater Disaster Asks Damages for Injuries—Two Weeks Getting a Jury.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—The first damage suit against the proprietors of the Iroquois theater, which was burned December 30, 1903, will be commenced tomorrow in the United States circuit court before Judge Landis.

Edna S. Hunter, who was badly injured in the fire, has brought suit for $25,000 against the theater company and the George A. Fuller Construction Company, which erected the building. Two weeks have been occupied in securing a jury.

Lawyers to be Admitted.

Common pleas court No. 3 issued an order yesterday changing two rules relative to the admission of attorneys to practice in that court. Practically the changes provide that attorneys who have complied with the rules of the supreme court in relation to admission to the bar of that court, shall be admitted on certificate. The other courts are expected to indorse this action, making it unanimous in the county.

ONLY A SUGGESTION.

But It Has Proved of Interest and Value to Thousands.

Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump it can only result from the food we eat and digest and that food should be albuminous or flesh forming food, like eggs, beefsteak and cereals; in other words the kinds of food that make flesh are the foods which form the greater part of our daily bills of fare.

But the trouble is that while we eat enough and generally too much, the stomach, from abuse and overwork, does not properly digest and assimilate it which is the reason so many people remain thin and under weight; the digestive organs do not completely digest the food-forming beefsteak and eggs and similar wholesome food.

There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs.

If such persons would lay their prejudices aside and make a regular practice of taking, after each meal, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tablets contain the natural peptones and diastase which every weak stomach lacks, and by supplying this want the stomach is soon enabled to reach its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every form of flesh forming food, meat, eggs, bread and potatoes, and this is the reason they so quickly build up, strengthen and invigorate thin, dyspeptic men, women and children.

Invalids and children, even the most delicate, use them with marked benefit as they contain no strong, irritating drugs, no cathartic nor any harmful ingredient.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most successful and most widely known of any remedy for stomach troubles because it is the most reasonable and scientific of modern medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by every druggist in the United States and Canada as well as in Great Britain, at 50 cents for complete treatment.

Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble or to make thin, nervous, dyspeptic people strong, plump and well.

Your Nerves
It is your nerves that cause the heart to pulsate, the lungs to inhale the oxygen, the brain to direct the motion of every organ of the body, the stomach to digest food, the liver to secrete the bile, the kidneys to filter the blood, and the bowels to carry off the waste.
When the nerves of the stomach become weakened it results in stomach trouble, indigestion, constipation.
This is true of all the organs of the body, and proves that to cure disease you must strengthen the nerves.
Dr. Miles' Nervine will do it. It seldom fails to cure all nervous affections, Sleeplessness, Neuralgia, Headache, Backache, Epilepsy, Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles.
"I was all broken down, nervous, worn out, and in constant pain. I doctored for months, and finally the doctor said he could do nothing for me. I took Dr. Miles' Nervine, and it made me strong and healthy; now weigh 170 pounds."

OCKS WERE LESS ACTIVE AND PRICES CLOSED LOWER

Possibility of Gold Exports Given as a Cause for the Check to Speculation—Local Securities Extremely Dull But Steady.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market was less active yesterday, the sales being fully 200,000 shares smaller than on Monday. While the industrials continued prominent in the dealings, they did not dominate the market. With a few exceptions prices closed at small declines.

The chief cause assigned for the check to speculative activity was the possibility of good exports early next month. Sterling exchange has risen within a small fraction of the price at which gold can be exported at a profit, and the continued firmness of foreign money markets increases the liability to shipments of the metal. There is no mystery to the present unusual condition of the international money market. A large falling off in exports of cotton has occurred at a time when we usually look for a heavy movement which will turn the current of exchange in our direction. There has been an increase in exports of breadstuffs, but at the same time there has been a large increase in our imports of foreign merchandise, the shipments of one offsetting the other without calling for the exchange of gold in settlement of balances. At this time when merchandise exports and imports are more evenly balanced than usual at this season, there lies to the credit of Japan in the New York banks a large sum the proceeds of war loan subscriptions. The war credit, it is thought, is being withdrawn from New York to London, just as similar credits at Berlin have been withdrawn. On the top of all these factors is the pending loan by Russia, which calls for an easier money market abroad to insure its absolute success. It was announced in New York yesterday that an allotment of the Russian loan had been made on a basis (reduced to our money) of $120,000,000 to Paris, $70,000,000 to Berlin and $20,000,000 each to London and New York.

Call loan rates were slightly easier in New York, declining to 2½ per cent, a movement which would naturally facilitate gold exports. At the opening the stock market ignored the lower London quotations for American securities, and the advance of the day before continued. Under cover of the strength of a few specialties, however, there seemed to be profit-taking in other parts of the list, and prices receded rather sharply. In the afternoon there was a recovery to the high level of the day, but at the close prices with a few exceptions averaged lower.

The return of Mr. Harriman who is expectedly shortly in New York, increased the interest manifested in Union Pacific and Southern Pacific. The latter was strong on the theory that the long-expected dividend would be declared in the near future, and it closed only ⅛ below Monday. Union Pacific closed at a loss of ¾ per cent. Special weakness appeared in Rock Island, which declined from 32¾ to 30¾, but subsequently recovered to 32¼. The other granger stocks closed ½ to ¾ per cent lower.

The early strength of Norfolk & Western and Chesapeake & Ohio was based upon reports that at the meeting of directors today the dividends of both roads would be increased. Ontario & Western was also more active than usual of late and closed higher.

The strongest of the railroad list was Reading, which advanced to 125¼, and closed with a net gain of 1¼ per cent. Delaware & Hudson advanced to 232½, and closed with a net gain of 1¾ per cent. Pennsylvania closed ½ lower.

The largest net gains in the industrial list were 1 per cent for Pressed Steel Car and ¼ per cent for Smelting. United States Steel issues closed slightly lower, and Amalgamated Copper at a loss of ⅝ per cent.

The local stock market was extremely dull, the sales for the day footing up only 2,837 shares stock and $1,000 bond. On the exchange brokers gave more attention to the discussion of the Enterprise National bank affairs and the probable outcome, than to discussing the merits of securities. At the close there were as many securities unchanged as there were losses or gains. The largest decline was 5 in Westinghouse Electric, which sold down to 87½ on sales of 250 shares. The largest advance was ¼ per cent in United States Steel preferred. Luster Mining was heavy, declining to 34½ and closing offered at that price. The coal stocks were unchanged at 15½ for Pittsburgh common and 25 for River preferred. Crucible Steel common and preferred each closed ⅛ per cent lower. Fire Proofing preferred closed at 21, its previous low record. The remainder of the market was absolutely featureless.

FEATURES OF THE DAY

IN PITTSBURGH	IN WALL STREET
Bank exchanges increased $2,500,000 for the day.	Stock market less active, and prices averaged lower.
Stock market extremely dull and price changes insignificant.	Sales included 837,800 shares stock and $3,555,000 bonds.
Westinghouse Electric closed ⅝ lower at 87¾.	Reading and Delaware & Hudson scored the largest gains.
Lustre Mining heavy, declining to and closing at 34½.	Pressed Steel Car and Smelting closed higher.
Crucible issues closed ⅛ lower. Coal stocks unchanged.	Possibility of gold exports checked bull speculation.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Brokers were inclined to attribute the dullness in the local stock market yesterday to the developments in connection with the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny. Sales of stocks were less than 3,000 shares and only one $1,000 bond changed hands. The bank failure has had practically no effect so far upon local security values, but it is not strange that with the agitation fomented by partisan politics at the boiling point, traders should wait to see the possible effects upon the money market. Pittsburgh brokers are probably carrying a smaller line of purely local securities on margin than for years past; but if the current agitation should lead bankers to strengthen their position against unfounded "scares," there would be a calling of loans and a liquidation of margin stocks.

There were fewer quotations on bank and trust company shares of the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday than for some time past, and no stocks in this department changed hands. Bonds were also extremely dull, but prices were firm.

The only transactions in the natural gas group were confined to Manufacturers Light and Heat, which sold to the extent of 222 shares at 35⅞ to 36, closing unchanged. Philadelphia Company was steady, 400 shares selling at 48⅝.

Only 15 shares Crucible Steel preferred changed hands all day, but the stock held very firm at 67¾ bid. There was but one sale of the common, 100 shares going at 13½.

Reported curb sales included 5,000 shares Black Hills Copper at 30c, and 500 shares Sater Copper at 25c.

United States Steel sinking fund 5s sold at 99¼ yesterday. The 2½ per cent coupon comes off a week from today.

Sales of Japanese bonds on the New York exchange yesterday foot up $755,000 par value, or about a fourth of the total business in bonds.

Rock Island was the weakest of the railroads. The decline was due to the publication of an analysis of the annual report, which was unfavorable.

Liquidation on the part of some of the bull pools was induced by the fact that the public following was disappointing.

There were strong bull tips yesterday on American Woolen common and Southern Pacific.

The opinion is expressed in quarters that should have good information that an extra dividend of some kind will be distributed in the not remote future by the American Sugar Refining Company. It is known that the company's cash reserve has grown enormously in the last six or seven years and that the proportion to the company's capital is now probably larger than the Pullman company's. Its extensive investments in Cuba at the close of the war with Spain are estimated by expert observers to have increased in value from 200 to 400 per cent.

It is figured that 27 of the active copper stocks of the Boston stock exchange show an appreciation in market value of $102,000,000 from the lowest level of the year. Many of these stocks, however, are under the highest of the year, yet a range of from 1¾ to 84 points over the earlier low figures prevails. Amalgamated, with its 1,500,000 shares, shows the greatest market appreciation, $32,276,541, while the advance in United Copper at 25½ points is equivalent to an appreciation of $11,475,000, the second largest in market value.

The British council at Vera Cruz, Mexico, reports to his government as follows: "The recent exposure in the United States of certain modes of carrying on life insurance business has presented an opportunity to the British companies to choose the best part of the Mexican business in that line."

The check to the advance in Wall street yesterday, in view of the further easing of the money rate, was a disappointment to that speculative sentiment which has held the conviction firmly that money stringency was the only thing that would restrain a rise in prices of stocks as a result of the great activity and prosperity in all branches of business affairs.

An important report shortly will be issued by the United States Geological Survey on natural gas and its production and consumption. It will show that in 1904 the United States produced 98 per cent of the world's known output of natural gas, the value of the production being $38,496,760. This production amounted to approximately 258,645,000 cubic feet, or 6,159,480 tons of 2,000 pounds. The value increased $2,688,809 over that of 1903. Four states—Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Indiana and Ohio—produced 93.3 per cent of the output in the United States, Pennsylvania leading with 47 per cent of the whole amount.

Considerable importance was attached to the published statement from the president of the Imperial Bank of Germany expressing satisfaction with the international money situation. This may mean the correction of the unsatisfactory speculative situation at Berlin which, according to the same authority, prompted the advance in the German bank's discount rate and to the completion of necessary preparations for the Russian loan. If such results have been achieved it would mean much concerning the further requirements on the New York money market. But there was no relaxation in the firmness of the foreign exchange market and New York banking authority is allowed themselves an intimation that a possible gold export was a not remote contingency. New York exchange at Chicago also fell back to par. The sub-treasury continues to yield cash to the banks and the money market was called easy.

BEANS OF ALL KINDS ARE VERY SCARCE HERE

Lack of Cars in the Northwest Almost Causes a Famine Throughout the East.

With a few slight changes, the markets were firm and active during yesterday. Produce of all kinds found a good market and there was no advance in potatoes, as was expected.

Catawba grapes made their appearance on the market in four-pound baskets, selling for from 14 to 15 cents. All grapes are finding a ready sale and are in good demand.

There is almost a bean famine in Pittsburgh. The lack of cars in the northwest has caused a scarcity of beans throughout the east, and this city is suffering with the rest. There has been a strong demand with small receipts in New York for several days, and all shipments find a ready sale. A small increase was made in the price of beans in the local markets yesterday.

The butter and egg market was firm, and there was an advance in cheese.

A number of small white pigs in crates were on display by one commission merchant yesterday and attracted a large amount of attention from both passersby and customers. The little fellows were out in the rain, but did not seem to mind it a bit.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania, 19 cars hay, 2½ cars oats. Baltimore & Ohio, 12 cars hay, 2½ cars oats, ½ car corn, 1 car bran. Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 7 cars hay, 3 cars oats, 3 cars rye.

The market was firm and active during the day, the bidding being very brisk on exchange. The receipts were very light and every arrival was immediately taken up. The demand for straw, hay and oats continues and there seems to be little relief for it. Prices were unchanged during the day, but there is little doubt if the present demand for hay and straw continues there will be an increase in price.

The Wool Market.

BOSTON, Oct. 24.—An improvement is found in the demand for wool in the Boston market. There has been a noticeable increase in the call from the worsted manufacturers. The firm opening of the primary foreign markets has had a strengthening effect on trading here and has confirmed the belief that lower prices will prevail for some time. Pulled wools are quiet, with territories moving freely. Foreign grades are light. Leading quotations follow:

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 5 points, and shortly afterward increased the losses somewhat on the near months as a result of scattering liquidation and lower cables. Demand improved at the decline and the market ruled steady in the late session with the close steady at a net decline of 5 points to an advance of 5 points. Sales were reported of 59,500 bags, including November at 5.70c; December, 6.70@6.80c; January, 6.85c; March, 7.05c; May, 7.15@7.20c, and September at 7.50@7.55c. WHEAT MARKET KEPT FIRM BY CABLE REPORTS

Labor Troubles in Russia and Unsettled Weather Conditions Stimulate Purchases.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Probable curtailment of shipments of grain from Russia owing to spread of labor troubles was largely responsible for firmness today in the wheat market here. At the close wheat for December delivery was up ⅞c. Corn is up ½@¾c. Oats show a gain of ¼@¼c. Provisions are up a shade to 7½c.

The wheat market was firm throughout the entire session. At the opening, the December option was a shade to ¼@⅝c higher, at 87⅞ to 87½c. The principal cause of the initial firmness was an advance in the price of wheat at Liverpool said to be due to smaller offerings of wheat from Russia and Danubian ports. Unsettled weather in the United States was another factor instrumental in stimulating purchases. The government bureau officially forecasted quite general rains for tomorrow.

Greatest significance, however, was attached to cable news suggesting increased European demand for foodstuffs. The railroad strike in Russia attracted much attention, especially dispatches stating that the labor disturbances were spreading and were liable to be of long duration. A blockade of the railroads, it was asserted, would seriously hamper shipments of grain from Russia, and would cause greater demand for American grain.

As a result shorts and commission houses here were active bidders during the greater part of the day. For December delivery the price of the session rose reached at 87¼@87⅝c. The increase of 2,575,000 bushels in the visible supply started some selling by pit traders late in the day. In consequence a slight reaction occurred. The close, however, was firm with December at 87¼@87⅜c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 142,500 bushels. Primary receipts were 1,388,000 bushels, compared with 1,116,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 1,075 cars against 986 cars last week, and 997 cars a year ago.

Wet weather and light receipts imparted firmness to the corn market. A feature of trading was heavy buying of the May delivery by a prominent operator. Total purchases by this one trader were said to have been over 3,000,000 bushels. Higher prices at Liverpool helped to stimulate demand for corn here. A decrease for the week of 642,000 bushels in the visible supply was a bullish factor. The market closed firm with prices at the highest point of the day. December opened a shade to ⅛c higher, at 45c to 46⅛@45¼c, sold up to 45⅝c and closed at the top. Local receipts were 156 cars, with 46 of contract grade.

Sentiment in the oats market was bullish largely as a result of continued excellent demand from exporters. A report from cash houses indicating heavier receipts throughout Illinois had seemingly little effect on the market. December opened unchanged to a shade higher, at 29⅜@29½c to 29⅜c, sold between 29⅜c and 29⅝@29¾c, and closed at 29⅝c. Local receipts were 452 cars.

Provisions were firm in sympathy with the strength of grain. Trading was of a more general character than had been witnessed for some time. Liberal shipments of hog products had a strengthening influence. At the close, January pork was up 7½c, at $12.35@12.37½. Lard was a shade higher at $6.75. Ribs were up 5c, at $6.47½. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 88 cars; corn, 53 cars; oats, 239 cars; hogs, 35,000 head.

The leading futures, as reported by John D. Armstrong & Co., Farmers Bank building, Pittsburgh, members of the Chicago board of trade, ranged as follows:

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

Sulphur beds sufficiently rich to control the United States market for a score of years to come have been discovered in Western Texas, about 50 miles distant from El Paso, not far from the Rio Grande. Count C. F. Z. Caracristi, an eminent mining engineer of Italy, has completed an investigation of the resources of the deposits, and has submitted a report favoring the immediate development of the field by London capitalists whom he represents. Italy has hitherto controlled the sulphur market of the world.

James L. Long, general manager of the Hidalgo Mining Company, and Parral & Durango Railroad Company, has given an option to an English corporation on all of the holdings of the companies. This includes the Hidalgo properties at Minas Nuevas and Santa Barbara, with three large mills, power plants and other equipment, and 11 mines besides the Parral & Durango railroad and extension and valuable timber tracts southwest of Parral.

Silverton, Colo.—The Mogul tunnel group, located at the head of Cunningham gulch, north of Silverton, and one of the biggest and most profitable of the old-time producers of the San Juan district, has been purchased for $100,000 by Frederick Bodfish, Austin Holman, State Senator Owens, L. E. Hills, Mr. Ralston and other capitalists and mine owners of Denver and Cripple Creek. Rasmus Hanson was the seller. The new owners will begin extensive development work immediately.

Nine of the Cripple Creek mining companies will this month pay dividends $443,750, bringing the total dividends paid for the 10 months up to $3,611,790. Its dividend requirements are $36,000, showing a surplus above dividend for the month of $7,562. The company had cash on hand September 30, after the payment of $108,000 in dividends, the sum of $351,109.

Drillers Are Getting Busy, Prompted by Higher Market

Nothing better than light producers are reported from all sections of the lower southwest fields. In many localities in the shallow sand districts new work is starting, but the prospects for anything better than light pumpers are not promising. In Pleasants and Wood counties operators are going back and starting new work in territory long since regarded as outside of the range of the producing formation. The desire to drill is increasing with the advance in the market and makes dusters previously completed less feared. In the shallow sand districts in the two counties, the gas companies are as active as the oil company in drilling operations. On Indian creek, McElroy district, Tyler county, the Tri-State Gas Company has completed and shot its test on the James W. Booher farm and has a gasser in the Gordon. On Woodburn run, in the same district, the same company has completed a test on the Albert Stoneking farm and has a small gasser in the Gordon.

On the south fork of Hughes river, Murphy district, Ritchie county, the Salina Oil Company has completed No. 2 on the J. T. Riggs farm and has a 5-barrel pumper in the salt sand. The same company is starting No. 4 on the same farm. In the Smithfield district, Wetzel county, the Jackenburg Oil Company has drilled its test on the J. A. Dihlman farm 115 feet into the Big Injun sand and has no show for a paying producer. In the same district, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 19 on the Fetherolf-Peterson farm two feet into the Gordon and found a light pay. The hole has filled up 250 feet with fluids.

In the Turkey Foot extension, Rancock county, Haskell & Hopkins have completed No. 42 on the L. R. Smith farm and have a producer, good for eight barrels a day from the Berea grit.

On the Ohio side, in the new development on Wells creek, north of Steubenville, Jefferson county, Castner Bros. have drilled their second test on the Joseph Miller farm into the Berea grit and have no show for a producer. In the Marietta district, Washington county, the Augustine Oil Company has completed its No. 4 on the G. W. Harness farm and has a show for a very light pumper in the Mitchell sand. In the Rays Run district in the same county, C. C. Stover's No. 4 on the A. J. McMahon farm, which came in at gusher speed last week, declined rapidly and was given a shot, but the best it could do was to place 45 barrels to its credit the ensuing 24 hours.

In the Wolf Creek district, Bullock & Co. have completed their test on the Oscar Legett farm and have a duster. In the same district, Ford & Trachell have completed No. 5 on the W. R. Bell farm and have a very light pumper.

SPEED RECORD AGAIN BROKEN

Pennsylvania Officers Go 131 Miles from Crestline to Ft. Wayne in 98 Minutes.

TO OPEN P. & L. E. STATION

The former high record for the 131 miles of the Ft. Wayne route between Crestline and Ft. Wayne being covered in 102 minutes by the Pennsylvania special was bettered yesterday when a special train, carrying officers of the Pennsylvania system, covered the distance in 100 minutes. This time included a delay of two minutes at Nevada, where track work is under way, and thus the actual time was 98 minutes. This was at the rate of 80.2 miles an hour for the entire distance. From Pittsburgh to Ft. Wayne, a distance of 321 miles, the running time, including stops, was 312 minutes. This total run was made at the average rate of 61.73 miles an hour. One of the spurts of speed was the 72-mile stretch between Crestline and Lima, which was covered in 66 minutes.

The former high record was held by Engineman "Jerry" McCarthy, who hauls the Pennsylvania special in its flight across the country from Crestline to Ft. Wayne. It was not announced what engineman had been delegated to the test run made yesterday. The train was about the same weight as the Pennsylvania special, having three private cars and a coach. The test is understood to have been made to break former records and to find the most rapid schedule that can be maintained with perfect safety, so far as fast running is concerned.

In the party on this special train were General Manager G. L. Peck of the Pennsylvania lines west and General Superintendent A. M. Schoyer of the Northwest system, under whose direction the test was made. Accompanying these officers were General Manager W. W. Atterbury of Philadelphia and Resident Assistant to the President Robert Pitcairn of Pittsburgh of the Pennsylvania railroad. These officers were en route to Chicago to attend the biennial meeting of the American Railway association, with which they are prominently identified in committee work.

Pennsylvania Lines in the Lead.

The Pennsylvania lines west are in the lead not only in modern passenger equipment, but also in the provisions for lighting this equipment. The Pennsylvania system was the first to make use of electric lighting in passenger train service and the lines west have been the most progressive in the adoption and furtherance of such lighting. All through coaches operating between the larger cities on the system, in the through trains, are now electric lighted, while electric lights are also used on some of the trains in shorter hauls, as for instance, in the Washington (Pa.) express trains from here. All through coaches from Pittsburgh to Wheeling, Columbus, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Chicago, Toledo, Cleveland and Erie are electric lighted. Steps will be taken shortly toward providing electric lights in the postal cars.

The Pennsylvania limited, possibly the most luxurious train and the oldest train of its class in the world, is distinctive in three things: It was the first train to be called "limited," it was the first train to be composed entirely of Pullman equipment and it was the first train to be run fully electric lighted. This train was installed between Chicago and New York in 1885. Today the following high-class limited trains are using full electric lighting: The Pennsylvania specials, the Pennsylvania limiteds, the New York and St. Louis limiteds and the Manhattan and Chicago limiteds. All of the trains are lighted by the dynamo-storage system, the dynamo being in the baggage compartment of the combination car, and electricity being stored also in batteries under each car. The cars are all connected by wires. Where the storage system is used alone, the batteries are charged at the Jersey City, Pittsburgh, Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati terminals. In connection with this system for the Pullman equipment using electric lights, outside of the equipment for the above limited trains, the coaches on trains Nos. 7, 15, 21 and 30, which are operated through to Jersey City, are charged at the terminals.

The Pennsylvania lines have been distinctive in the progress in electric lighted equipment in the more direct use of the storage system than any other road. Some of the other roads are using this system in part, but most of them are making use of the axle system in which the electricity is generated directly from the axles of the cars. The matter of electric lighting has become so general that almost every new car built by the Pullman company for its own use is now provided with wires for the electric lights.

Significance of New Station.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie will probably place into service November 1 one of the handsomest stations on its lines and also one of the best of the smaller stations in this territory. This station is to take the place of the old Brighton station, just south of Beaver Falls. The new station is to be known as Beaver Falls-Brighton. While this name may have some significance to those who travel over the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, or those who live at Beaver Falls and New Brighton and make use of the trains in coming to Pittsburgh, there is a deeper significance attaching to the new station under the new name. The station will be of more convenience to probably one-third of the population of Beaver Falls than the pretty Beaver Falls station, and at the same time it is conveniently located for the New Brighton population across the river.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie has heretofore maintained both the Beaver Falls station and the Brighton station as stopping places for most of the through trains, as well as all local trains. But this is the day of rapidity in railway service and the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie is not to be caught napping. It will not be long until a schedule of a mile a minute will be in force over the fine roadway. One of the means of reaching this end will be the reduction of loss of time taken in stops, and the Beaver Falls-Brighton station combining service for the two towns is the aim in the new station. The facilities are ample and modern for caring for the heavy through travel. Long train sheds have been provided and the station is larger than the Beaver Falls station. The building is of buff brick and will have a waiting room furnished in mahogany.

Honors for Dillon and Young.

James K. Dillon, district passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh, and Harry C. Young, district passenger agent of the Rock Island-Frisco system at Cleveland, are to be the honor guests at an interesting affair tomorrow evening. The "Denver club," composed of members of Col. John B. Clark post 162, G. A. R., and their friends who were along on the recent trip to Denver for the annual encampment, will hold a reception and banquet at which Messrs. Dillon and Young and several other well-known railroad men are to be present. The dinner is to be given in return for the many courtesies extended by Dillon and Young on the special train from here to Denver and return. The committee on arrangements consists of John S. Nichol, adjutant of the post, chairman; William T. Bradberry, Campbell Stanton, Joseph W. Boyd, Frank L. Bisir and John Wallace.

Railroad Notes.

W. M. McIntyre, chief clerk to Robert Pitcairn of the Pennsylvania, has returned with his family from a vacation sojourn at Pavia, Ill.

E. A. Sheridan of the operating force of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, who was assisting in the station master's office, will leave for a visit to New England points.

E. B. Bithridge, chief clerk to General Manager G. L. Peck of the Pennsylvania lines, is enjoying a week's vacation in the east, and W. E. Perry, assistant chief clerk, is filling the duties of the office.

C. M. Van Meter, formerly connected with the freight claim department of the Pennsylvania lines, has been appointed traffic manager of the Babcock lumber interests as successor to Charles A. Rose, who has become chief clerk to General Agent D. E. Hurd of the Lake Shore.

The committee on new iron and steel rails of the Central Freight association and the Trunk Line association will meet at Buffalo today and will be attended by a number of the Pittsburgh traffic men, who compose the Bessemer committee. S. L. Sermour, division freight agent of the Pennsylvania here, is president of the committee, and W. H. Smith, division freight agent of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern at Cleveland, is secretary.

LIBERTY AVENUE DEAL IS CLOSED

J. W. Harrison Is Buyer of Craig Property at 629, the Price Being $123,000.

SECOND AVENUE WAREHOUSES

After nearly six months of guessing as to whether there really was a deal made for the property at 629 Liberty avenue, who made the deal and who the purchaser was, the doubts of the rosity public were set at rest yesterday by the announcement that the deal had been closed. It develops that O. C. Zellner & Co. handled the deal, and that J. W. Harrison of this city is the present owner of the property, he having secured title to it from N. B. Craig of Philadelphia. The consideration in the deed will be $123,000, and it is rumored that W. H. Stevenson may be the real buyer. As the lot measures only 26.6x116 feet, the price is $6,000 a front foot, or $51.72 a square foot. The lot runs back to a private alley and is improved with an old three-story brick building now tenanted by M. O. Coggins. The lease on this building expires next April and Mr. Coggins expects to go to the outer Penn avenue district, where he already has one establishment. No. 629 will be either torn down and replaced by a modern store building six or eight stories high, or it will be remodeled at large expense to make it an up-to-date business home.

This purchase is in the same square where T. J. Keenan last week secured 40x88 feet at the corner of Seventh street for $300,000, or $7,500 a front foot. Mr. Keenan had previously bought 20 feet adjoining and the price which he paid for the 60 feet figures at the rate of $7,083 a front foot, or $80.50 a square foot. The two deals so close together give early promise of the removal of four of the old commission house spots which have long been an eyesore to the district, and which have kept more pretentious business concerns from locating in the vicinity.

$75,000 Project Is Contemplated.

Three more warehouses are likely to be built in Second avenue next spring. The project is now being considered by the Scaife estate, which owns 62.5x80 feet on the north side of the avenue above Market street. This lot is now improved with a one-story building occupied by the McClure Tin Plate Company, which has rented one of the proposed Wabash warehouses in Fourth avenue, opposite the Wabash passenger station. The Scaife buildings as proposed will be six or eight-story brick and steel structures to cost together $75,000.

The interest of a large number of realty brokers, as well as property owners, is being taken now by the suits that are or will soon be entered against the Pennsylvania railroad system for damages claimed to result from the railroad appropriating property for track purposes. Now that the borough engineers in Wilkinsburg have submitted the estimated cost of lowering the sewers, water mains, etc., in that borough to correspond with the proposed grades of the Pennsylvania railroad when the grade crossings are removed, property owners are beginning to get some idea of how much their lots will be damaged, especially those whose holdings extend back to Wood street. In Allegheny it is said a number of suits are to be entered soon as the result of damages to property in North and Irwin avenues where the grade crossing on the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago railroad is being done away with, as well as on the less important streets farther down the road, where property is less valuable.

Some Good Buildings Assured.

Considering the time of year, there is much more work coming on the boards of architects than was expected earlier in the season, when building projects dragged. Although very few large building jobs are being figured, there are a good number of residence and store building projects that call for an expenditure of $20,000 or more which are being pushed ahead. The result of estimates taken on such work indicates a much better feeling among prospective builders than a year ago, inasmuch as they are taking the high prices more as a matter of course and do not hesitate so much to go on with the work.

Architects MacClure & Spahr have plans for a brick and stone residence for Fred R. Babcock of the Babcock Lumber Company to be erected in Woodland road at a cost of $40,000.

Architect F. N. Arble of Hazelwood is preparing plans for a five-story brick and steel hotel for David Thompson in Lincoln avenue to cost $35,000.

Plans are being drawn by Architects McCollum & Dowler for a three-story brick hotel at Beaver for William T. Pierce to cost $35,000.

Architect James S. Steen has plans nearly completed for a brick and stone store and warehouse for M. Mamaux & Son in Fifth avenue. He also has plans for a large apartment house to be built by E. F. Jackson in Fifth avenue, near Morewood avenue, East End.

The Pittsburgh Portland Cement Company is having plans prepared for a cement plant at Irwin, Pa.

WALLS ARE MADE PROOF AGAINST JAIL-BREAKERS

Revision in Plans of the County Prison Said to Effectually Prevent Escape of Criminals.

The work of transforming the granite cliffs of Maine into walls that will shut out liberty from the prisoners in the Allegheny county jail has again been resumed. For several weeks the workmen on the big contract on Grant's hill were without material and no progress was made, great breaches being left in the jail walls. In the meantime the other improvements went rapidly forward.

Robert Osterling, the jail architect, has had no experience in safe-guarding desperate criminals. For this reason some afterthoughts are being considered in the rebuilding of the big prison. Warden Edward Lewis looked over the plans and saw that some additional precautions could be taken to prevent the possible escape of criminals. The walls of the building are of rough-faced granite through and through, while the inside of the walls surrounding the jail are of smooth, hard-faced brick. In the angles formed by the corners where the building and the yard walls join it would have been the easiest thing in the world for the would-be jail-breaker to remove his shoes and "shin" to the top of the structure and leap over into the street—and liberty.

Memories of the Biddles and the Fitzsimmons are still fresh in the minds of the jail officials and the prison board and no time was lost in taking measures to prevent even the possibility of an escape over the walls. According to the latest plans there will be no angles in the walls. Instead a round corner will be built at each junction of the building and the outer wall and this will be lined with smooth hard brick. the new prison, says Warden Lewis, will be practically proof against the shrewdest desperado who may endeavor to escape.

HOLDS BOY FOR SHOOTING

Prisoner Says It Was Accidental, but the Prosecutor Differs.

Dominick Donatti, an Italian youth, was yesterday committed to jail by Alderman Martin to await a hearing this morning on a charge of felonious assault with intent to kill. The assault is said to have taken place on Sunday, when Samuel Bono was shot in the arm by Donatti. Both boys were employed at Elizabeth, Pa., on the county roads and the alleged shooting took place in the camp. The wound, which was made with a 38-caliber revolver, will not prove serious, and Bono will be able to appear against Donatti at the hearing.

Donatti says he was playing with the revolver and the shooting was entirely accidental. Alphonso Bono, a brother of the wounded boy, who made the information, maintains differently.

GREAT SONG WRITER
PAUL DRESSER, CURED BY
DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

SICK KIDNEYS Make One an Easy Subject for Colds and Chills, and Every Cold Settles on the Kidneys Causing Pain in the Small of the Back, Rheumatic Aches, Etc.

When the kidneys are well they filter out of the blood every day from three to four pounds of watery waste (urine). You can soon tell when the kidneys are sick, for if this work is not properly done, the impurities will cause urinary disorders, pain in the back and loins, dizzy spells; every change in the weather will affect you, making you feel miserable, weak, nervous and rheumatic.

The seriousness of colds and chills is but little realized. Extra work is thrown upon the kidneys, and as it is impossible for the kidneys to do this extra work besides their own, they become diseased. It is, therefore, wise to provide against sudden changes of weather by keeping the kidneys well, or if a cold or chill is felt, begin using Doan's Kidney Pills and take them regularly until health and strength is restored.

Doan's Kidney Pills assist the kidneys in filtering out the poisonous waste by reviving their activity and restoring a natural action to the connecting organisms. The treatment makes you stronger and better in every way, so that you are less likely to take colds and chills. This remedy has done a great work in this city.

Sold by all druggists. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., Prop's.

PITTSBURGH PROOF

John Gabell, roofer, who lives in a houseboat on the river just below the Point bridge, is a firm friend of Doan's Kidney Pills, and any sufferer from kidney troubles who desires to correspond with him may address him care of John Gaw, Rebecca street, Allegheny. Mr. Gabell said: "Before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I had suffered with kidney complaint for thirteen years. I had the usual constant dull heavy pains through the loins and in the abdomen, and suffered from severe headaches and spells of dizziness which nearly toppled me over. The kidney secretions were irregular, full of sediment and scalded in passing. Doan's Kidney Pills very promptly relieved me of these troubles, and I was pleased to give a testimonial telling of my experience and recommending them. That was six year ago and I have been well ever since."

Gentlemen: I wish to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, in the hope that my indorsement may be read by at least a few of the many thousands of sufferers from kidney trouble. I was so wretched from this malady that I could not sleep, rest nor eat, and had a weak and aching back. Doan's Kidney Pills effectually cured me, and I wish that others may know, in order that they may also be benefited by the remedy. Yours truly,
